Friday Results
 Henley Sporting Goods 12, Chiloquin 11
 Crater Lake Machinery 8, K Amusement 1

Henley Sporting Goods and Crater Lake Machinery climbed into a tie for fifth spot on the Babe Ruth League Standings by virtue of wins on Conger Field Friday night. The games marked the close of the third week of the 1959 BR season.

The Henley nine, down 11 to 5 in the home half of the last inning, exploded for seven runs to finally subdue Chiloquin 12-11 while Crater Lake maintained an even pace throughout in measuring the K Amusement nine 8-1.

Rulers Censored By NAAU

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—The executive committee of the National Amateur Athletic Union (NAAU) Saturday condemned the International Olympic Committee (IOC) for withdrawing recognition of Nationalist China. Without this recognition Nationalist China cannot compete in the Olympic Games.

A resolution, which AAU officials said was approved unanimously, demanded that the IOC "rescind immediately its unjustified action against Nationalist China."

The IOC in a meeting at Munich May 29 ordered the National Chinese group to withdraw. Red China representatives on the IOC withdrew Aug. 19, 1958, in a dispute over the presence of the Nationalists on the same committee.

Kellum Johnson of Dallas, president of the AAU, said he interpreted the IOC's action in Munich as a move to give both Chinese groups representation on the committee. He said he understood the IOC intended to invite the Nationalists to reapply for admission under another name. At Munich the Nationalists were told they would be acceptable as the Formosan Olympic Committee.

The AAU committee's action was announced at a news conference in conjunction with the National AAU Track and Field Championships here.

Henley Sports Win

Credited with the Henley victory was rightfielder Ken Quigley who moved into the mound in the fourth inning in relief of starter Earl Albritton. The loser was Chiloquin's Ed Case, who went the full distance.

Albritton, who won for his club the last time out, experienced a rough second and third inning at the hands of the Chiloquin batters as they rapped eight hits, including a triple by shortstop John Wright, a home run by catcher Sylvan Crume and a double by third baseman Pat Barney.

His relief, Quigley, quelled the uprising with only one more Chiloquin hit, a harmless rap in the sixth.

The Sporting Goods nine got away to a 4-0 lead in the first stanza but then were still under the bottom of the seventh. Assisted by singles from Quigley and second sacker Mike Beymer, and a weakening on the part of Case, the Henleyites contrived seven runs to ice the affair.

Cats Victor

The Cats clawed four K Amusement pitchers for only four hits but capitalized on a total of 12 walks, six off starting twirler Ben Gonzales, Gonzales, who was lifted in the fourth, was charged with the loss.

The winner was Crater Lake's Johnny Simpson who fanned 10, walked four and gave up only three hits. He lost a chance for a shutout when the Amusement squad counted its lone tally off a pair of walks and a single by Bill Netzer, rightfielder.

P & R Adds New Activities

The Klamath Falls Park and Recreation program swings into high gear Tuesday as four phases of summer activity get underway. All the local park playgrounds, including Pelican, are now operating in full force, according to Jim Johnson, supervisor.

Tuesday at 9 a.m. the physical conditioning program, which includes tumbling, trampoline work, parallel and horizontal bars, begins on Pelican Court. Both boys and girls of all ages are welcome.

Also slated for Tuesday at 9 a.m. is the arts - crafts program at Fairview School.

Moore Park is the scene of the tennis schedule beginning at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon while Johnson and Don Story will supervise the opening of the summer track activities on Modoc Field at 5 p.m.

Klamath Falls youngsters who wish to participate in the summer programs should report to the various fields and buildings at the designated times, said Johnson.

AHL SETS MEETING

NEW YORK (UPI)—The American Hockey League has scheduled its annual three-day meeting in Hershey, Pa., beginning June 24. The league governors will consider applications for franchises from the Montreal Royals and the Quebec Aces of the Quebec League.

Jack Fleck Quits Canadian Open

MONTREAL (AP)—Jack Fleck, Los Angeles pro and 1935 U.S. Open champion, pulled out of the Canadian Open Golf Championship Saturday in a huff because he wasn't allowed to park where he had been accustomed to leaving his car.

Harvey Raynor, (PGA tournament supervisor, said Fleck would be fined $100.

Fleck was told by an attendant to park at another spot near the clubhouse. Apparently some spectators had parked in the area reserved for competitors.

ALTRUCK IMPROVING

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Nick Altrick, 82, former major league pitcher and one-time comic partner of Al Schacht, the "crown prince of baseball," was operated on Friday for acute appendicitis. He is reported resting comfortably.

