Giants Do It Again; Yankees Conquer Orioles

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

They call him Sad Sam Jones and he stood with head bowed and hands on his knees, when the "hit" sign flashed, snuffing out his bid for a second major league no-hitter with two out in the eighth.

An infield bouncer by Junior Gilliam, credited with a controversial single, was the only hit Los Angeles managed against the big right-hander Tuesday night as he pitched San Francisco to a 2-0 victory over the Dodgers with the help of Willie Mays' two-run homer.

It was the second "near-miss" stab at a no-hitter this season by Jones, now 38 who had to settle for the first one-hitter of his career while the Giants closed within a half-game of the National League lead.

Some of the 59,312 fans in the Los Angeles Coliseum booed the scorer's decision on the bouncing ball, which cleared Jones' head and rolled toward second base. Shortstop Andre Rodgers picked it up, then dropped it. The official scorer ruled that the fleet, switch-hitting Gilliam, getting an extra jump batting left-handed, would have beaten it out anyway.

Jones' comment: "Can you imagine anyone calling that a hit? They don't want no-hitters thrown around here."

Cincinnati left nothing to the imagination while whipping first-place Milwaukee 3-5 on three home runs. Pittsburgh defeated Philadelphia 4-3, and St. Louis beat Chicago's Cubs 4-1.

In the American League, Cleveland took a two-game lead by defeating second-place Chicago 3-1. New York beat third-place Baltimore and Hoyt Wilhelm 4-1, keeping a fourth-place tie with the Detroit Tigers, who rapped Kansas City 4-0. Washington defeated Boston 6-1.

The Dodgers, third, 1 1/2 games back with their second loss in a row after winning seven straight, put five men on base. Three times the runner was Gilliam, who got both of Jones' walks. The other runners made it on a fielder's choice and an error.

Giants 2, Dodgers 0

Sad Sam retired 22 of the last 24 he faced, putting down 10 in a row before Gilliam walked in the sixth, then getting eight straight before the hit. Gilliam reached second in the eighth on a passed ball, but got no farther as Wally Moon fouled out. Jones got the side in order in the ninth, fanning Gil Hodges for his 19th strikeout and the final out.

Jones, 33, pitched his no-hitter against Pittsburgh when he was with the Cubs, May 12, 1955. Last May 13, he had Philadelphia no-hit until Willie Jones beat out an infield dribbler with two out in the seventh. He finished with a two-hitter.

Mays' winning shot, his 13th home run, followed a leadoff double by Jim Davenport in the third off loser Don Drysdale (8-6), who gave up nine of the Giants' 10 hits as they won their third in a row.

Reds 8, Braves 5

The Reds, who had lost three straight, come from behind against the Braves and loser Lew Burdette (11-7) when an error set up Gus Bell's three-run homer in the third. Vada Pinson nailed it with a two-run shot in the fourth.

Bob Purkey (7-9) was the winner with Orlando Pena's three-hit, shutout relief over the last four innings. The Braves' runs came on homers by Ed Mathews, his 24th, and Joe Adcock.

Pirates 4, Phils 3

A ninth-inning home run by Dick Groat ended a 3-3 tie for Pittsburgh against Robin Roberts (6-7). Reliever Roy Face got the final two outs for his seventh save, putting it away for Harvey Haddix (5-6).

Cardinals 4, Cubs 1

Right-hander Larry Jackson (7-6) beat the Cubs with a four-hitter, allowing only a bunt hit over the last six innings. Dick

Gray, who sing'd home the winning run in the second inning, Ken Boyer and Bill White each stole two bases as the Cards won their fourth in a row.

Chicago 001 000 000—1 4 2
—Jackson (7-6) and H. Smith, Anderson, Elston (8) and S. Taylor. Loser—Anderson (4-7).

Yanks 4, Orioles 1

The Yankees, playing without injured Mickey Mantle, got three in the third on a walk and four singles, capped by Yogi Berra's two-run hit. Art Ditmar (7-5) was the winner with 4 1-3 innings of two-hit, shutout relief. Duke Maas started and gave up the Birds' other three hits, one Gene Woodling's 10th homer in the fourth inning.

