Lions To Attend Portland Meet

The Oregon State Lions Clubs and Auxiliaries Convention will be held in Portland June 18, 19 and 20. The theme, "Frontier Frolic" will be used for the auxiliary meetings which will be conducted by Mrs. Verne Conwell, president, in the Lincoln High School. Election and installation of officers and reports of committees will be features of the three day meet.

WABENO COUNCIL

WEED—New chiefs were elected at the June 5th meeting of Wabeno Council, degree of Pocahontas, with Mrs. Dorothy Sottana, Pocahontas, presiding.

Slated for installation following their election are Mrs. Sottana, prophetess; Mrs. Alma Killingsworth, Pocahontas; Mrs. Nella Wade, powhatan; Mrs. Rita Renning, wewonah; Mrs. Geneva Hildreth, keeper of records; Mrs. Silvia Cardoza, collector of wampum; Mrs. Nellie Del Nabo, keeper of wampum; and Mrs. Virginia Anderson, trustee.

Mrs. Elaine Summers and Mrs. Mabel Rogers were elected to membership.

The coin award for the evening was given to Mrs. Hildreth and dimes went to Pocahontas. Mrs. Sottana and Mrs. Del Nero.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Cardoza and Mrs. Anita Pimmmental.

VISITS IN EAST

FORT KLAMATH — Gretchen Wilson, 15-year-old daughter of Carl F. Wilson, is visiting her older brother, Carrel A. "Sandy" Wilson in Madison, Wisconsin. Gretchen, a student at Chiloquin High School, made the trip by air. Carrel Wilson is employed by Western Electric Company in that city. He was graduated from Oregon State College in 1956 with a degree in electrical engineering. In October of this year, he will be working at Camp Adair near Corvallis.

RETURN FOR SUMMER

FORT KLAMATH—Mr. and Mrs. Loren L. Miller Sr. of Red Bluff, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. McAuliffe and family, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. McAuliffe and family and Mrs. J. P. McAuliffe, all of Cottonwood, have returned to their summer homes here. The Millers and the McAuliffes are in the cattle business in both California and the Fort Klamath district.

CENTENNIAL SPECIAL!

Crater Lake OLD FASHIONED FRENCH CUSTARD ICE CREAM

A most delightful flavor, popular for 100 years — One of the first SPECIALS we ever offered, and probably one of the first ice creams you ever enjoyed. Plenty of wholesome eggs and a tasty touch of lemon cause you to remember its wonderful flavor from childhood.

Your grandmother — yes, even your great-great grandmother — made Custard ice cream when she had to use hailstones for ice. Treat your family to Crater Lake's delightful Centennial Special, FRENCH CUSTARD ice cream tonight.
