"DON'T NOBODY MOVE! MY FROG GOT OUT!"

More than 2,400 persons have lost their lives in floods in the United States during the last 30 years.

NOW IT'S LEGAL

CURRITUCK, N.C. (UPI)—Magistrate Mickey Dozier respected the wish of a young couple he married Wednesday that he not reveal their names "because our children are too young to understand the situation." Dozier said the situation was the couple's previous Arkansas marriage had been invalidated because a justice of the peace's license had expired before he married them. They came to Dozier to make it legal.

160 Children Participate In Annual Junior Rodeo

By BETTY DOW
MONTAGUE — Montague's eighth annual Junior Rodeo reached a new high on Sunday with 160 children entered in events.
Included were 40 bull riders and 29 bareback bronc riders, in addition to a two-mile parade with approximately 50 entries.
In the calf scramble, children between 8 and 12 chased down about 15 young calves. The youngsters worked in teams.
The show was officially declared over about 5 p.m., but bull and bareback bronc riders continued on until nearly 7:30 p.m.
The parade was the largest since the beginning of the rodeo eight years ago. It featured floats, riding groups, single riders and specialty acts.
Winner in the junior division the rodeo events, "Sheriff Bill" Winters, who had arrived in Montague on Saturday to participate in the coronation of the junior queen ceremony, was also present during the rodeo events.

Bonnie Rowe, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Rowe, was chosen all-around cowgirl by winning first in the barrel race and second in the girls' stake race. Second all-around prize award went to Tom Russell of Paulina, Oregon. Tom had placed first in the bull riding and fourth in the bareback bronc ride.
Tony Haltham of Aurora, Oregon, was presented the hardluck cowboy award because he was thrown from a bucking bronc and broke his left arm. Bonnie Walton of Bray, California, was presented the hardluck cowgirl award because she suffered a dislocated hip.

DIANE FELHMAN, Junior Queen

floats was the Delphi 4-H Club, with its entry "4-H For Fun," which featured four couples performing a square dance on the bed of a truck. Grenada 4-H Club came in second place with its entry "Project for Learning."
There were several entries in the family riding groups, with "Windy Bill" Walters and his small niece, Patricia Walters, receiving first prize. The Aage Petersen family placed second.
There were many entries in the specialty division, with the first prize going to the group bearing the title "Westward We Go To The Rodeo." It consisted of several Little Shasta Children and their pets walking "to the rodeo." Second award went to "Two Little Indians" who were Robin Cooley and Janet Houdeshell, two small girls garbed as Indians riding their ponies.
Bunny Rowe and his boys won the first award for the musical entry.

Other winners: Bareback bronc ride—Jim McAuliffe, Fort Klamath; Russel McCall, Redmond; Jim Davies, Flourney, and Tom Russell.
Bull riding—Tom Russell, Russel McCall, Barry Grazer, Los Molinos, and Ken Lambert, Aurora.
Team roping—Jimmy Watson and Ronnie Watson.
Tie down calf roping—Tom Shaw, Klamath Falls, and Butch Sawyer, Scott Valley.
Team saddle steer riding—Daryl Severns, Montague; Bob Shaw, Modesto; Frank Ross, Trail, Oregon, and Skip Houdeshell, Montague.
Calf scramble—Jimmy Watson, Montague and Ray Smith, Callahan; Gary Taylor and Bobby Andrews, Montague; Charlotte Jones, Chico, and Bill Andrews, Montague.
Barrel race (8 to 13 year olds)—Jimmy Watson, Gary Taylor, Mickey Rowe, all Montague, and Dale West, Eagle Point.
Barrel race (14-18 years)—Bonnie Rowe; Gerald Watson, Montague; Ken Stewart, Ashland and Ardyce Joslin, Montague.
Breakaway calf riding—Larry Rawlings, Yreka; Jimmy Watson and Robert Baelew, Ruth, California.
In the looserope calf riding event for 8 to 12-year-olds, all riders received buckles presented by Junior Queen Diane Felhman.

LINDA LOU DREYER of Pendleton demonstrates one of the tricks she and her horse, "Cookie," will perform at the National Intercollegiate Rodeo at Klamath County Fairgrounds over the Fourth of July weekend. She is 10, the youngest trick rider in the business.

10-Year-Old Oregon Girl To Display Horse Skills

Linda Lou Dreyer of Pendleton is only 10, but she can do things on a horse that would put a full-grown, he-man cowboy to shame. She will demonstrate her tricks at the National Intercollegiate Rodeo to be held in the Klamath County Fairgrounds over the Fourth of July weekend.

Babysitter Kills Self

SAN LEANDRO, Calif. (UPI)—A 17-year-old babysitter put four small children to bed Thursday night, then walked to the basement and hanged herself.
The babysitter, Leora Marcella Kirkpatrick, was believed to have been despondent over the death of her father in Shreveport, La., a month ago. She came here to live with her mother, Mrs. Frances Antonelli, after her father's death.
Police said the victim left no notes explaining a reason for the suicide, although a note was found requesting burial at Campbell, Ky.
The body was discovered by the four children of Mrs. Gail Ruggieri. Aged three to six, the four youngsters got out of bed shortly after Leora went to the basement garage. They found her body hanging from a rafter by a clothesline, and ran next door to tell a neighbor. Officers said the girl had stood on the children's red wagon, then pushed it from under her.
Attempts to revive the girl failed. She was pronounced dead on arrival at Fairmont Hospital.

Lion Roams Lava Beds

AMBOY, Calif. (AP)—An African lion is roaming the lava beds and arid wastelands of the Mojave Desert.
Sheriff's Sgt. Robert Lorimer says the lion has been showing up regularly—to the consternation of miners, homesteaders and travelers on U.S. Highway 66.
The lion escaped from his cage after a traveling circus truck had a highway accident last March.
There are no cattle ranches in the area, and the few settlers who have goats or chickens have reported no losses. Lorimer says that there's a danger the 120-degree heat may force the animal to roam settled areas in search of water.
The lion—whose ribs are beginning to protrude because of his desert diet of jackrabbits—has been seen four times in the last six days.
One homesteader said he opened his front door, saw the big cat staring at him, grabbed his gun, fired three shots and missed each time. The lion paddled off.

Official Taking Decision Course

Albert G. Kusler, district freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific Company, Klamath Falls, is participating in "The Management Game," a study in decision at Stanford University.
He is among 45 "middle-management" executives in transportation, industry and the armed forces from the nation who are participating.
The game consists of an attempt to make a killing in an artificial stock market. It is designed to teach the art of making decisions.
The class is divided into teams, and four years' operation of a mythical company are compressed into the four-week term.
The students are Stanford alumni.
Negro songstress Hazel Scott sings in Chinese, Yiddish, French, Spanish and English.
