

Chessman Makes Pledge Against Compromise

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (UPI)—He has earned more than $100,000 from his writings but, he said, legal and other expenses have drained it away to the point where he's broke now.

This week the California Supreme Court rejected the latest Chessman appeal. In a maximum of 60 days the Los Angeles court that originally sentenced him to death will set a new date for execution.

Meanwhile, Chessman is preparing a petition for a rehearing by the state Supreme Court. He is frankly skeptical of his chances there.

"My only hope lies in appeals to the federal courts, especially the U.S. Supreme Court where they can be decided on the merits of the case, not on legends favorable or unfavorable," he said.

He wants to go back to Los Angeles for a new trial. He insists that, while he may have been a habitual criminal, he was not the red light bandit.

"Now there is no compromise," the 36-year-old convict with the 136 IQ said in an interview.

"I'm too old to serve more time in prison, going to the 'yard' to live like a vegetable. I want a new trial and a finding of not guilty."

"Nor will I ever make application to the governor for commutation. It is an implication of guilt. I'm going to keep doing my damndest until convinced I haven't a chance. Then I'll walk into the gas chamber and tell the executioner to come and get me."

Chessman has written four books in prison, including the best-selling autobiography "Cell 245, Death Row." By his own reckoning, he has written the equivalent of 45 full-length novels in legal briefs, appeals and research papers in staving off execution.

Getty Appointed To BLM Position

PORTLAND (AP)—The Interior Department Friday announced the appointment of Russell E. Getty as Oregon state supervisor of the Bureau of Land Management.

Getty succeeds Virgil T. Heath, to whom he has been assistant in Portland since 1957. Heath has been named area supervisor at Salt Lake City in charge of Idaho, Utah, Arizona and Nevada.
