AA Meetings Led FBI Men To Top Thief

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI) — Too frequent attendance at meetings of Alcoholics Anonymous led to the capture of one of the FBI's 10 most wanted criminals Friday.

Walter Bernard O'Donnell, a burglar who preyed on overweight women by using false reducing pills packing a knockout punch, was arrested as he prepared to address an Alcoholics Anonymous meeting.

"I knew you'd get me eventually," agents quoted the fugitive as saying when he confronted him with leveled pistols in the corridor of the Virginia Hotel.

"I'm glad it's over," he sighed. W. Wade Bromwell, Norfolk FBI chief, said the 37-year-old fugitive was unarmed.

O'Donnell, who came to Norfolk last Saturday, had been a regular visitor at the local Alcoholics Anonymous club.

A club member, who asked not to be identified, saw O'Donnell's picture in a local newspaper (The Ledger-Dispatch) when he was placed on the 10 most wanted list two days ago and called the FBI.

Using the alias A. J. Rossi, O'Donnell claimed to be a member of the AA. But Clifford E. McPeak, manager of the AA club-room here, said members were suspicious.

"We usually can spot a phony," McPeak said. "But we don't question a man. Evidently he thought it would be a good place to keep his identity unknown."

O'Donnell was arraigned Friday night before Federal Commissioner Gilbert R. Sink Jr., and ordered held in the Norfolk jail under $25,000 bond pending a hearing Monday.

CHAMBER COMMENTS

by GEORGE T. CALLISON Assistant Mgr. KLAMATH COUNTY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

FIRST VISITORS to the Klamath County Chamber of Commerce information booth on U.S. 97 were Dr. and Mrs. Reinhold Schmidt from Lawrence, Kansas. Here they are greeted by Wayne Keefer, chairman of the chamber's centennial committee.

From the standpoint of dealing with the traveling public, I suppose you could say I have arrived. This week I had my first contact with a tourist who asked, "Where are the falls?" I thought she took it real well, too. When I explained "wo happen?" the story goes that over the years there have been hundreds, possibly even thousands of miles to see the falls, and, upon being informed there were none, worked
