

TOPPINGS by Kraft Foods make the dessert course so easy. Strawberry or pineapple topping are really special on ice cream. So are the chocolate caramel and the vanilla caramel. Kraft kitchens will send a free booklet of recipes. Write Kraft Caramel Sauces, Box 5768, Chicago 80, Illinois.

KRAFT TOPPING

Here are two recipes from Kraft Foods using Kraft's Caramel Sauce:

CARAMEL PINEAPPLE UPSIDE-DOWN CAKE

1 cup Kraft Vanilla Caramel Sauce
4 well drained canned pineapple slices, halved
9 maraschino cherries
1 package yellow or white cake mix

Pour the caramel sauce into a greased 10-inch skillet. Arrange the pineapple and cherries in the sauce. Prepare the cake mix according to the directions on the package and pour the batter over the fruit. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, for 35 to 40 minutes. Turn out of the skillet onto a serving plate. Serve warm or cold, with or without whipped cream.

CARAMEL PECAN PIE

Place 1 cup Kraft Chocolate Caramel Sauce and 1/4 cup Parkay Margarine in top of a double boiler. Heat, stirring frequently, until blended. Combine 1/4 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla and 2 slightly beaten eggs. Gradually add caramel sauce mixture, mixing well. Add 1 cup pecan halves. Pour into 9-inch unbaked pastry shell. Bake in hot oven, 400 degrees, for 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 350 degrees and continue baking for 20 minutes. The pie filling will appear to be very soft while it is hot but it becomes firm as it cools.

SANDWICHES

Honey lends itself to sandwich-making. By combining equal parts of honey and butter and creaming them together, you have a sandwich spread all by itself that needs no other ingredients. Honey butter is excellent for dainty rolled sandwiches, too. For extra special sandwiches, use chopped nuts on the honey butter sandwich. Honey added to peanut butter gives that old favorite an even better taste.

MAKE-UP

It's tragic but true—there are women, even some with flawless features, who have a tiresome sameness. They may be adequately groomed; some spend a relatively large amount on clothes, but dash and imagination are lacking.

If you've never considered changing the color of your hair, if you've never experimented with eye make-up, or if you think one shade of lipstick can see you through a whole season's wardrobe, then it might be you should reexamine your thinking. There's no better time to start than now, during the spring of 1959. With the wealth of exciting new preparations, it has never been easier to achieve a different, brilliantly flattering look.

You might start with your hair—consider it in terms of color as well as style, trying a variety of false pieces too. With summer practically here, you may find that a fake chignon is the solution for neat coolness both on and off the beach. It can give you as many as a dozen different styles.

With the right make-up your appearance is limited only by your own spirit of adventure. Basis of some of the prettiest things you can do is "White Lustre," Elizabeth Arden's new pure white lipstick with a pearly sheen. You are definitely your own make-up artist with "White Lustre" for you can create many variations of the softer paler mouth, one of the youngest freshest beauty trends ever. For a frosted effect apply it over any colored lipstick. Most fashionable choice now is a high key pink such as "Arden Pink" or a sun drenched apricot tone such as "Arden Pink." To lighten without frosting, wear "White Lustre" beneath your colored lipstick. A new Elizabeth Arden duet case has "White Lustre" in one end, your choice of color in the other. Just one word of caution—all eyes will be on your eyes. When lips are pale attention is drawn automatically to your eyes — if they look faded the result is a washout. Definitely learn to line your eyes, apply your favorite color of shadow over the entire lid, with brisk soft strokes shape your brows into a soft natural line. A pretty note to add when wearing White Lustre lipstick — Pearly Silver Shadow, dusted over your colored shadow.

DUET Lipsticks from Elizabeth Arden contains "White Lustre" as well as a color, making it possible to achieve infinite variations of the beautiful pale month.

But don't stop here; create your own variations. No one ever stirred up any excitement with just one look.

