Lutheran Church Is Scene Of Brown-Hermann Rites

Beauty baskets of pink and lavender gladioli and daisies beside candelabra holding lighted tapers were a lovely setting for the wedding ceremony in which Carole Lee Hermann became the bride of Milton Homer Brown. The nuptials were read by the Rev. LeRoy Redal before the altar of the Klamath Lutheran Church at one o'clock on June 7.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hermann of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Brown of Estacada, Oregon, are parents of the bridegroom.

Given, in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white Chantilly lace over satin. A crown of pearls held her shoulder length veil. She carried pink roses and a lavender orchid on a white Bible, which was a gift from her bridegroom. Her jewelry was a strand of pearls which had belonged to her grandmother, the late Jennie Thompson.

Andrea Bonotto, maid of honor, wore a white dress with lavender trim and a headband of lavender flowers. Bridesmaids were Betty Horn, Jerry Sheldons and Mary Ann Neat. Their dresses, made like the maid of honor's, were apricot, mint green and lavender, each with a matching headband. Each attendant carried a nosegay of pink and lavender flowers.

Jeanne Minton and Susan Minton, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. Another cousin, Robin Perkins of Ashland, was ring bearer.

The candles were lighted by Ronnie Hermann, brother of the bride, and Gary Shearer, the bride's cousin.

Best man was Daniel Blum of Coquille. Ushers were Bill Griggs Jr., Coquille, Sam Snead, Klamath Falls, and Jerry Higg of Eugene.

Fred Olin was the organist and also accompanied Mrs. Bill Griggs who sang "Because."

Mrs. Hermann chose for her daughter's wedding a pink dress with lavender accessories and corsage. Mrs. Brown wore a mint green dress, white accessories and a pink corsage.

Immediately following their wedding the newlyweds received congratulations from 150 guests at a reception in the Pine Grove room of the Willard Hotel. Guests were registered by Mrs. Robert Minton, aunt of the bride. Assisting were Mrs. R. G. Torgerson, Mrs. Harold Shearer, Mrs. William Eberle, great aunt of the bride from Sioux City, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Eikon Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson.

The young couple is now at home in Estacada where he is engaged in construction and logging operations. He was graduated from Estacada High School and OTL. Mrs. Brown has been a student at KUHS and will continue her studies in her new home.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moss, grandparents of the bridegroom of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Starr, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Keppro, of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Thornburn, Mrs. Irma Lewis, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crawford, Hopland, California; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Griggs Jr., Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Griggs, Estacada; Jerry Hibb, Eugene; Danny Blum, Coquille; Beverly Churney, Canyonville; Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Walker and Cheryl and Steve from Medford; Mrs. Ralph Perkins, Robin, Debbie and Stevie from Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. William Eberle Sr. and Bill Eberle Jr., Sioux City, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tucker and Mrs. Ernest McKeever, all of Fort Klamath.

Macdoel Couple Wed 50 Years

MACDOEL — A golden wedding anniversary was celebrated on June 8 when friends arranged an open house at the Macdoel Hotel for Mr. and Mrs. Jess T. Dieter of Macdoel who have lived in Northern California and Southern Oregon for many years. They were married in Missouri.

A decorated wedding cake centered the table where the honored guests were seated. Mr. and Mrs. Dieter lived for some time at Merrill and Malin in Oregon before moving to Macdoel where Mr. Dieter farmed for a while.

They have a daughter, Mrs. Guy Sheldon, Bremerton, Washington, and a son, Jess T. Dieter Jr., in Missouri. A second son, Sgt. William Dieter lost his life on the flight over Tokyo from the Hornet in World War II on a volunteer bombing mission.

Those attending were Father C. F. O'Connor, Tulelake; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Meyers and Larry, Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey and children, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Short, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Whitt, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Clement, Mrs. Irene Todonnie, Mrs. Elsie Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kappen, Mrs. Hilda Stumbaugh, Mrs. Anna Molschenbacher, Mrs. Phyllis Rutkanski, Amy Merideth, Myrtle Bostwick, Mrs. Vivian Wilson, Mrs. Vina Gilmer, Mrs. Ora Belle Logan, Mrs. Clotilde Kmatz and Mrs. Marie Walton.

Mr. and Mrs. Dieter are presently in Reno as guests of relatives. They accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Ott of Tulelake.

BRIDE HONORED

Tulips, spirea and daphne were the flowers used for decorations for the wedding shower of Mrs. Richard Howard, the former Sheila Cavan. The shower was held recently at the home of Mrs. M. C. Nixon with Lee Anna Hadley, Doris West, Dorothy Nixon and Jo Dilavou as hostesses.

A TOAST to 50 years of marriage is given by Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Brosterhaus at a party in their honor recently in Escondido, California. The couple are former residents of this city.

NEWLYWEDS AT HOME

FORT KLAMATH — Mr. and Mrs. J. P. (Paddy) McAuliffe have moved to their home on his parents' ranch (the former James Pelton place) north of Fort Klamath. Mrs. McAuliffe, who was Carolyn Hunt before her April 3 wedding, was graduated from Henley High School at commencement exercises held Wednesday evening, June 3. Her husband is affiliated with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. McAuliffe of Fort Klamath and Cottonwood, California, in their stock ranch operations.

Club Year Ends For OTI Women

The "Oregon Centennial" was the theme behind decorations, entertainment and dress at the annual June potluck dinner given by OTI Faculty Wives and Women's Club.

Club members and their spouse met in the cafeteria on the OTI campus on June 7 for the last social function of the school year.

Place cards made by Mrs. F. Merle Jackson were small covered wagons bearing each individual's name. Bouquets of seasonal flowers were used in abundance about the room. A large covered wagon was placed at the door of the dining room.

Entertainment for the evening was furnished by Melvin L. Bundy who sang and played the guitar. Almon Geiss, a faculty member, led the group in singing folk songs. Arrangements for the program were made by Mrs. Lee M. Yoder.

Mrs. Brooks Custer was chairman for the dinner and was assisted by Mrs. James Armson, Mrs. Walter Phillips, Mrs. Wayne Rawson, Mrs. Raymond Wood, Mrs. Fred Foulon, Mrs. Lee M. Yoder and Mrs. Merle Jackson.

At a previous business meeting of the club, Mrs. A. E. Smith, club president, announced that Mrs. Charles Jacob, Mrs. Walter Phillips and Mrs. Raymond Wood would comprise the nominating committee. Mrs. James Armson and Mrs. Albert McVey reported that plans are being made for the fall rummage sale.