"In a day when scientists are groping into outer space with their rockets and missiles, Washington's football coach Jim Owens is fervently searching for someone to throw a 15-ounce leather oval a distance of about 10-30 yards at a target six feet or taller."

Thompson has another... "Coach Jim Owens has said: 'What we need is not a "lonesome end" but a "lonesome halfback"—somebody who can get himself lost in a secondary.'"

Heavyweight Champion Floyd (Himself) Patterson says, "A lot of people say I'm not a great champion, or even a good champion. But they can't say I'm not The Champion."

He also maintains, "I've known Cus D'Amato since I was 14. If I didn't get a dime out of fighting Johansson, I'd still do it. What Cus is trying to do will be good, not just for me, but for all fighters." ... No comment.

A pair of ex-Henley athletes, Burrell Gober and Leroy Larson, basketball, football and track stars, have received athletic scholarships to Colorado Western State College at Gunnison, Colorado, the Alma Mater of coach Ted Ammerman.

A face (and what with receding hair is getting longer by the year) familiar to Klamath baseball fans, that of Hub Kittle, is getting into the act, but good, in the Northwest League's attempt to keep the turnstiles clicking and thus stay in business. Hub, manager of the Yakima team, is engineering a "A Hub Kittle Night-mare" as a promotional bid to help fill the seats. When Hub's around... you pay your money and who knows?

Moynia Heights, the Cinderella team of the local Babe Ruth League is having a tough time finding a carriage that doesn't resemble a pumpkin... They have yet to acquire a win in league play but it doesn't seem to bother coach Vic Lancaster and his crew of "castoffs." One of these days they will catch fire. And when they do... look out.

Lot of enthusiasm around the Klamath Union High gym these days. Dean White's summer basketball program is in full swing with teams from Merrill, Henley and KU now participating. Dean says the latching is out for many other areas who wish to take part in the summer work. Leagues are planned.

Baseball teams in the Klamath Falls area have shed a tear or two, understandably, over the lack of attendance at local games. Guess one would have to charge it up the large influx in the local interest in boats. Klamath Lake, Lake of the Woods, Crescent and Odell are loaded with Klamath Falls people and their boats... and it's getting more so. They are not all fishermen either... lots of water skiing, joy riding and just plain "hot-ruddering." And that's what makes baseball... hurt.

This writer, an old auto race fan, was kind of disappointed to hear that the Klamath Racing Association plans to suspend racing on the Eberlein Street track until July and then race spasmodically, from there on. Last week the group staged one of the best races we have seen and it seems to me that it would have been a good time to follow up and build some fans. Bringing these cars from California in for the programs may have hurt the local drivers' billfolds and prestige for a short time but in the long run there would have been a lot more people in the paid-for type seats.

Summer Hoopers In Action

Four teams of Klamath County basketball players are taking part in the Klamath Falls Park and Recreation Department's summer cage slate now underway on KU's Pelican Court nightly, according to director Dean White.

Squads representing Merrill and Henley have registered so far and are competing amongst themselves and two teams made up of Klamath Union athletes.

Boys of high school age upward who wish to participate in the sport are invited to check in at the Pelican gym any evening at 7 o'clock. Junior high and grammar school boys' sessions begin at 10 a.m. daily.

KU players attending the opening sessions include Bob Lewis, Wayne Dennis, Paul Bishop, Dean Dunson, Bill Santo, Bill Bogatay, Bob Lapsley, Ray Taylor, Don Eastman, Jim Patzke, Gary Patzke, Earl Brinson and Bob Cooper. Henley players are Duffy Adams, Leroy Larson, John Nolen and Joe Tacchini.

Merrill has been represented by Herb Schlect, Leroy Schlect, Dean Haskins, John Haskins and Bruce Brickner.

Although leagues have, as yet, not been formed, the teams are playing nightly games. Upon the addition of more players leagues will be formed and a regular schedule adhered to, according to White.

In first round play the KU squad nipped Henley 50-47 and topped Merrill 50-22. Second round action saw the KU five trip the "Sops" 51-29 and 40-22.

Krishnan Wins Singles Crown

LONDON (AP)—India's Ramanathan Krishnan completed his two-day sweep of Wimbledon favorites Saturday by winning the men's singles title in the warm-up London Club Tournament with a 6-3 4-6 victory over Neale Fraser of Australia.

Krishnan, overlooked in the Wimbledon seedings, had spilled U.S. Davis Cup star Alex Olmedo of Peru in straight sets in Friday's semifinals. Olmedo is seeded No. 1 and Fraser No. 2 for the Wimbledon Tournament which begins Monday.

