Bomb Hoax Is Sole Attack

PARIS (UPI) — The nearest thing to an "attack" on NATO headquarters was a note that arrived about noon on Feb. 7, 1957, warning that three bombs would go off at 5 p.m.

Police searched through every office while the 400 employees kept right on working. Nothing happened.

French Communists were demonstrating at the time against the appointment of German Gen. Hans Speidel to command NATO ground forces in central Europe.

But police theorized that esthetics may have been involved. The temporary headquarters building is an eyesore that spoils the view across the Seine to the Eiffel tower.

(NATO will move into a new headquarters building within a year or so.)

GOURMETS DIAL

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — Stockholm homemakers dial "Miss Gas" for dinner recipes.

The municipal Gas Works provides the recorded messages. Thousands of persons are taking advantage of it.

Those wanting tips on what to serve for dinner dial a certain number. With the recipe, they get a casual mention about cooking with gas. The service takes into consideration the time of the year as well as current market prices.

It is intended primarily for nearly 60,000 married women employed in offices and factories.

BATHROOMS GET PRIORITY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Attractive, comfortable bathrooms rank high on the list of advantages desired by homeowners. Bathrooms also receive more attention from people planning to build or buy than any other room, except the kitchen.

ON THE SEVENTH DAY . . .

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — Convicts at Ohio Penitentiary here have been given a break — they can sleep as late as they want to on Sundays and holidays. The only catch is that they must keep their heads uncovered so that the guards counting the prisoners can be sure they are all there.
