K&F Announces Roster For The Coming Season

The Klamath Knife and Fork Club announced its schedule of speakers for the coming season today. Six men will offer one of the most varied and best seasons in club history, members believe.

A number of new memberships are available, club officials say. Additional information may be received by calling TU 4-8831.

The speakers are the Hon. Walter Judd, who will appear October 1; Bob Ringer, November 17; Toni Gauer, January 28; Baron

Hans de Meiss-Teuffen, February 29; Merryle Stanley Rukeyser, March 29, and Dr. John Furbay, whose speaking date is to be set.

Judd, a congressman from Minnesota, is a surgeon and an experienced lecturer. His topic will be, "Our Foreign Policy—Toward War or Peace?" Ringer is a humorist who believes people live longer if they laugh frequently. Topic of his talk will be "Operation Laugh."

Gauer is a yodeler, teacher, lecturer and a musician who plays 18 Swiss instruments. A Swiss, he is said to be the foremost authority on Switzerland in this country. He calls his talk, "An Adventure in Unique Entertainment." DeMeiss-Teuffen's talk, "Adventure in Old and New Africa," is taken from his experiences as a soldier of fortune in South and East Africa.

Rukeyser is a noted economic commentator in newspapers, radio and television. "What's Ahead for the USA," is the subject he will discuss. Furbay, an aviation officer who has been around the world more than 120 times, will attempt to bring diverse and confusing elements of the modern world into focus with his talk, "Wings Over the World."

WELLS-FARGO "HELD UP" WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (UPI)—J. T. Sprinkle locked the key inside his Wells Fargo armored truck. J. T. Fain Jr., manager of a City National Bank branch, burgled it out for him, with a piece of chewing gum on the end of a wire coat hanger, inserted through one of the truck's gun ports.

Guest conductor is Clarence Sawhill, director of bands at the University of California at Los Angeles and one of the nation's leading authorities in the field of band work. Camp founder and coordinator is Glenn T. Matthews, a member of the SOC Music Department staff since 1946.
