

NEWCOMERS to the city are Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burman who arrived recently from Mesa, Arizona, where he has for eight years been manager of the Sears store and will head their store in this city. This is their first time in Oregon and they are delighted with the climate, beautiful scenery and friendly people. Although he has many interests, golf is the favorite hobby of Chet Burman, a sport in which his wife hopes to soon join him. Their two married daughters live in Arizona. —Photo by Ellis

DESERT SUNSHINE appeals to Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson who will leave the first of August for Palm Springs where they have purchased a motel. Bonnie Lucas Anderson, member of a family of long time residents, and her husband will be missed by their many friends with whom they have been actively associated in civic, business and social circles.

ON THE WAY to a new home are Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Blumenfeld and 20-month-old son, Matthew, pictured with Mrs. Blumenfeld's mother, Mrs. George Callison. They have been touring the United States since May when they left New Orleans, where Dr. Blumenfeld has been on the faculty of Louisiana State University. They left Klamath Falls on Thursday for a leisurely trip to Whitewater, Wisconsin, where he will become a member of the staff of Wisconsin State College as a professor of English. —Photo by Ellis
