

Guard At Institution Tells Of Riot

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—Sixteen hours of rioting in the federal prison system's big medical center here left a backwash of tin cans marked, "Masks, Gas M-9."

"That gas sure did the trick," said Leonard Appleby, 55.

For 19 years Appleby has been a guard at the big U.S. prison hospital, where 60 per cent of the 1,000 prisoners are insane criminals.

Monday night at 9:55 o'clock, Appleby was sitting in a small office censoring the prisoners' mail.

"Earl Taylor (a prisoner) charged in with a knife in his hand," Appleby said. "Before I could realize what was up he had that knife under my throat."

"You make one move and I'll kill you right here," Taylor said. "Be quiet."

BB Scoffs Birth Rumor

SAINT TROPEZ, France (UPI)—Brigitte Bardot, married six days ago, indignantly denied today that she was already expecting a baby.

The beautiful "sex-kitten" who married her young co-star Jacques Charrier in a glamorous ceremony at Louveciennes, outside Paris, on Thursday, was replying to rumors about her current state of health.

"Of course I'm not expecting a baby," she said. "I would be only too happy if it were true and I would not hide it."

Handsome Charrier, 23, as is his bride, said:

"Some gossips just whipped these stories up to embarrass us."

Published reports from Cannes said Brigitte had called off a scheduled trip to Moscow "for health reasons." According to the reports, Brigitte was scheduled to go there to attend the showing of her latest film "Babette Goes To War."

The reports also said she might not be able to make her next scheduled film "in the fall."

Brigitte said she had never been slated to go to Moscow for the showing. One reason is that she is scheduled to start two solid months work on her next film at Nice, July 12.

In the next few minutes, Taylor and 165 other prisoners in the "10 North" section of the hospital took Appleby and four other guards as hostages.

"All was pretty quiet," Appleby said. "The inmates tore open offices and medical chests and loaded up on tranquilizers and phenobarbital—that is, about all except the leaders. They did not settle down."

The riot leaders were identified as Taylor, 31, serving 9 years for violating the federal firearms act, assault, escape and theft; Carl Roberts, 19, serving 4½ years for car theft; and Bryan D. Reed, 24, a military prisoner serving life for murder.

"We didn't really get scared until after Warden (Russell O.) Settle came over and talked to the men. He asked them what they wanted and no one knew. Taylor had no plan at all. The whole thing was senseless. He never had any real terms."

"They just set out to stretch out the thing as long as they could. It made no difference to them if anybody survived."

The 106 prisoners in the three buildings of the "10 North" unit include homosexuals and "aggressive personalities."

They tore up furniture, medical cabinets and anything they could put their hands on to form barricades.

Warden Settle, Warden S. Chet Taylor from the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., Myrl E. Alexander, assistant director of the Federal Bureau of Prisons from Washington, and Noah Alldredge, captain of guards at the hospital, worked out a plan of attack.

They decided, in Alldredge's words, that the hostages "were expendable." In addition to Appleby, they were guards Robert Rosen-dahl, 38; William L. Fitch, 45; Charles R. Allen, 48; and Melvin C. Jung, 37.

They borrowed 100 gas masks from the Army at Ft. Leonard Wood.

One hundred picked men from hospital and Leavenworth guards put on the masks and armed themselves with clubs made of baseball bats, hammer handles and two-foot lengths of one-inch pipe.

At 12:55 Tuesday afternoon they moved into "10 North" in five squads, hurling tear gas grenades. A bulldozer ripped bars from a window as a diversionary move. Appleby and two other hostages crawled under a bed seeking protection from the gas.

"I thought I would die," said Appleby. "I had to get outside in a hurry. Some old boy grabbed me and helped me out."

"The inmates and the guards were really battling. We waded right into that melee and got through all right."

That was the way federal prison guards broke up 16 hours of rioting by 106 psychopathic prisoners.

One hostage, Rosen-dahl, was cut about the head when homemade knives started flicking as the siege forces moved in.

Many a prisoner went back to his cell with a bloody head. An undisclosed number went to the infirmary with injuries.

Friends congratulated Leonard Appleby.

His lips quivered. He blinked his eyes.

"I didn't want to die," he said. "I didn't want to go out in that manner. We all prayed."

Prisoners Disciplined

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Twenty-five white prisoners are in solitary confinement at Buford Rock Quarry Prison as a result of a sit-down strike at Reidsville State Prison.

Jack Forrester, director of the State Department of Corrections, said the strike was an "act of mutiny" and declared such behavior could be highly contagious unless dealt with promptly.

Forrester said the prisoners refused to report for a farm work detail and complained that guards were cutting down on their rest periods.