Oregon's Burlleson Speeds To Triumph

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—Oregon freshman miler Deyrol Burlleson and Kansas University hurdler Charlie Tidwell raced to sensational record-breaking victories Saturday in the rain-dampened National AAU Track and Field Championships.

Burlleson, unmindful of the mile-high altitude or the soggy cinders, beat his senior teammate Jim Grelle, the NCAA mile champion, in the 1,500-meter race, 120 yards short of a mile. Burlleson's time of 3 minutes, 47.5 seconds cracked the AAU mark of 3:47.9 set by 1940 by Wisconsin miler Walter Miel.

Tidwell, NCAA 100-yard dash champion, blazed to a United States record in the 200-meter low hurdles. His time around one curve of 22.6 seconds broke his 1958 mark of 22.7. Tidwell also erased the AAU mark of 23.3 by Harrison Dillard in 1946.

San Jose State's great sprinter, Ray Norton, sped to victory in the 200 meters to become the only double champion in the two-day meet. He won the 200 meters in 20.8 seconds. Norton copped the 100 meters in 10.5.

Norton took over "the crown held last year by Bobby Morrow, Abilene (Tex.). Christian's great star who failed to qualify in either event. Morrow has been unable to get in top condition since suffering a muscle spasm in his left thigh at Houston June 6.

The Southern California Striders, featuring record-breaking shot putter Parry O'Brien, repeated as team champions.

At Oerter of the New York Athletic Club set an AAU meet record in the discus of 196 feet, 8 inches Saturday. Fortune Gordon set the old mark of 183-9/16 in 1953.

Wisconsin Sweeps IRA Win

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Wisconsin's dark horse Badgers swept to the front with a mile and a quarter to go and whipped Syracuse's favored Orange by two lengths for the Intercollegiate Rowing Assn. championship on wind-swept Onondaga Lake Saturday.

The Big Ten rowers, tallest crew in the 11-shell varsity final, won their second IRA title and their first since the 1951 race at Marietta, Ohio.

The Badgers not only broke Cornell's victory streak at four but ended Eastern domination of this rowing classic ever since it was shifted to Onondaga in 1952.

After collaring pace-setting Syracuse at the mile and three-quarters mark of the 3-mile, the Badgers pulled ahead with every stroke.

Navy, trying desperately to win the big one "for Rusty"—retiring coach Rusty Callow—finished third and almost nipped Syracuse at the wire. California, trying to do the same for retiring Ky Ehbright, was fourth.

Washington, returning to IRA competition after a two-year NCAA-enforced ban, took fifth place. The Huskies, however, won the Jim Ten Eyck team trophy with second place finishes in both the freshman and junior varsity races plus their fifth in the climax race.

Wisconsin's time in the face of a 17 m.p.h. headwind was 18:01.7. This was far behind the course record time of 15:08.1 set by Navy's Olympic championship crew in 1952 with the aid of a terrific tailwind.

Norton, only double champion in the two-day meet, received 11 votes from newspaper, radio and television reporters. Deyrol Burlleson, Oregon freshman miler who won the 1500 meters in record time, was given 6 votes.

Salem Boasts Cagey Boss

SALEM, Ore. (AP)—Karl Kuehl, at 21, is proving that baseball is a young man's game.

He took over this spring as manager-first baseman of the Salem Senators and now has them in first place, five games ahead, in the class B Northwest League race. He's a timely hitter, and is currently batting .308.

It's a home-owned club, too, with only a loose farm connection with the Cincinnati Redlegs.

Kuehl established himself as a favorite with Salem fans in 1957 when he led the Northwest League with a .347 batting average and tied for the league lead in doubles with 31. He was voted the team's most popular player.

He went elsewhere then. But when a manager was needed for the 1959 team, his friends urged him to apply. He did.

"At first I thought they were kidding," Kuehl said, "but then I figured there was nothing to lose."

It wasn't exactly his first managing venture. Kuehl, a resident of La Habra, Calif., recalls that at 15, he ran a winning semi-pro at Huntington Park, Calif.

"Sometimes I can hardly grasp the responsibility of the job," he says, "but it's something I've always wanted to do."

"You have to have that little bit extra to get to the top in baseball, and I did not figure I could make it playing so thought I would give managing a try."

Only one thing he doesn't like about it.

"Moving a player or cutting one loose. I can't sleep nights worrying about it when I have to make the decision."

Norton Selected Outstanding Ace

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—Ray Norton of San Jose State, winner of the 100 and 200-meter sprints, was voted Saturday the outstanding athlete in the 71st national AAU track and field championships.

