LA Dodgers Win, Move Into 2nd Place Behind Braves

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers ran their winning streak to six games Saturday night and moved to within a game of league-leading Milwaukee by blanking the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-0 before 48,072 Coliseum fans.

The victory put the Dodgers in second place, a full game ahead of San Francisco. Their winning streak is the longest they have achieved since moving from Brooklyn.

Duke Snider drove in the first Los Angeles run and made a great catch that deprived the Pirates of at least two runs.

Left-hander Sandy Koufax shut out the Pirates on six hits and scored his fifth victory in six decisions. Koufax, who struck out 16 Philadelphia batters his last time out, fanned eight Saturday night and walked two.

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Chicago Cubs erupted for four runs in the fifth inning to beat the Milwaukee Braves 7-1 Saturday behind the six-hit pitching of Glen Hobbie.

It was the 23-year-old right-hander's fourth straight victory over the Braves in two full seasons with the Cubs. He had the National League leaders under control all the way, in posting his eighth victory against six defeats.

Right-hander Carl Willey, now 3-2, was the loser. The Chicagoans rapped 13 hits, including 3 doubles and 2 homers, off Willey and his successor, Joey Jay. Don McMahon retired the Cubs in order in the ninth.

Consecutive homers by Dave Philley and Harry Anderson in the seventh inning off loser Sam Jones carried the Phils to their sixth victory in the last 21 games.

Gene Conley, 6-foot-8 right-hander, held the second-place Giants to six hits in picking up his fifth victory in nine decisions. The Phils belted four San Francisco pitchers for 13 hits.

Conley struck out five, including Willie Kirkland three times. Jones who pitched only the seventh inning, evened his record at 8-8 by yielding the two homers. Philley was his fourth of the year; Anderson's his ninth.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The last-place Philadelphia Phils snapped a six-game losing streak in a desperation move by Manager Jimmie Dykes because the other first basemen, Gail Harris and Larry Osborne, have been in season-long slumps.

Zernial drove in five runs with two tremendous wallpops into the upper left field seats. He connected off ex-teammate Billy Hoelt with one on in the second inning, then off Arnold Portocarrero with two on in the sixth.

Before Saturday, Zernial had played only two innings in the outfield and had been to bat only 17 times.

Zernial's blasts helped right-hander Paul Foytack coast to his sixth victory.

Home runs— Philadelphia, Post (10), Philley (4), H. Anderson (9), San Francisco, Cepeda (16).

Killebrew's smash was his 26th and, like one he clouted Friday night, went straight over the 420-foot center field fence into the Kansas City bullpen.

The triumph gave the Athletics a half-game edge over the last place Senators in the standings.

Jerry Lumpe started the 10th inning with a single to right and to second.

Harry Chiti struck out but Hadley's drive came off second baseman Reno Bertoia's glove and Lumpe scampered home with the winner.

CHICAGO (AP)—Harry (Suitcase) Simpson's grand-slam homer with two out in the eighth inning offset four solo homers by the New York Yankees Saturday and carried the Chicago White Sox to a 5-4 victory.

Simpson smashed Bob Turley's first pitch off the right field facade for his third homer of the season and the fifth grand-slam of his career. Norm Siebern and Bill Skowron hit back-to-back homers to open the ninth to shave Chicago's lead to one run.

Going into the eighth, New York held a 2-1 lead on a pair of homers by Hector Lopez. Aside from that, the Yankees had done little against Bob Shaw who departed in the eighth for a pinch batter but collected his sixth victory against two defeats.

CLEVELAND (AP)—A two-run homer by Ted Williams and a home run by Jackie Jensen with the bases empty powered the Boston Red Sox to a 6-4 victory over the Cleveland Indians Saturday.

Scotty's BARKS 'N' BITES
By WAYNE SCOTT

I can't say I told you so... but I can say I picked up a bob or two on the outcome of the fight. Thinking back over my tender years it seems to me that this is the first bet I have ever won... unless you call lucking out on the correct choice of the color of the trunks on Friday TV fights winning a bet.

Come to think of it, there hasn't been just a lot of those, even... but this time I was right, for money.

A Scotsman speaking Swedish may seem incongruous, but as happy as I am today over the new champion, it makes sense. And, of course, there are undoubtedly many who feel the same way.

Rarely does a state official possess such an impressive sports background as does Republican Secretary of State Howell Appling Jr. He was quite an athlete in his younger days. Appling still maintains an active and enthusiastic interest in sports.

Oregon's secretary of state began his athletic career as center for the basketball team at Beaumont High in Texas. He described himself as a "fair scorer but no real sensation." He was good enough to qualify for an athletic scholarship to Rice Institute. The 39-year-old secretary majored in engineering and found that many labs outside work made it impossible for him to stay with the sport.

