Owners Picket Union Pickets

TORONTO (AP)—Pickets from the bakers' union closed in on the Bagel Bar Wednesday night, and owners Rachmil Wolfowitz and Gimpel Guttman promptly picketed the pickets.

Their signs read: "We, the owners, are fighting to make a living. We have no baking workers. We do all our own baking. Let the union organize workers elsewhere, not bosses here."

A little later they returned to their ovens and put their signs in the window.

MIGHTY NATION — Canada is the second largest country in the world; it reaches one-fourth of the way around the world, according to Encyclopedia Britannica.

GRANGE NEWS

EASTSIDE PICNIC — NEW PINE CREEK — About 125 people attended the New Pine Creek community picnic on the fourth of July. The picnic was sponsored by Eastside Grange.

The picnic site, owned by Art Lenkeit, has been a favorite picnic spot for people of Goose Lake Valley for a long time.

When, during the last 20 years, increasing numbers of people began using the grounds and refuse and a policing problem began to mount, Lenkeit turned custody of the spot to the Willow Ranch Firemen and Fireettes. They promised to improve and maintain the site. They built new tables, and a stone grill and other improvements. Then Lenkeit locked it.

He explains that community groups are welcome to use the facilities if they ask his and the firemen's permission and if they promise to keep the spot neat.

GRANGE PICNIC — Lake and Klamath County Pomona granges will hold their annual picnic Sunday, July 12, at a picnic site near the former Owen Ranch at the base of Quartz Mountain, nine miles east of Bly. A potluck lunch will be served at noon. The granges will furnish ice cream, punch and coffee. Entertainment will follow. All Pomona and subordinate grange members and their guests are invited.

Oldtimers Dance — will be held Saturday, July 11, in the K.C. Hall from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Music by the Smoothies. Public is invited.

Meeting — of the Airmen's Wives Club will be held Thursday, July 9, at 7:30 p.m. in the service club.

Reckless Driver Pleads Guilty

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Delores Pride, 26, pleading guilty to a reckless driving charge, told the court she was just trying to talk to her husband when her automobile struck another car from the rear.

Police said the car ahead was driven by the husband, Robert Pride, 27.

Mrs. Pride said she chased the other car for six blocks "because the driver was my husband." Pride told the court he thought a holdup man was pursuing him.

Mrs. Pride was fined $50.
