

Kubs Win Holiday Feature

A sparkling double play turned in by Gresham who leaped high to spear a line smash by Bob Jones then step on second stopped the Kubs' seventh surge.

A brilliant catch high on the right field wall by Lawery held the Yreka to two runs in the eighth which were pushed home by Gresham's single.

A five run explosion in the home half of the eighth put the game out of reach of the Indians two-run last inning stand. Kimpton and Dunsun started the uprising with singles and the triples by Kelly and Dollar did the rest.

Scott Valley, Mt. Shastans Notch Wins

SCOTT VALLEY — The Scott Valley Stars climbed into a three way tie for second place in the Northern California baseball league standings by clobbering the Dunsmuir Merchants 15-5 in a hectic game here Sunday afternoon.

In other Northern Cal action the Mount Shasta Seals collected 11 hits to dump the heretofore second place Weed Sons 6-2 in a game played at Mount Shasta.

An eight run fifth inning built on six hits, two errors and a hit batter broke up what appeared to be a relatively close contest.

Dunsmuir pitcher Ron Curtis was charged with the loss although he gave way to reliever Al Smith in the fifth. The winner, Larry Evans, was reached for seven hits and two walks before being pulled for Pete Storti. Storti went four innings allowing only one hit, walking none and whiffing eight.

Scott Valley Dale Evans collected a double and a triple while Fred Gonzales smashed three for five, Don Duncan got two for five and catcher Rod Vinal poled a double and two singles.

Dunsmuir's Bob Simpson rapped a double and a triple while Jess Fidler and Larry Prat each added two-baggers.

Power-Packed NL Lineup Favored In All-Star Game

BULLETIN

DETROIT (AP)—Al Kaline, injured Detroit Tiger centerfielder, today got a go-ahead from his doctor to play in the All-Star game at Pittsburgh Tuesday. Kaline, who suffered a jaw fracture in a game June 18, underwent surgery for the second time last Monday.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A power-laden National League squad, headed by Henry Aaron, Willie originally believed to be favoring Lew Burdette, his own right-handed ace with Milwaukee, may open with Los Angeles' Don Drysdale. In any event, right-handed pitching, at least for the first three innings, appeared to be in order. The two starting squads are predominantly right-handed. Second baseman Nellie Fox of the White Sox is the only left-handed batter among the American starters. Eddie Mathews, Milwaukee third baseman, and Wally Moon, Los Angeles left fielder, are the only left-handed swingers in the Nationals' starting lineup.

In addition to Mathews, Moon, shortstop Banks, and outfielders

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Don Drysdale of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Early Wynn of the Chicago White Sox today were named starting pitchers for Tuesday's All-Star baseball game at Forbes Field.

Mays and Aaron, the National League's starting All-Stars will include first baseman Orlando Cepeda of San Francisco, second baseman Johnny Temple of Cincinnati and catcher Del Crandall of the Braves.

The Americans' starting squad, besides Fox, include first baseman Bill Skowron, New York; shortstop Luis Aparicio, Chicago; third baseman Harmon Killebrew, Washington; catcher Gus Triandos, Baltimore; and outfielders Al Kaline of Detroit, Minnie Minoso and Rocky Colavito of Cleveland. Kaline, sidelined for several days by a cheekbone operation, was expected to be ready.

Haney—who in his only other

All-Star managerial effort last year, lost to Stengel 4-3—has five left-handed hitters on his bench. These include the veteran but still potent Stan Musial, Bill White and Joe Cunningham of St. Louis, Yada Pinson of Cincinnati and Smoky Burgess of Pittsburgh. Right-handers Frank Robinson of the Reds, Ken Boyer and Hal Smith of the Cards and Dick Groat and Bill Mazeroski of the Pirates, round out the National League squad, excepting the pitcher.

Armchair boxing fans get a break this week with two world title fights scheduled to be televised into their living rooms. Bantamweight champion Alphonse Halimi of France and welterweight ruler Don Jordan of Los Angeles risk their crowns on the West Coast. Both are favored.

Halimi is a 2-1 favorite to beat Mexico's Joe Becerra for his 15-rounder at Los Angeles' new $6,000,000 sports arena Wednesday night—ABC-TV, 9 p.m. EST. Jordan is a 9-5 choice to beat back the challenge of Denny Moyer, unbeaten, 19-year-old contender, in Moyer's hometown of Portland, Ore., Friday night—NBC radio-TV 9 p.m., EST.

The 27-year-old Frenchman is getting a $65,000 guarantee for his first title defense in nearly two years. He hasn't risked the crown since he whipped Raul (Raton) Macias, another Mexican challenger, at Los Angeles, Nov. 6, 1957. An arm injury, a circus tour, and six non-title fights—he won them all kept Alphonse busy in the meantime. His record is 27-1 including 15 knockouts.

Becerra, 23, has swept his last 15 fights, 11 by knockouts. Now the No. 1 contender, his record is 32-2-1. Including 20 kayos. Jordan, 25, is getting a $70,000 guarantee for his second defense of the year. He trounced ex-champ Virgil Akins in their return scrap at St. Louis April 24. Jordan's record is 45-11, including 15 kayos. Moyer, son of a fighter and from a fighting family, has a 20-0 record, including 6 kayos. He is ranked second by Ring and fifth by the NBA.

The West Coast dominates the major action in boxing more than ever this week. Phil Moyer, Denny's middleweight brother, meets Tony Dominguez of San Francisco in the feature 10-rounder at Richmond, Calif., Tuesday night.

