Comedian's Son To Pay Support

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The 20-year-old son of the late bazooka-playing comedian Bob Burns must pay $40 a week support for his 17-year-old wife and their infant son. William Robin Burns testified at a Superior Court hearing Tuesday that he is trying to live on $53 a week he earns as a gasoline station attendant. But he admitted he can dip into an $11,000 trust fund left by his father.

Preliminary Hearing Set For Reformatory Youths

NEW MARTINSVILLE, W. Va. (AP)—Three teen-age reformatory inmates, charged with kidnaping a young secretary and threatening to kill her if she resisted, got preliminary hearings today.

The trio took Sandra Lynne McKeen, 18, for an 80-mile ride Tuesday but were captured less than five hours after their escape, as they tried to get food and money for a trip to Florida. Miss McKeen was not harmed.

Larry Anthony Rector and Roger Lee Moore, both 16, and Patrick Jarrell, 17, were charged with kidnaping and grand larceny. The reformatory superintendent, Richard L. Young, said they would be given preliminary hearings before Magistrate W. C. Lawson.

The trio escaped from the State Industrial School for Boys at Pruntytown, near Grafton in north-central West Virginia. They were captured 10 miles south of this Ohio River town by Sheriff Shannon W. Westerman and other officers because Westerman thought to go to Rector's old neighborhood, where his mother still lives.

Miss McKeen is a plain-looking girl with straight blonde hair and glasses. Young and law officers said she told them it was her custom to take a drive after having lunch in the employes' cafeteria.

She had just returned and was parking her car when the three boys sidled up, opened the door and climbed in.

One of them brandished a knife and another handed her a note which said, "If you don't do what we say or try to get help we'll kill you."

"They all laid down on the seat," Miss McKeen was quoted. "Later, they took off their shirts so they wouldn't be recognized."

The boys were wearing the reformatory school's summer uniform of khaki pants and blue t-shirts. "I took them to Clarksburg," the secretary said. "They said they'd let me off at the outskirts but before we got there, I got too scared to drive and one of them took my place."

The boys didn't stop at Clarksburg but went on to New Martinsville on the western border of the state. As they drove along, they told Miss McKeen they had been casing her movements for a week and knew the precise moment she returned from the lunch-hour drive.

Rector and Jarrell were taken at a shack near the home of Rector's mother, as they tried to obtain food and money from her. Young said the mother prevented Rector from getting a rifle — "wrestled with him and cried" as he tried to take the weapon. The third fugitive, Moore, had left the others to go on foot through the woods and was captured in an adjoining county.

Authorities learned the general direction the fugitives were taking because someone saw the car going through the town of Bridgeport.

"We were mighty, mighty lucky to catch them," said Young. "The boys were in a desperate state of mind."

All three were serving terms for auto theft or breaking and entering. Rector and Moore were serving second sentences.

Firms Plan Power Buy

PORTLAND (AP)—Five utility companies have announced plans for the purchase of power from the Wanapum Dam project, which is expected to be completed in 1963.

Four other companies have contracted for power, but have agreed to sell it to Portland General Electric Co. and Pacific Power & Light Co., a PGE official said Tuesday.

PP&L said it bought 283,872 kilowatts from the Grant County Public Utility District, and PGE 261,428 kilowatts.

Among the other companies receiving shares of the rated 831,250 kilowatt capacity are Eugene Water and Electric Board, 19,100; Puget Sound Power & Light, 142,900; and the Washington Water Power Co., 108,900.
