Dorothea Geary Weds John Ingle Yellott Jr.

Dorothea Geary exchanged wedding vows with John Ingle Yellott Jr. of Phoenix, Arizona, at 2:30 on the afternoon of June 13 at the First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Robert C. Groves officiated at the wedding ceremony before the altar decorated with tall baskets of white Imperial daisies and white snapdragons.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Richard Smith and the late Arthur Geary. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. J. William Yellott of Verona, New Jersey, and John Yellott Sr. of Phoenix.

Given in marriage by her father, Richard Smith, the bride wore a floor length gown of white silk organza and lace and carried a bouquet of white roses and white Marguerites. Her short veil was held in place by a crown of lace which was made by her mother. Her only jewelry was a ruby and gold antique pendant brought from India and given to her by Mr. and Mrs. John Yellott.

Zon Johnson Is Bride Of John Edward Gerbert

In an afternoon ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church on June 20, Zon Johnson became the bride of John Edward Gerbert. The 2 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert C. Groves at the altar which was beautifully decorated with baskets of white gladioli and pink majestic daisies and lighted pink tapers before a background of woodwardia fern.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kit Johnson. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Gerbert of Alpine, Texas.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a lovely gown fashioned with a bodice of imported Chantilly lace with portrait neckline and tiny sleeves. The very full, filmy skirt of tulle was appliqued with hand clipped Chantilly lace. Her veil of silk illusion and tiny seed pearls was loaned by Mrs. Dale McKennie of Corvallis. She carried a white Bible with a show-er arrangement of white stephanotis surrounding a white orchid.

Mrs. Marion Kordic of Oklahoma City, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pink frock of imported organza over pink taffeta and carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and Esther Reed daisies in orchid shades.

Jan Earnshaw of Portland, Julie Barrow, Seattle, and Ailsa Kuykendall of Klamath Falls were bridesmaids. Their dresses were of orchid imported organza over orchid taffeta. They carried pink cascade bouquets of stephanotis and Esther Reed daisies.

Cathy Overen, as flower girl, was dressed like the matron of honor and carried a basket of pink rosebuds. Marty Kordic, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Florence Wamstad and Jeannie Wamstad of Carson City were candlelighters.

Dan Johnson, the bride's brother, was best man. Ushers were Kit G. Johnson, brother of the bride, Marion Kordic, her cousin, and Marvin Brown.

Traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. A. F. Herringshaw. Beth Robertson was soloist. Mrs. Johnson selected for her daughter's wedding a beige sheath and matching hat. Her corsage was of pink roses. A close friend of the bridegroom, Maude Ferguson, wearing a pink dacton dress and corsage of pink roses, was seated for his parents, who were unable to attend.

A reception in the church social room followed the ceremony. Pink and white flowers carrying out the theme of the wedding, were used for table arrangements. The bride's table was centered with a three tiered white wedding cake. Assistants at the reception were Mrs. Charles Wamstad, Mrs. Lawrence Birk, Marjorie Fessenden, Mrs. Coryl Moran, Mrs. J. G. Patterson, Mrs. Clem Bortis, Mrs. Arthur Wilson, Mrs. Ralph Dunlavy, Mrs. Bill DePew, Mrs. Robert C. Groves, Mrs. Isabelle Brixner, Mrs. James Sweatt, Mrs. Gary

Garden Club Group Meets

A meeting of the Klamath District Garden Club Budget Committee was held at the home of Mrs. Scott McKendree, 1893 Del Moro.

Those present were Mrs. McKendree, district director; committee members Letta Goehring, Ruth Proctor and Mary Young; district treasurer, Ruth Biber; and district secretary, Irene Seely.

The district budget for the coming year, financial problems connected with the Centennial Flower Show which will be given on August 1 and 2 of this year, and plans for a rummage sale in September were discussed by the group. Their recommendations will be presented to the membership of the various garden clubs of the Klamath district at the potluck picnic to be held at Malin Park, July 7. All members are urged to attend the picnic which is set for 11 a.m. standard time.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Sharon Bliss to Bruce Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brown, has been recently announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fuller.

The young people, both KUHS graduates, have attended Shasta College in Redding and the University of California at Davis.

No date has been set for the wedding. — Photo by Anderson, Guderian Studio

Church Altar Nuptial Site

Pay Laree Saunders of Fairfield, Washington, became the bride of William R. Gregory, Dorris, in an afternoon ceremony on June 27 at the First Presbyterian Church of Fairfield.