Rice Institute hired Appling as its undergraduate director of intramural athletics. The position enabled him to work his way through college. He collected 23 IM championships, the most ever won, before or since, in the history of the college. He captured titles in tennis, badminton, table tennis, track and golf. Appling was awarded trophies in football, basketball, volleyball and softball.

So far as Patterson goes, today I can honestly say I have respect for him. He has finally met a fighter. Depending on Floyd, entirely, it is very possible he could come back and become a real champion.

Personally, were I in his shoes, I would enter the ring the next time against Johansson with, at least, misgivings.

Patterson, as pointed out by the Swede recently, makes mistakes. His worst one, as I see it, was coming out for the third round Friday.

Johansson, it seems, makes no money nor gains a title by flashing the "right" in the training camp. "Everything in its time," says the new champ.

If nothing else has been accomplished, boxing, has, at last, regained its respectability. From this corner: "I predict a long, prosperous reign for the new heavy king."... There, I said it.

Meanwhile, back at Klamath Union High... the search still goes on for a replacement for Andy Knudsen, KU grid mentor, who has forsaken KF for St. Helens. A number of applicants have been received by KU athletic director Jim Johnson. Johnson, however, chooses to remain mum on the subject. Jim feels that unnecessary publicity, at this time, concerning who is or isn't applying for Oregon's "hot potato" high school football job, could do nothing more than increase the problems in the choice or refusal of an impending selection.

Johnson is right... and it could

Cleland, who was coach at the high school, unfit becoming its principal, said he would much rather see Mike accept the scholarship than to go into big league baseball. He said college baseball would give Mike further preparation for the big time, and the basic education which he will also need. Cleland further said that Mike has perfect control of the ball, and that he has pitched more no-

KF Legion Team Sweeps Pair From Bend In 3-Game Series

BEND (Special)—The Bend American Legion baseball team salvaged the final game of a three game series here Saturday night by edging out a 2-1 decision over the Klamath Falls Legion squad, scoring the winning run with two out in the last of the ninth inning.

The Klamath Falls nine swept the first two games of the two-day series, downing the home team 5-2 Friday night and romping to a 9-2 victory Saturday afternoon.

The Bend squad scored their winning run in the bottom of the ninth inning as Cecil led off with a walk. Ed Bullis singled to right field however Cecil was thrown out as he tried to reach third base on the hit. Bullis went to second on the throw out. With two out shortstop Bob Yuncck fumbled Andy Cleveland's hot grounder and Mike Genna's pinch-hit single to right capped the thrilling contest.

The home team had scored first in the third inning but Klamath came back to tie the contest up with a tally in the fifth on a walk to Carney, an error and Don Willey's single.

Klamath threatened twice, once in the second and again in the sixth, as Cecil loaded the bases on walks, however both times the Bend chucker settled down to get the side out.

Kubs Bow To Merrill Nine; Face Mount Shasta Today

The Klamath Kubs head into this afternoon's Northern California League game with Mount Shasta at Gem Stadium still smarting from a 10-9 stinging handed them Saturday night by Merrill of the Klamath Independent Baseball League. The Saturday night game, the second half of a twinbill which featured a 12-12 tie between the Klamath Basinettes and the Elbo Benders in the first, was not a loop action.

Game time for today's semi-pro test is 2 p.m.

Saturday night the Kubs blew a second inning 6-0 lead as Merrill winning pitcher John Hunnicutt tossed an 11 hit, six walk, 11 strikeout victory. The loss was charged to the Kubs' starter, Wayne Hironaka. Hironaka, who went the full distance allowed eight Merrill hits, walked eight and fanned six.

Benders, Basinettes
The Elbo Benders collected an important tally in the top of the seventh stanza to tie the count 12 all. Starting pitchers, Joy Adreon, who worked for the Benders, and Cliff Stenler, who performed for the Basinettes went the full route. Adreon gave up 12 hits while Stenler was reached for eight.

The big hitter for the Elbo Benders was third sacker Chuck Ruff who bashed a homer and a pair of singles. Catcher Terry Wickline lashed a triple and a double while Keith Senecal smashed a home run and a single. Ronnie Call rapped a two base knock for the only other extra baser for the Elbo Benders.

Catcher Ki Carrier and pitcher Cliff Stenler shared the honors for the Basinettes. Carrier poked a double and a single while Stenler collected three singles.

The Kubs broke the ice first, scoring Dunson, who had singled and was followed by Floyd Linderman's double. In the second frame the Kubs collected five more, off two walks, three hits and an error.