Norton, only double champion in the two-day meet, received 11 votes from newspaper, radio and television reporters. Deyrol Burlleson, Oregon freshman miler who won the 1500 meters in record time, was given 6 votes.

PSC Vikings Pick Smithwick

Portland State College's 10-week search for a head football coach ended Saturday with the announcement by Athletic Director Joe Holland that Hugh Smithwick, a former standout player and assistant coach at the University of Nevada, has been selected to replace Les Leggett, who resigned April 9. Smithwick's appointment is subject to approval by the State Board of Higher Education.

Smithwick, who comes to PSC from the University of Nevada at Las Vegas branch, where he had filled the double role of director of athletics and health and physical education since 1956, will join the staff as an assistant professor in the division of education.

Smithwick's previous coaching experience was at the University of Nevada, where he served as an assistant coach from 1948 to 1955, when he assumed his duties at the Las Vegas branch.

Hugh was a three-sport letterman at Nevada, earning awards in football, basketball, and track. His football coach was Jim Aiken, former University of Oregon mentor. Smithwick performed at tackle and end for the Wolfpack and was captain in his senior year.

While in the service, at Fort Benning, Georgia, he was an all-service selection as a tackle. Among his teammates were Bob Waterfield and Joe Ruit, an All-American guard at Texas A&M. The new Portland State mentor, who is well-versed in both the single-wing and T-formation, will install the familiar T in his first season at the helm of the Vikings.

Lose A Few, Lose A Few

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A pro-football player for the Chicago Bears ran into a hard hitting line of policemen Saturday.

Harlon Hill, one of the Bears' top pass-catching ends, is free on bond after he was arrested on charges of six different offenses, including drunken driving, after leaving the scene of an accident.

Police traced Hill to his home after obtaining his license number from Mark Paris, 16, driver of the other auto involved.

C. E. Hawkins, one of three policemen who made the arrest at Hill's home, quoted him as saying "You little... You're too little to put those handcuffs on me."

Hill was taken into custody after what the officers described as a hard struggle.

Specific charges against Hill were: drunk driving, running a red light, leaving the scene, resisting arrest, driving without a license and driving after his license was revoked. Police said he lost his license after being arrested in Arkansas recently on a drunk driving charge.

Good Golfing With Good

By Clark Good, Reames Golf Pro

Entries are coming in a lot faster from other clubs than our own for the Centennial Tournament to be staged at Reames June 28. This tournament will be 18 holes for those persons who have handicaps above 16 and 37 holes for those with handicaps 16 and under. There will be three handicap divisions as follows: 0-7, 8-15, 16 up. This gives every one a fighting chance to help make this first invitational tournament a success. Remember it is our tournament so let's get in it. $500 in merchandise prizes will be awarded the various winners.

The ladies have completed their spring handicap play with some new faces wearing the crowns. The 18-hole championship was fought between Jerry Smith and Mary Drew with Jerry Smith the winner 3 and 2. Both had good rounds, Jerry, 87, and Mary, 94.

In the nine-hole championship Marge Graham defeated Eve Ashley 1 up in a tight match. Both winners are new members to our golfing circles. Fran Anderson defeated Vi Zamsky for the first flight crown in the 18-hole group. Fran also is a newcomer to Reames.

Plans are going ahead at a rapid rate for the coming Oregon Professional Match Play Championship to be held here July 13 through 16. Be sure to hold Sunday evening, July 12, open as there will be special entertainment, dinner, and meet the pros that evening in the club house.

Ed Robinson has built a very fine scoreboard, something that the club has needed a long time. Frank Mosebar is putting on the finishing touches, and yours truly will apply the paint so it will be ready for the Centennial. Our many thanks to these gentlemen. Gus Anderson's "divot diggers" came up with the low net in the monthly stag event with a score of 298. Jim Ray's "Roustabouts" scored a victory in the low gross division. In individual play Carl Woods gained low gross with a 79, and Mal. Cliff Anderson won low net with a 87.

Golf Oddity: "Brother helps out" as played by Steve and Tommy Good. While playing last Wednesday morning Steve hit his tee shot on the seventh hole to the edge of the cup, Tommy, not quite the long hitter that Steve is, used two shots to send his ball to the edge of the green. In chipping his next shot, Tom's ball hit Steve's into the cup for a 1!

As you read this the junior golfers of Reames will be in Portland getting in a practice round in preparation for the week long Oregon State Junior play. We hope to bring home a couple of champs. Yours for better golfing.