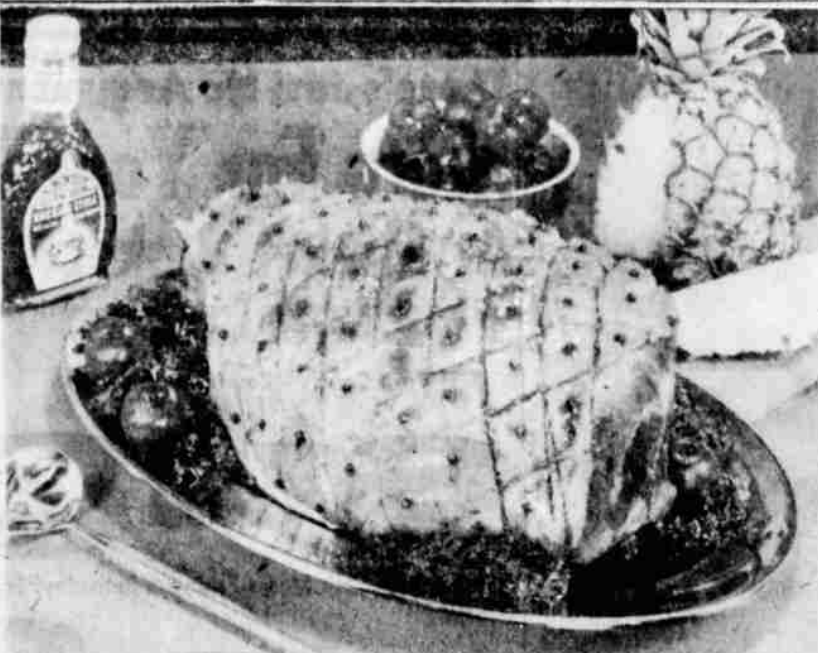

LUNCHEON SALAD

Serve a spicy fruited gelatin ring filled with chicken salad for a ladies' luncheon. Simmer the syrup from a No. 2 1/2 can of fruit cocktail with 1 1/2 tablespoons mixed pickling spices about 10 minutes. Strain and use as part of the liquid in making the gelatin, adding enough fresh lemon juice or vinegar to make the mixture tart. Chill until slightly thickened and fold in the colorful fruit cocktail. Mold in a ring and chill.

Soften gelatin in water. Heat one can of tomato juice to boiling; dissolve gelatin in it. Add remaining tomato juice, wine, onion, and seasonings. Chill until partially set. Fold in cabbage, celery, parsley and olives. Turn into 1 1/2 quart ring mold and chill until firm. Unmold on salad greens; fill center of ring with cottage cheese. Makes eight to 10 servings.

GARNISH
When garnishing a dessert dish with whipped cream, make a neat shaped mound and drizzle a teaspoon of honey in the center for a nice taste treat.

SALAD DRESSING for a glaze for baked ham? Why certainly, if it is Wish-Bone Russian Dressing. Just mix with brown sugar and mustard and it makes as pretty a glaze as you'd ever hope to see. Eye-appeal is a good part of good eating, you know.

BEAUTY TIP

Daytime driving can present the problem of an unglamorous half suntan caused by partial exposure, warns noted make-up expert Max Factor, whose company is celebrating its 50th year. The arm, shoulder, neck and jaw, which are next to the open car window, are often tanned in ugly patches, while the other side of the body is patch free and beautiful.

Avoid this one-sided tan by breaking the habit of resting your arm on the door as you drive or wear a long sleeved sweater or jacket. If it is overly warm, thrust the exposed arm in one sleeve only and tuck the sweater back of you. Apply your foundation make-up more heavily to the exposed side of your jaw and neck.

RELISH

Stir chopped fresh dates into horseradish flavored whipped cream and serve as a meat relish.

SALAD DRESSING

Mash Calavo avocado; thin with white table wine, such as chablis. Serve over wedges of crisp lettuce or tossed vegetable salad. Top with crumbled cooked bacon.

WISH-BONE

Baked ham is a good selection for a weekend. It is good served hot and you have sandwich and lunch material for several days afterward.

The lovely glaze on the ham shown in the photograph was achieved by mixing 1/4 cup Wish-Bone Russian Dressing with 1/2 cup brown sugar and 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard. Bake the ham at 300 degrees. After removing the skin, score the fat surface, stud with whole cloves and baste frequently with the mixture.

Wish-Bone dressings are the products of Thomas J. Lipton, Inc.

When buying Wish-Bone dressings, don't forget Wish-Bone Wine Vinegar. It adds that extra something to oil and vinegar dressings.
