Yreka Church Setting For Finch-Sanford Rites

YREKA — A ballerina length gown of white lace and net over satin was chosen by Marilyn Joan Sanford for her recent marriage to Jesse Finch, which was solemnized in May at the First Baptist Church in Yreka. Her father, the Rev. L. Ray Sanford, pastor of the church, officiated the ceremony while her brother, Arlin Sanford, gave her in marriage.

The gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice and a bouffant skirt, the bodice featuring a portrait neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. A half halo embroidered with sequins held her fingertip veil in place. An arrangement of gardenias, nestled in lily-of-the-valley centered the white Bible she carried.

Arrangements of white stock and red roses and lighted candelabra decorated the church. Candle lighters were Jane and Jean Meamber.

Heidi Liebe of Sacramento, maid of honor, wore a gown of pink lace over satin. Serving as bridesmaids were Sharon Greathous of Chico, Sheree Walsh of Hornbrook, Charlotte Houdeshell of Montague and Silvia Fuller of Mather Air Force Base, Sacramento, all of whom wore ballerina length gowns in shades of pink, blue and lavender. White carnation bouquets were carried by all the attendants.

Brenda Williams as flower girl wore a pale blue floor length gown and carried a basket of petals. Terry Simas of Yreka served as ring bearer.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was James Perriera of Mather Air Force Base, Sacramento, and guests were seated by James E. Harrison and Gerald A. Bacon of Mather Air Force Base, and Douglas Sanford of Yreka.

Wilma Parker, as soloist, sang "Oh Promise Me," and "Because" and Ronnie Culp, also soloist, sang

"The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Mildred Steinhaus served as pianist.

Approximately 150 guests gathered in the church parlor for the reception, held immediately following the ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sanford chose a pale green afternoon dress, complemented with white accessories, and a corsage of white orchids. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam D. Finch of Grayville, Illinois, were unable to be present for their son's wedding.

Focal point of the bride's table was a beautifully decorated four-tiered cake, and following the initial slice cut by the newlyweds, it was served by Mrs. Henry Pickler of Redding and Mrs. Lonnie Parker of Yreka.

Pouring were Mrs. Homer Atchley and Mrs. Keith Thompson, both of Yreka. The bridegroom's cake was passed by Kay Christeson and Diane Bowden.

The bride, a graduate of Yreka High School in 1957, has been employed in the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company in Sacramento, since her graduation. The bridegroom, who attended schools in Grayville, Illinois, is presently serving as airman second class with the armed forces, and is stationed at Mather Air Force Base, Sacramento, where the newlyweds have established their residence.

NEW POTATOES

Fry little red skinned new potatoes without peeling. Slice the potatoes, add minced onion and a little chopped green pepper (if desired). Fry in butter or bacon grease covering for just the first few moments so they cook through more quickly.

FRENCH DRESSING

If you make your own oil and vinegar dressing, don't overlook the variety of flavors possible by using Wish-Bone Wine Vinegar, tarragon vinegar or by adding a clove of garlic to the dressing for a couple of hours before using.

Give Flowers Growing Room

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—University of Illinois floriculture specialists say prepare the soil for flower planting at least one foot deep. Soil for perennials should be tilled at least two feet deep.

They say the deeper the soil is prepared, the greater the roots can penetrate. The deeper the penetration, the greater the soil volume from which the plant can draw water and nutrients.

Shallow preparation forces the roots to develop in the surface regions of the soil, where they are more subject to adverse summer weather and to gardener neglect.

Frequently people attribute it to the lack of a green thumb when plants become diseased and die when actually the root development was shallow and injury was caused by the drying of the soil around the roots.

The gardener pays for shallow cultivation not only during hot periods of the summer, but also during rainy periods in the late spring.

In wet periods, the water accumulates in the cultivated zone and does not seep through the uncultivated zone. This condition is called waterlogging, and many plants die in waterlogged soil.

Another point the floriculturists make is that it isn't enough to merely dig up the soil when you prepare it for planting. You must also incorporate some organic matter.

Peat moss is one of the best forms because it is slow to decay and won't rob the soil of needed nitrogen. It keeps the soil from being compacted by the spring and summer rains.

POACHED EGGS

Use only the very freshest eggs for poached eggs. When you buy eggs, watch for Klamath Falls on the egg cartons you buy.

DEVILED EGGS

Anchovy fillets give a fillip to hard-cooked eggs to be used as garnish, deviled eggs or in egg salad sandwich filling.

New Lipsticks

As pretty to pull out of your summer handbag as a gem-studded pill box is a new pastel-colored lipstick case. In a choice of frosted white, party pink, cool blue or a gay orange as ripe in color as the fruit, this conceit with a golden roocco design to give it a jeweler's touch is a pastel version of the oval mirror case, containing lipstick with which Max Factor a year ago revolutionized the lipstick carrier.

With this newcomer, you can intrigue your audience by pulling it out of a straw carry-all, or by leaving it in your see-through plastic bag, through which its beguiling beauty will be as visible as the hands on your watch, the rings on your finger.

Filled with one of three summer shades—a dazzling coral, a pink jade and a golden orange—the new lipstick case doubles as a handsome purse accessory and as a fashionable shade of lipstick to wear with any color in the summer spectrum from innocent blues and pinks to an Oriental purple or red of sophisticated brilliance. And there's not one of these three shades which can't light up a feminine fatale's midsummer costume black!

SUMMER DESSERT

Fingers of cantaloupe and fresh pineapple marinated in California Sauterne or Rose wine with a sprig or two of fresh mint make a refreshing summer dessert.
