Sharon Hayford Weds James Michael Dolan

Sharon Louise Hayford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Hayford, became the bride of James Michael Dolan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dolan of Prescott, Arizona, on June 20 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

The wedding mass was officiated by Msgr. T. P. Casey assisted by Father Williams of Bend. Mike Hayford, cousin of the bride from Portland, served at the ceremony.

The church was decorated with tall baskets of blue delphinium and white stock and candelabra holding lighted white tapers. Small bouquets of the same flowers were placed upon the altar.

The bride was escorted down the aisle and given in marriage by her father. Her bridal gown of white imported embroidered French organza was fashioned with a tiered skirt. The tucked bodice featured a batteau neckline and cap sleeves. A cap of organza trimmed with pearls and sequins held her fingertip veil and she carried a crescent bouquet of white roses.

For a bit of sentiment and something old, the bride wore a dainty chain and pendant which had belonged to her great-grandmother, Mrs. Frederick Hayford of London.

Mrs. William Seaberry was matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Evans of Denver, and Mrs. Patrick O'Loughlin of Eugene. They wore ballerina length frocks of sky blue chiffon made with cowl necklines and full skirts featuring back floating panels. Headbands of braided horsehair and small flowers held short blue circular veils. The matron of honor carried blue and white Esther Reed daisies arranged in a basket effect.

The bridesmaids carried white daisies arranged in the same manner.

Molly Hayford of Portland, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Terry McLaughlin of Dale, Oregon, was best man. Ushers were Bill Seaberry, brother-in-law of the bride, and Cal Weisenfluh of Dale.

Mrs. D. C. Heffly was organist. She also accompanied Mrs. Walter Badorek who sang "Ave Maria." Mrs. Hayford chose for her daughter's wedding a sage green eyelet sheath dress with shawl collar, pink accessories and a pink rose corsage.

A reception in the parish hall followed the ceremony. Table decorations carried out the blue and white theme with blue Esther Reed daisies and white tapers.

The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. E. J. Hayford. Mrs. Richard Cullen presided at the coffee service and punch was served by Mrs. Lawrence Mousseau and Mrs. Charles Zumwalt. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Idham received gifts and Joan Juckland passed the guest book.

For a honeymoon trip to Lake Tahoe and Reno the new Mrs. Dolan changed to a navy blue silk shantung sheath with matching jacket and beige accessories. An off white rose corsage was pinned at her shoulder. The newlyweds will reside in Dale, Oregon, where he is a forester at Dale Ranger Station.

The bride is a graduate of KUHS.

Roberta Wade Is Bride Of Phillip A. Nichols

In an afternoon ceremony on June 21 at the First Methodist Church Roberta Maurine Wade became the bride of Phillip Arden (Art) Nichols. White gladioli with touches of blue arranged in large beauty baskets stood in front of four tall candelabra to form the setting for the service which was performed by the Rev. Dallas McNeil in the presence of approximately 100 relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wade of Medford and former residents of this city are parents of the bride. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Nichols.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a lovely gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta. The fitted Queen Anne bodice was fashioned with long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline edged with sequins and seed pearls. The full skirt extended into a chapel train, a cascade of nylon ruffles. A crown of sequins and seed pearls held in place the silk illusion veil. She wore a necklace of pearls, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a white cattleya orchid and stephanotis on a white Bible.

Mrs. David Stemple, Klamath Falls, college roommate of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a waltz length frock of blue crystallite taffeta with pink sash and carried a cascade of pink Finch roses and carnations.

Mrs. Donald Ferguson of Medford, Mrs. Kermit McLenore, Grants Pass, and Mrs. Charles K. Rackleff of Klamath Falls were bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of blue with contrasting blue cummerbunds and carried bouquets of pink and blue delphinium. Each attendant wore white and crystal necklaces and earrings, gifts of the bride.

Mary Nelson, flower girl, was dressed in a blue dress made with full skirt and matching jacket. Her headband was of flowers. She carried a basket of lavender daisy petals as she led the bridal procession down the aisle.