Zora Foley, ranked second among the heavyweight contenders by Ring and third by the NBA, faces Alvin Williams of Oklahoma City at Fresno, Calif., Thursday night. Foley is from Chandler, Ariz.

DON DRYSDALE ... NL mound choice

EARLY WYNN ... American hurler

Mays and Ernie Banks, was favored today to end the American League's two-year dominance in Tuesday's 26th annual All-Star game at Forbes Field.

A capacity crowd of 35,000 was assured for this second mid-summer contest in Pittsburgh since the All-Star event was inaugurated in 1933. The last one played there, on July 11, 1944, was won by the National League, 7-1.

Including Aaron, Mays and Banks, the Nationals boasted 13 players batting better than .300 to only six for the Americans. The senior circuit also had four of its seven pitchers with 10 or more regular season victories while the American had only one, Chicago's Early Wynn. In home runs, the Nationals also led, 207 to 200.

Managers Casey Stengel of the American League and Fred Haney of the National arrived late Sunday night and said they would announce their starting pitchers, as well as the batting orders, early this morning.

Stengel, who earlier has indicated Hoyt Wilhelm, Baltimore's knuckleball expert, as his opening pitcher, was said to be considering switching to Wynn. Haney,

Amateurs Vying For Spots

PORTLAND (AP) — An immense field begins qualifying play here today for berths in the championship competition of the Northwest Amateur Golf Tournament.

The men's division of the tournament is packed with 209 entries, who will shoot qualifying rounds today and Tuesday on the Portland Golf Club course.

The 150 women entries will compete at the Columbia-Edge-water course.

One favorite loomed early—and clearly—in the women's competition.

She is Mrs. John Harbottle of Tacoma. As Miss Pat Lesser, in 1955, she won the national women's amateur crown while a coed at Seattle University.

Mrs. Harbottle also has won the Northwest amateur title twice. After a practice round here Saturday, she remarked: "I've always played well in Portland."

Then she added, "You know this is the first tournament I've entered since the National in 1957 in Sacramento."

"Of course, I've been busy with my son John," she said. "He's 10 1/2 months old now."

Among the other early favorites in the women's competition are Shirley Siegmund and Elaine Porritt of Eugene, two familiar names in Oregon tournaments.

JoAnne Gunderson of Seattle, last year's winner in this tournament, will not compete this year.

The 1958 men's titlist, though, is back seeking another crown. He is George Holland, another Seattle golfer.

The other early favorites for the men's crown all are golfers who have won the same title before—Dick Yost of Portland, who was successful in 1933 and 1955, and Ray Weston of Spokane, 1947; and Ken Storey of Seattle, 1934.

The qualifying will pare the men's championship field to 32 golfers. Sixteen will qualify in the play leading to the women's title match.

Hardtop Race Won By Serpa

Heading a 12 car contingent of red hot California race drivers, John Serpa of Chico piloted his 1956 full-race Chevrolet to a popular victory in the 25 lap A-Main event of the hardtop races held at Eberlein Speedway Saturday night.

The invading Californians, who swarmed into action in Klamath Falls after the closure of Northern California tracks, swelled the number of cars entered in the program to 35 and provided the largest crowd in the history of the track with one of the finest racing shows ever seen locally.

Highlighting the program which included a spectacular spill by Orville Johnson in the B main event, was the four way duel in the big race won by Serpa. Riding close on his heels was the number two man, Ed Brown of Meridian, and Klamath Falls' Bud Cook and Wes Bishop in that order.

The winner of the B-Main was Paisley's Kenny Kimes who roared through the traffic from the back of the pack to take the checker in his K-48.

Johnson, who had purchased K-67 just prior to the race, was running in the thick of the melee in the B-Main event when he spun out and was knocked into the air for two complete flips then went end-over-end when he came down. Johnson, credited with the worst spill ever taken on the track, was uninjured.

Fast qualifiers in pre-race trials included Brown and Don Benefield among the "big" cars while Klamath Falls drivers Kenny Kimes and Len Ferguson topped the "small" cars.

Kimes grabbed a win in the second heat, Corky Waterman was first in the second, Bob Wilcox nabbed the third and Don Porter won the fourth heat.

Trophy dash winners included Kimes in the B dash and Brown in the A.

The results:
A Trophy Dash—Ed Brown, Don Benefield, Bud Cook.
B Trophy Dash—John Burrows, Paul Stanford, Len Ferguson.
1st Heat—Corky Waterman, Mel Ottman, Gary Mick.
2nd Heat—Kenny Kimes, John Burrows, Lloyd Poncannon.
3rd Heat—Bob Wilcox, Bud Cook, John Zachary.
4th Heat—Don Porter, Ed Brown, John Serpa.
B Main Event—Kimes, Poncannon, Bob Houck.
A Main Event—Serpa, Brown, Cook, Wes Bishop.

Otis Man Nabs Timber Victories

ALBANY, Ore. (AP)—Gus Russell of Otis, Ore., is the Albany Timber Carnival's only double champion, with victories in the log chopping and ax throwing contests.

Jubiel Wickheim of Sooke, B.C., rolled his brother, Ardy, of Victoria, B.C. into the river three times to win the log rolling event Sunday.

Another Canadian, Danny Sailor of North Surrey, B.C., won the speed climbing. Paul Seales of Toulle, Wash. finished first in the log bucking and Harold Johnson of Castle Rock, Wash., the tree topping.