Wilhelm (9-3) allowed eight of the Yankees' nine hits in his seven innings. Winless in his last four starts, he's been tagged for 14 earned runs in 27 2/3 innings over that span for a 4.50 earned run average. Before the slump his ERA was 1.00. Now it's 1.83, still tops in the AL.

And if you don't think rapped is apt for a four-run scoring spurt, you may have forgotten that the Yankees had managed only four earned runs off Wilhelm in 59 2/3 innings before Tuesday night. Fact is, this is the first time the Yankees have beaten Wilhelm in five decisions since he became an Oriole last year.

The victory left the Yankees in a fourth-place tie with the Detroit Tigers, who beat Kansas City 4-0, and four games behind Cleveland. The first-place Indians gained a two-game lead by defeating Chicago's second place White Sox 3-1. Washington beat last-place Boston 6-1.

Indians 3, Chicago 1

Vic Power's two-run, inside-the-park homer in the third and Rocky Colavito's 23rd home run in the sixth backed Cleveland's Cal McLish (9-3), who held the White Sox to four singles and didn't walk a man while winning his fourth straight. Chicago scored in the third with an unearned run on an error, sacrifice and Luis Aparicio's single. Nellie Fox followed with a single, but McLish then retired 14 in a row before Jim Landis singled for the Sox final hit leading off the eighth.

Billy Pierce (8-9) was the loser. He's won only three of his last 10 decisions.

Tigers 4, KC 0

Frank Lary (9-4) blanked the A's on five hits for his first shutout since June, 1958. He struck out seven, walked none and put down 13 in order before Jerry Lumpe and Dick Williams led off the ninth with singles. Lary then fanned Ken Hadley, and retired power guys Roger Maris and Bob Cerv. The Tigers' scored in the first on Charlie Maxwell's 17th homer, and added two unearned runs in the second on an error by loser Rip Coleman (2-7).

Solons 6, Red Sox 1

Faye Throneberry, who homered, and Harmon Killebrew had half of Washington's 10 hits and each drove in two runs, both getting RBI singles as the Nats scored four unearned runs in the second against loser Tom Brewer (5-5). Pete Ramos (8-7) made it four out of five against Boston this season with a six-hitter.

League Leading Yreka Nine To Invade Kub Home Grounds

The Yreka Indians invade Gem Stadium Sunday, bringing their 4-1 league leading record, with them for a Northern California baseball league hassle with the Klamath Kubs.

The Kubs, 2-3 for league play, are looking for vengeance for a defeat handed them in the first loop tilt of the season by the Indians in Yreka. Last Sunday at Gem the Kubs blew a 9-4 fourth inning lead to tumble 14-12 to the Mount Shasta Seals.

"They aren't beating us—we are beating ourselves. We've just been kicking them away," commented manager Irv Whitt of his hard-hitting Kub squad.

The squad, according to latest statistics, is hitting a .279 average. Outfielder Rube Johnson leads the pack with a brilliant .532 while outfielder-pitcher Mike Dolan runs second with a .478. Whitt is next with a .444 while Ed Vegley, Butch Kimpton and

Ford '9', MLJ Win BR Tests

Hits didn't mean a thing in Babe Ruth action in Gem Stadium Tuesday night as two teams that had little trouble at the bat suffered when it came time for them to push runs home.

Balsiger Motors capitalized on a couple of errors and a single in the last inning to top Henley Sporting Goods 3-2, while M. L. Johnson, with only three hits, applauded nine Chiloquin errors to the tune of an 11-2 victory.

Credited with the Ford win was hurler Marvin Davis who was buffeted for nine hits over the five inning route. His opponents, loser John Crumrine, gave up only two hits, struck out eight, and lashed what could have been the game winning single but a base missed by a runner and four errors were the factors in his loss.

