BEATTY — About 2,500 spectators witnessed 129 competitors battle for purses during the annual Fourth of July rodeo at the Beatty rodeo grounds sponsored by the Beatty Roping Club. The cowboys performed July 4 and 5.

Wayne Smith of Bly won first place in the bronc riding event. He was also named all-around cowboy. Ray Vowel of Steel Swamp and Dale Sprout of Klamath Falls were the winning roping team.

Jerry Nickols of Cottonwood, California, won the calf roping event, and Bob Bets of Stockton, bull riding. Judges were Bill Duffy of Sprague River and Junior Anderson of Beatty. Competitors came from several western states.

Ora Summers of Fort Klamath furnished bucking stock. Friedman Kirk furnished cattle and Don Schonchin, Brahma bulls.

Buck Scott of Warm Springs was the rodeo's only casualty. He received some fractured ribs when a bronc threw him on the second day of the show.

The club also sponsored dances in Beatty Dance Hall the evenings of July 3 and 4. Club members were pleased with a policing job done by Johnnie Holloway, Jim Flits and Bob Heartly. "There was no trouble and lots of fun," members said.

English is the predominant language in Trinidad though many languages are spoken there.