Charles K. Rackleff was best man. Ushers were Lee Wade, brother of the bride from Ellsworth Air Force Base, South Dakota, Bruce Brink and Edward Rackleff of Grants Pass.

Traditional organ wedding music was played by Mrs. Arthur Denison. Donna McFarland was the soloist.

At the reception in the church parlors following the ceremony, Mrs. Wade greeted her daughter's wedding guests wearing a turquoise blue silk sheath dress with white accessories. Mrs. Nichols chose a white suit with blue trim and white accessories. Their corsages were of pink rosebuds.

After the traditional first cut of wedding cake was made by the bride couple, it was served by Mrs. Lloyd Leithead and Mrs. Fred Wade. The bride's aunt, Mrs. Harold Carlson of Corvallis, and Mrs. Theodore Richards presided at the coffee table. Mrs. Raymond Johnson served punch and Mrs. Edward Rackleff of Grants Pass was in charge of the gift table. The guest book was passed by Linda Chapman of Eugene. Mrs. Jack Mitchell made the arrangements for the reception. Mrs. Kenna Gandee arranged the flowers and Mrs. Helmi Ranes, aunt of the bride from Eugene, and Mrs. Thomas Sims, cousin of the bride of Molalla, assisted about the rooms.

For traveling the new Mrs. Nichols wore a blue sheath dress with matching jacket and white accessories. The orchid from her bouquet was pinned at her shoulder.

Following a wedding trip to the California and Oregon coast the newlyweds are residing in Klamath Falls where he is employed by Montgomery Ward. He is a KUHS graduate and attended GTI. Mrs. Nichols is a graduate of KUHS and Southern Oregon College.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carlson, Corvallis; Mrs. Helmi Ranes and Linda Chapman, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sims, Molalla; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Fuhrmeister and Ted, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit McLenore, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rackleff and David, all of Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Kenna Gandee, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ferguson, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barker, Oakland.

Pre-nuptial affairs included a shower given by the staff of Wilson School in Medford, where the bride taught, and a miscellaneous shower with Mrs. Donald Ferguson of Medford as hostess.

Jack Procks Parents Of Son

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Prock are parents of a son, their first child, born on Monday evening, June 29, in Reno. The baby, who weighed 7 lbs. on arrival, has been named Ray Curtis.

Proud grandparents for the first time are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Prock of this city.

Mrs. Prock and daughter, Eleanor, are in Reno awaiting the return from the hospital of the new baby to his home at 365 Denlowe Drive.

SPARKLING NECKLACES
Sparkling necklaces in lovely blond shades are the newest to wear with spring's pale colors. These bib necklaces combine glittering crystals and fake pearls in honey tones to catch and hold the light.

Couple Wed In Reno Honored At Reception

At the First Presbyterian Church in Reno on June 9, Linda Grems became the bride of Michael Robison. The ceremony was read by the Rev. H. E. Morris at 8:30 in the evening.

The bride wore a waltz length white silk dress, white feather hat and white satin gloves for her wedding. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds and stephanotis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barnett of Klamath Falls were the attendants.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Grems, were present for the ceremony. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Robison of this city.

On June 29 Mr. and Mrs. Grems were hosts at a reception honoring the newlyweds at Little Sweden. Approximately 65 guests congratulated the couple between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock.

Pink and white ribbon, caught at intervals by bows, was draped along the cloths covering the refreshment tables. Pink and white flowers were artistically arranged as centerpieces.

The three tiered wedding cake was decorated with pink roses, silver leaves and bluebirds around the lower layer. A bridal couple adorned the top.

The cake was cut and served by Mrs. David Pippin and Sherry Robison, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Lois Switzler presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Reece Warner poured punch. Gifts were received by Marie Bachman. The guest book was passed among the guests by Mrs. David Lozar. Also assisting was Bill Mills.

Incidental organ music was played during the evening by Glenn Fox.

STORK SHOWER
BONANZA — Mrs. Ronald Roberts was the honored guest at a "stork" shower given at the Bonanza library the evening of June 24 by Sherry Crawford, Janice Heseltine and Sydne Ketchum. Pink peonies and white daisies were used for decorating the room. Fay Roberts assisted her sister-in-law in opening the gifts.
