Lutheran Church Scene Of Anderson-Ross Vows

In a 2 o'clock afternoon ceremony on June 21 at the Klamath Lutheran Church, Carol Ann Ross exchanged wedding vows with Robert F. Anderson. The Rev. LeRoy Redal officiated at the double ring service in the presence of 100 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Ross and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson are parents of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length princess style gown of white Chantilly lace fashioned with short sleeves and a V neckline edged with seed pearls. A pearl tiara held in place a shoulder length veil of illusion. She wore short net gloves and carried a white orchid with streamers of stephanotis on a lace covered Bible. Her jewelry, a double strand of pearls, was a gift of the bridegroom. For tradition she wore a blue garter, lucky penny in her slipper, and borrowed a lace handkerchief from her grandmother, Mrs. Dan Fleming of Van Nuys, California.

Lucy Rider, maid of honor, wore a frock of blue satin and lace with matching headpiece and carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations. The bride and maid of honor fashioned their own dresses.

Pat Miller in a green taffeta dress and Jonnie Bell in tan lace were candlelighters. They carried pink candles decorated with pink carnations as they preceded the wedding party to the altar to light the pink tapers which were placed in candelabra beside arrangements of pink gladioli and majestic daisies for the ceremony.

Larry Hollenbeck was best man and ushers were Dan Ross, brother of the bride, and Wayne Robat-cek.

Traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. Arthur Denison, Judy McFarlan was soloist. Mrs. Ross chose for her daughter's wedding a blue sheath dress with pink accessories and corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Anderson wore a pink dress, white accessories, and a corsage of white rosebuds.

Immediately following their marriage the newlyweds left for a trip to Yellowstone Park and on to their new home in Salina, Kansas, where the bridegroom is stationed with the Air Force. For traveling the new Mrs. Anderson wore a navy blue dress with red accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

Both young people are graduates of Klamath Union High School.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Dan Fleming, Van Nuys; Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Anderson, Bellevue, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Terwilliger and Dick, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. Chet Stonecypher, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mosebar, all of Tulare; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grove, Merrill.

Before her marriage the bride-elect was honored at a shower given by Mrs. Jody Sparks and at one with Mrs. Rod Hinman and Mrs. Don Hummel as hostesses.

Mrs. Marcella Raymond, Mrs. R. G. Torgerson, Mrs. Earl Maskell and Mrs. Myrtle Schuss entertained at an evening shower party in her honor. Other hostesses at a pre-nuptial shower were members of the Women's Auxiliary for letter carriers who entertained at the home of Mrs. Edna Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson were hosts to members of the bridal party at a rehearsal dinner at Bing's Cafe.

Judith Fitzgerald Bride Of Leonard James Fritz

White gladioli and pastel daisies decorated the altar of Klamath Lutheran Church on June 7, when Judith Maxine Fitzgerald exchanged wedding vows with Leonard James Fritz of Lebanon. Approximately 100 guests were present for the ceremony which was performed at 2 o'clock by the Rev. LeRoy Redal.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Fitzgerald of this city. George Fritz of Lebanon is the bridegroom's father.

The wedding party entered the church to organ music played by Mrs. Arthur Denison. She also accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Truman Nelson.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin, trimmed with Chantilly lace. The long full skirt fell gracefully into a chapel train. A Dutch cap of Chantilly lace circled with seed pearls held in place a short veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Philo Groves, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Judy Wheeler and Nancy Lentz were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of pastel shades, matching headbands and white accessories, and carried bouquets of daisies to match their frocks.

Cynthia Floetke was flower girl and Michael Groves, ring bearer.

Philo Groves, brother-in-law of the bride, served as best man. Alan Soule and Gerald Geiger were ushers.

Mrs. Fitzgerald chose for her daughter's wedding a pale blue nylon dress embroidered with tiny white leaves and white accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. Arrangements were made by the Ladies Aid of the church. Pink carnations surrounded the tiered wedding cake which was served by Mrs. C. R. Young of Richmond, California. Mrs. Arthur Bostwick served coffee and Mrs. Floyd Larson poured punch. Mrs. Jerry Larson received the gifts and Adele Goehring stood at the guest book register.

The newlyweds left immediately for a honeymoon trip along the coast to San Francisco. For traveling the new Mrs. Fritz selected a two-piece suit of light tweed, white accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds.

The bride was graduated in June from Klamath Union High School. Her husband is a graduate of Oregon Technical Institute. They will reside in this city where he is employed as a diesel mechanic.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Young, Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. John Chapman, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ellstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Ellstrom Jr., Mrs. Roy Ellstrom, all of Vancouver, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Mack Slate Jr., Mrs. Mack Slate Sr., Albany; Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Forbes and son, and George Fritz, from Lebanon.

TIDY JEWEL BOX

Is your jewelry box a tangle of necklaces, pins and bracelets? It should be. Aside from the danger of breaking clasps, the pieces will scratch one another, dimming stones and metal.

MR. AND MRS. VINCENT K. RUNYAN were married June 19 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William diCristina in Mount Shasta. The ceremony was performed by District Judge John Kinstry, close friend of the bridegroom.

The bride, the former Margaret Louise Estep, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William I. Humphries of Dunsmuir, chose for her wedding a pink silk dress worn with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

A reception followed the wedding after which the newlyweds left for a short honeymoon. They will reside in Sacramento where he is employed as maintenance foreman for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

FASHION TIP

If you're making your first trip to the tropics, one thing that definitely should not go into your suitcase is a pair of short shorts. They are not worn on the street in most tropical islands and brand yourself a tourist when you turn out in them. A tourist with bad taste, that is.
