Forest Service Transfers Pair

LAKEVIEW—A transfer of two men, Harold Herrin and Ellis Carlson, was announced this week by Supervisor Clayton Weaver of the Fremont National Forest.

Ellis Carlson, who has been assistant on the Warner District for the past two years, is being transferred and promoted to a newly established position of forest check scaler. His duties will consist of giving supervision and training to all the scaling personnel on the Fremont forest. During the logging season approximately 10 scalers are employed.

Carlson is being replaced as assistant on the Warner District by the transfer of Harold Herrin from the supervisor's office. For the past several years Herrin has been administrative assistant in the business management section of the forest. Prior to this he was assigned to fire control activity on the Malheur National Forest.

Witnesses Assemble In Eugene

Jehovah's Witnesses from the Klamath Falls congregation will leave Wednesday for Eugene to attend the four-day "Awake Ministers" assembly of the faith, July 8-12.

George Hricizese, presiding minister, said it has been necessary to cancel all regularly scheduled kingdom hall meetings this weekend.

Highlight of the convention comes Sunday, July 12, when E. D. Rosam Jr., New York, delivers the free public Bible address: "When God Speaks Peace To All Nations."

Other speakers from the Watch Tower Society's headquarters in Brooklyn, New York, include Max Harry Larson, corporation director and manager of the Bible printing plant, who will serve as the convention chairman, and Russel V. Mock, special representative assigned to the Eugene assembly.
