

NOTHING NEW
 JACKSON, Miss. — The Mississippi state prison notified Jackson Police Wednesday that Frank Davis had been released on Sunday after serving a four-year term for theft.
 Police wired back that they knew. They had picked up Davis Tuesday night on a petty larceny charge.

The hard shell of the lobster, which does not increase in size as the animal grows, is cast off and it acquires a new one.

Governor Nels Rockefeller Shows High-Octane Charm

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the role of a man who says he isn't running for president, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller pumped a five-hour flow of high octane charm at top Republicans here Thursday.

JOINS CONFERENCE

MADISON, N.J. (AP)—An all-Negro church has joined the Newark Methodist Church of Englewood was voted to membership unanimously by delegates at the 102nd session of the conference.

The pleasure was centered at the Capitol Hill Club, a Republican organization which he had helped to found.
 In between, reporters put him in varying forms the big question of whether he will be available for the 1960 Republican nomination.
 A score of smiling replies melted down to the standard formula—"I'm not a candidate for anything. All I want is to be a good governor of New York."
 About as far as he would go beyond that was to say that he would wait to see if his name were entered in next year's New Hampshire presidential primary and then would decide what he would do.
 That primary would provide an early test against Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the nomination.
 At the Capitol Hill Club Rockefeller donned a bib to eat Maine lobsters and roasting ears.
 When he came out of the club after shaking hands with everybody, including the waiters, a group of youngsters, driving an over-age car bearing signs reading "Nixon in '60" and "Stick with Dick Nixon," went tooting by. Stopping down under the trees to read the signs, Rockefeller clapped his hands in brief applause.
