Overdue Book Back In Library
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — About five months before Admiral Peary reached the North Pole in 1909, someone checked the book "Castle Blair" out of the Carnegie Public Library.
It was returned Tuesday, more than 50 years overdue. It was placed in a collection chute at a branch library.
Library officials said the book, overdue since Jan. 4, 1909, would have carried a $472.50 fine.

HOLD ON TO THAT Long Green

A sure shot gets to the green. In this case, the "long green stuff," money! Saving here is the sure shot. Your money doesn't bounce up or down. Savings stay fluctuation-free, worth every cent you put into them, totally safe, and they always reach their mark.

TO MASTER THE SWING OF SAVING, TRY THESE SUGGESTIONS
1. Drive—that is open your savings account here in person or by mail. Any sum $5 to $5,000 starts you off... but get started.
2. The Fairway shot—it's only fair to pay yourself at the beginning of every month by adding a set sum to your savings account. This pays off with a full month's earnings.
3. On the Green—systematic savings plus our high dividends add up to the amount of "greenbacks" you require for worry-free living.
Now, get in practice. Improve your saving score, open or add to your account by July 10 to earn from July 1.