In the top of the fifth, with the score 2-0, third sacker Steve Reiling got aboard through an error, stole second, and then reared for home when Crumrine hit a clean single. Reiling, in his hurry, however, failed to touch third and was called the third out.

Again in the top of the sixth a Henley rally failed when Ken Quigley, who had singled, was nailed from center field by Ralph Williams who had hauled in a sharp single by Earl Albritton.

The Fordmen got their winning tally when first baseman Larry Binney got aboard with a scratch single, then scored after advancing when Jim Floyd got on with an error. John Lawson sacrificed them along and pitcher Davis popped a high fly back of the infield that was dropped by John Wright. Floyd's first inning triple was the big hit of the test.

Last Sunday's game saw the Seals manhandle three Kub chuckers, starter Bob Lawery, Ed Vegley and Dolan. This week the mound assignment has as yet not been determined.

The Kub bats will get, at least theoretically, a stiff test when the Indians arrive. Fred Rick, Yreka hurler, has been credited with all four of the Indian league victories. Rick is down from AA ball, and was, at the first of the season, not expected to stay with the Yrekans.

Certain problems have beset the Kubs this week regarding employment for players home from college.

Faced with the possibility of losing a trio of his players, Whitt is earnestly seeking aid from Klamath Falls employers in finding positions for boys planning on staying here until school reconvenes in the fall.

The Kub lineup for the Sunday league encounter at Gem will not be named by Whitt until the latter part of the week.

The following are Kub batting and hitting statistics for the overall season. The Kubs have won two and lost five to date.

Roy Face, Gene Conley Picked As National All-Star Hurlers

CINCINNATI (AP) — Little Elroy Face, Pittsburgh's unbeaten relief ace, and tall Gene Conley, swapped by Milwaukee last spring to Philadelphia, were among the seven pitchers named by Manager Fred Haney by his National League All-Star squad.

The veteran Milwaukee pilot Tuesday selected 17 players to go along with the eight starters picked by the players themselves for the 28th annual All-Star game in Pittsburgh, July 7. The lone surprise was Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Other pitchers chosen by Haney included San Francisco's Johnny Antonelli (11-4), Milwaukee's Warren Spahn (10-8) and St. Louis' Wilmer Mizell (9-4), all southpaws; and Milwaukee's Lew Burdette (11-6) and Los Angeles' Don Drysdale (8-5), right-handers. Face is 12-0 and Conley 5-4. The aggregate won-lost record, through games of Monday, June 29, was 66-30.

With one exception, Haney's "second team" choices followed the vote of the players. He named St. Louis' Bill White and Joe Cunningham and Cincinnati's Vada Pinson as his alternate outfielders, and Cincinnati's Frank Robinson, Pittsburgh's Bill Mazeroski and Dick Groat, and St. Louis' Ken Boyer as his alternate infielders. Groat replaced shortstop Roy McMillan of Cincinnati, who is out of action with an injured hand.

Haney selected two catchers — Smokey Burgess of Pittsburgh and Hal Smith of St. Louis — to support Milwaukee's Del Crandall behind the plate. In addition to Crandall, the first team consists of Orlando Cepeda, Giants, first base; Johnny Temple, Reds second base; Ernie Banks, Cubs, shortstop; Eddie Mathews, Braves,

Tuesday's Results

Metler Brothers 9, House of Discount 1
Kingsley Field 13, Oregon Food 12

Nothing concerning the lead in the South Suburban Little League came any closer to being settled Tuesday night as Metler Brothers topped House of Discount 9-1 while Kingsley Field barely edged out Oregon Food, 13-12.

The Metler nine broke a 1-0 fourth inning deficit when catcher Gene Pahl poled a two-run three-bagger in the fourth. Pahl scored when Larry Evans rapped a single. Evans, stole home to make the count 4-1. The Metlers notched five unnecessary markers in the fifth.

The winner was Clarence Nealy who entered the game in the third in relief of starter Bob Christie.

The loss was charged to Rick Van Camp. Rick Gustafson doubled for the losers while Art Warren and Evans added two-baggers for the winners.
