

PICNIC FARE should be simple but hearty, Pillsbury Company suggests Granddaddy-Burger Buns, baked at home and filled at the picnic spot with spicy ground beef filling which has been prepared in advance. Nalley's potato chips, Wyandotte olives, radishes, onions and perhaps cherry tomatoes are go-along-withs.

A GOURMET TREAT on any menu is a flaming dish of Cherries Jubilee. While sweet cherries are on the market, freeze several pints in Vapecans to make this easy treat for winter. The recipe given makes two pints.

PICNICS

In spite of the widespread popularity of backyard barbecues, the old-fashioned picnic in the park seems to be holding its own. If you don't believe it, drive out past Moore Park any noon, afternoon and you'll see it. L. Knowles and his crew keep the lawns cut and green (he must do most of the sprinkling at night) and the trees cast inviting shade. It's surprising how quickly cool breezes restore lagging appetites. So if you're picnic-bound these days, here's an idea to tack into your picnic menu file. We call it Granddaddy-Burger. A huge eight-inch bun that's filled with spicy ground beef cooked in tomato sauce.

Prepare the sauce at home and keep it hot for the picnic in a thermos. Or, if you like to cook outdoors, simmer it on the campfire or portable grill.

The big buns are extra special because there's a cheese baked inside, and they're easy to make with hot roll mix. One package makes two Granddaddy-Burger buns, each large enough to serve four ravenous teens or six moderately hungry adults.

GRANDDADDY-BURGER BUNS
1 package Pillsbury Hot Roll Mix
1 cup warm (not hot) water
2 cups shredded Cheddar cheese
1 tablespoon soft butter
1 teaspoon black pepper

REFRESHING
Dilute frozen limeade concentrate according to the directions on the can and freeze some of the drink in your icecube trays. Add some of the frozen limeade cubes to tall glasses of gingerale.

HONEY SYRUP
When making muffins or rolls, place a tablespoon of honey syrup in the bottom of greased muffin cup. To make honey syrup, combine 1-3 cup brown sugar, 2-3 cup honey and 3 tablespoons melted butter.

SALAD-RELISH
Combine pickled beets and canned Blue Lake green beans for a refreshing picnic salad-relish. Garden fresh flavor and color are yours when the words Blue Lake appear on the label and you know you're eating an Oregon product as well.

NESTEA

Nestle's instant tea, Nestea, has a special offer through Klamath Falls markets just now. Coupons are available in nearly all grocery stores to be filled out and returned to Nestea, along with 25 cents and an innerseal from a Nestea jar. This coupon entitles the sender to an exotic jade plant. The coupons are good for the remainder of this year. Nestea makes hot or iced tea. For iced tea, add a rounded teaspoon of Nestea to each cup of tap water. Stir. Then add ice and sugar and a wedge of lemon if desired.

For iced tea for a picnic, make the tea according to directions on the jar, then pour into an ice cube tray and freeze in the refrigerator. If you wish, it can be made stronger and cold water added, but if you aren't sure of the water, make it regular strength and it melts into delicious iced tea.

For serving iced tea at home indoors or out, try making lemonade ice cubes and pouring the tea over them.

Nestea is made from selected Orange Pekoe and Pekoe black tea. It is composed of equal parts of freshly brewed tea and added amino-deoxins solely to protect the fine tea flavor.

SPICY GROUND FILLING
Melt 1 tablespoon shortening in large skillet. Add 1 pound ground beef and 1/2 cup chopped onion. Cook until meat loses its red color. Meanwhile combine one 8-ounce can tomato paste, 1/2 cup chopped green pepper, 2 tablespoons brown sugar, 1 tablespoon vinegar, 1 to 2 teaspoons chili powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt and 1/2 teaspoon cayenne pepper. Drain fat from meat; then stir in the tomato mixture. Heat thoroughly.
