Comedian Likes East

NEW YORK (UP) — When Steve Allen moves his comedy-variety show to Hollywood next season, chances are Tom Poston—the lanky, heavy-lidded guy who can't remember his name—won't go along.

"Personally," said Poston, "I think Steve is making a mistake in moving the show. New York is the big intellectual and artistic stimulant, as far as I'm concerned. Out in Hollywood, you live in the sun and you loaf and that's bad for you. It's too much of a vacation atmosphere. I feel creative comedy needs the kind of stimulation that New York provides."

While Poston hasn't closed the door on heading west, he's doing all he can to establish himself more firmly in New York. He recently became a permanent chairholder on the "To Tell the Truth" panel on CBS-TV, opened in the off-Broadway musical, "Come Play With Me" (Poston sings!) and is going into a Goodson-Todman comedy-detective TV series for possible fall presentation.

Poston believes his zany compatriots on the Allen mishmash, Louis Nye and Don Knotts, will accompany Steverino to the land of Miltown and money.

"I may even wind up out there myself," Tom said. "If things are slow in August, I may head out there. Steve told me there'll always be a job for me. But I'd rather stay here. And my wife—she really wants to stay here."

With Steve it's his show. He's the Big Daddy. If a show doesn't come off, we don't get the blame, it's the writers. Or it's Steve's responsibility.

"But on a panel show, we are responsible for the show. If it's bad, we can't blame the writers. There aren't any. It's strictly up to us to be witty, amiable, clever and ad lib like mad."

The bower birds of Australia decorate their nests with shells or other bright objects.
