Red Exhibit Seen As Hit

NEW YORK (AP)—The newest show in town—the Soviet Exhibition—looks like a smash hit. A dazzling, 10-million-dollar extravaganza, it opened to generally favorable press reviews and played its first performance before a packed house in the New York Coliseum.

There were 1,000 people standing in the hot sun Tuesday when the doors opened. A spokesman for the 42-day exhibition estimated attendance between 40,000 and 50,000.

The aim of the show, like the aim of its American counterpart which opens in Moscow July 25, is to show people how the other side lives.

Newspapers generally found it a good show. But they pointed out that in some departments, such as housing, clothing and automobiles the Soviet goods didn't come up to American standards.

Apparently they were somewhat above Soviet standards, however. Max Frankel, a former Moscow correspondent, wrote in the New York Times: "A visitor can see far more here in two hours than this correspondent saw in two years in the Soviet Union, far more especially of the stuff of Soviet wishful dreams."

"The exhibition projects a glistening Soviet future, but strains some facts of Soviet reality."

Oregonian Disappears

FLORENCE, Ore. (AP)—The search resumes today for Albert Straight, the 76-year-old who vanished Monday after setting out from his house to pick berries.

More than 100 men ramed through brushy, logged land Tuesday but failed to find a trace of Straight.

The man's home is near the settlement of Canary, a few miles from this Oregon coastal resort. Two mills shut down Tuesday so their crews could aid in the search. Also pressed into service were two airplanes and three bloodhounds.

Police said Straight was in good health and was dressed in a shirt and tweed trousers—sufficient to keep him warm in the area's mild weather. Straight's wife, 76 and an invalid, was reported by police to have been placed under a physician's care after her husband's disappearance.

UN Chooses New Leader

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Gen. Carter B. MacGruder today succeeded Gen. George H. Decker as commander of U.N. and U.S. forces in Korea and of the U.S. 8th Army.

Decker left by plane for Japan and the United States. He is due in Washington July 10 to become U.S. Army vice chief of staff.

The mayor of Seoul planned an outdoor rally for the departing commander but rain forced its cancellation. Decker paid a farewell call on President Syngman Rhee, who decorated him with South Korea's highest military award, the Order of Taeguk with gold star.

In the brief change-of-command ceremony, MacGruder said the Allied forces in Korea face the "ever present threat of a renewal of hostilities."

Decker said the Allied forces "stand ready to meet any type of attack that may be launched."

Another Summer Of Search Begun By Tennessee Mom

NORTH BEND, Wash. (AP)—Another summer of search for the boy she refuses to lose has started for a soft-spoken Tennessee mother.

Somewhere in the Cascade Mountains, perhaps hidden by brush or trees, perhaps in the murky depths of an alpine lake, is what she seeks, the wreckage of a plane and the remains of two young men.

One of the men was Ensign Gas-ton E. Mayes, USNR, who vanished with a companion on March 11, 1949, when their plane's engine quit on a flight out of Sand Point Naval Air Station, Seattle.

Every year since the summer of 1949 Mrs. Nora S. Mayes has come to this small city nestled against the foot of the Cascades to search for her son, talking to hunters, fishermen, to loggers and all who frequent or know the surrounding wilderness.

Since 1956 she has spent most of her time near Black Lake, a spot of water north of the North Fork of the Snogualmie River. Several men who saw the plane during its last moments of flight placed it near Black Lake.

At one end of the lake stands two trees without tops, Mrs. Mayes says they look as if they had been hit by a plane.

In the lake, deep under 70 feet of ooze, lies something that affects magnetic gear.

Mrs. Mayes believes it might be an aircraft engine. But divers attempting to establish the identity of that mass have defeated their own purpose as they stirred up swirling clouds of vision-blocking silt in probing the bottom of Black Lake.

Divers have recovered from the lake pieces of wiring said to be from an airplane. That's all.
