Christian Church Scene Of Guyer-Carson Vows

The altar of the First Christian Church decorated with baskets of pastel colored flowers, was the setting for the June 6 candle-light ceremony when Bette Lou Carson exchanged wedding vows with Glenn W. Guyer. The Rev. James D. Rockwell of Weaver Memorial Pilgrim Holiness Church performed the nuptials in the presence of 180 guests at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Carson and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Guyer are the bridegroom's parents.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white lace and net over taffeta. The fitted bodice was fashioned with scalloped neckline and long sleeves pointed at the wrists. The full front skirt of lace was cut away to show the back panel of many tiers of net. A pearl trimmed crown held her fingertip veil and she carried a white orchid surrounded by white roses and tied with stephanotis streamers.

Mrs. Don M. Anderson, matron of honor for her sister, wore a ballerina length gown of blue lace over taffeta fashioned with round neck and short sleeves. She carried pink rosebuds tied with blue ribbon.

Mrs. Gerald Brown dressed in pink and Mrs. Russell Shearer in yellow were bridesmaids. Their dresses were identical to that of the maid of honor. They carried bouquets of yellow rosebuds tied with ribbon to match their dresses.

Becky Coats, niece of the bride, dressed in a light green dress, was the flower girl. Her brother, Dennis Coats, carried the rings. The dresses of the attendants were made by Mrs. Carson, mother of the bride.

Before the ceremony the candles were lighted by Chuck Coats, nephew of the bride, and Dean Guyer, brother of the bridegroom. Kenneth R. Barke was best man. Norman E. Guyer and Ray Switzer, brother and brother-in-law of the bridegroom, were ushers.

Mrs. Stanley Kendall was organist and also accompanied the three soloists, Stanley Kendall, Roberta Dougherty and Melvin Bundy.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Guests were greeted by Mrs. Carson who wore a two piece beige dress, brown and pink accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. Mrs. Guyer chose for the occasion a dress of dusty rose lace, matching and white accessories and a dark rose corsage.

The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Norman Guyer, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Mrs. Jack C. Hayes presided at the coffee service and Mrs. Richard Derby, sister of the bride, poured punch. At the gift table were Mrs. Ray Switzer and Mrs. Wayne Guyer, sister and sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

For the honeymoon trip along the Oregon coast and to Portland the new Mrs. Guyer chose a two piece sheath with white accessories. The couple is now residing in Klamath Falls. The bride, a graduate of Henley High School, is employed at the First National Bank. Her husband was graduated from Klamath Union High School and is with Weyerhaeuser Timber Company.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Chris Anderson, grandmother of the bridegroom, and Francis Anderson, aunt, from Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Guyer of Burns.

Among the pre-nuptial affairs honoring the bride-elect were several showers. Mrs. William Foote was a hostess at one and a second was given by Mrs. Russell Shearer and Mrs. Gerald V. Brown. A shower and dinner was given by Pilgrim Church with Mrs. Kenneth Young, Mrs. Kenneth Hearsh, Mrs. Jack C. Hayes and Mrs. Clarence Greenstreet acting as hostesses. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Guyer were hosts to the bridal party at the rehearsal dinner held at their home on Vine Street.

Sondra Langslet Bride In July 3 Home Ceremony

In a simple home ceremony at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chet Langslet on Lakeshore Drive, Sondra Marie Langslet became the bride of Ray Leo McBride, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo McBride. The Rev. Galen Onstad of Redding, formerly of this city performed the marriage service at 3 o'clock in the presence of the immediate families.

Chet Langslet gave his daughter in marriage before the fireplace banked with mock orange blossoms. Seven white lighted candles stood on the mantel.

The bride made a charming picture dressed in the wedding gown of her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Halvor Langslet of Detroit Lakes, Minnesota, who wore it at her wedding just 51 years ago. Sondra is the first of the third generation to wear the dress, her three aunts, daughters of Mrs. Halvor Langslet, having worn it at their weddings. The dress of fine lawn was fashioned with a bloused effect bodice trimmed in handmade lace. The full elbow length sleeves were banded and edged in lace which matched the lace of the square yoke which ended in a high collar neckline. The plain floor length skirt was finely tucked in sunburst effect from the waistline and around the bottom. The filmy veil fell from a fitted shirred cap. The bride carried a bouquet of mock orange blossoms and a lace handkerchief brought from Europe by her sister.

Jana Langslet came from Seattle to be maid of honor for her sister. She wore a light blue cotton lace sheath dress made with scoop neckline and trimmed with bands of satin, matching shoes and a head bow bandeau with feathers.

Richard Johnson was best man. Following the ceremony a wedding cake was served to guests by Mrs. Donald Jensen.

Mrs. McBride changed to a fawn colored sheath dress with small checked jacket and white accessories for the honeymoon trip to the Oregon Coast.

They will make their home at 1820 1/2 Worden Avenue in this city. Both young people are graduates of Klamath Union High School. The bride attended the University of Oregon where she was a member of Delta Zeta sorority.

Mrs. Minnie Gardner of Clayton, Oklahoma, was present for her grandson's wedding.

The bride-elect was honored prior to her wedding at a shower given by Mrs. Wesley Sine, Shirley McMichael and Dena Ross.

FAREWELL PARTY

On June 29 a farewell party was given for Lillian Hoffman by the 4-H Leaders' Association and county advisory committee of the Home Extension. Approximately 60 members and friends honored her before she left the first of July for Kentucky where she is to be a home economics teacher in a missionary school. She was presented a corsage from the 4-H leaders and a money tree from all her friends.

Only about one-half of the United States has been mapped topographically.
