SOCIETY

By HELEN BECHEN

MR. AND MRS. REUEL A. BAR celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on June 20 in San Leandro. Both are members of Northern California pioneer families.

Two Celebrate Golden Wedding

ETNA — Celebrating an event which took place just 50 years ago in Northern California's famous pioneer city of Yreka, over 40 golden wedding guests were hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Reuel Bar on Saturday, June 20, at the home they share with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Young, and grandson, Randy, at 352 Warwick Avenue, San Leandro.

Among relatives and old-time friends attending were three guests who had been present at the Siskiyou nuptials. These were the bride's brother and best man,

Frank Peters, the bridegroom's youngest brother, Harold Bar, and a college friend, Bill Stephens.

The couple had lived in Etna prior to the wedding, after which they moved to the community of Callahan, where the bridegroom's father had presented them with a furnished home. Here, Reuel Bar managed the local branch of what is believed to be the first California retail chain store operation, of which his father was a co-founder. The bride's father had operated one of Northern California's early transportation companies until his death in a disastrous avalanche while guiding a pack-train on Salmon Mountain during a winter supply run from Etna to the isolated town of Sawyers Bar.

Co-hosting the open house and buffet supper affair were Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Young and Randy Young. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Bar, Georgia Bar, Marguerite Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Afton Anderson, Patsy and Jim Anderson, and Mrs. May Helen Harris from Oakland; The Rev. and Mrs. Mahlon Young, Mrs. Eileen Bassford McMains, Kenneth McMains, and Mrs. Florence Reynolds from Berkeley; Joe Eller, Yontville; Mrs. Amy Derham, Etna; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reiter, Santa Rosa; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Griffin, Burlingame; Mrs. Allison Paulsen, Castro Valley; Marjorie Eller, Pleasanton; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schielel, Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bar, Paso Robles; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hunt, Hayward; Mr. and Mrs. Landon Bar, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stephens, and Mr. and Mrs. Cy Weidner from San Francisco; Mrs. Nanette Bar Boragno, Palo Alto; Lewis Bar, Quincy, and Frank Peters, Mount Shasta City.

Moose Women Hold Meeting

The Klamath Falls Chapter No. 467, Women of the Moose, held its first meeting of the fiscal year July 7 at the Moose Home with Senior Regent Ruby Hawley presiding.

The chapter night program was under the direction of the College of Regents members with Hazel Pulley, chairman, W. K. Pederson of the Klamath Falls Gospel Mission gave a talk on activities and accomplishments of the mission work here.

Mrs. Pulley then called on the Academy of Friendship co-workers present to tell how and when they earned their Friendship and where they received the degree. The College of Regents were then asked to tell when they were senior regent of the chapter and when they received their college degree.

Mrs. Fetta Blankenship, sponsored by Ruby Bell, was enrolled as a new member in honor of the College of Regents.

Manzanita OES Installs Officers

The 11th installation of officers for Manzanita Chapter No. 172, OES, was held in the Scottish Rite Temple on June 28. The temple was beautifully decorated with flowers of blue and white, the incoming worthy matron's colors. In the East was a large basket of flowers with the theme of the year "Love and Harmony," which was presented from the Elwood Gueck family.

The installation was opened by the retiring Worthy Matron Gladys Chubb and Worthy Patron W. E. Anderson and their corps of officers. Morris Boughner, associate grand patron, Letha Murphy, chairman of the jurisprudence committee of the grand chapter of Oregon, Betty Halousek, worthy matron of Malin; Virginia Zumburn, worthy matron of Chiloquin; Phyllis Rutledge and Wilbur Harnsberger, worthy matron and worthy patron of Aloha chapter, were all introduced from the East.

Introduced and escorted to the East were installing Past Matron Evelyn Biehn, and installing Past Patron Marion Grant. The other installing officers were Lois Gueck, chaplain; Helen McCornack, marshal; and Georgianna Clark, musician, all past matrons and past patrons of Manzanita chapter.

The 1958 officers retired and during the short recess the Order of Rainbow for Girls drill team were given by Steven Skinner, Scott Skinner, Tommy Ongman, Neil Buchanan, Robby Sandmeyer and Eric Wakkuri.

After Nina Hall was installed as worthy matron Cora Enman sang "You'll Never Walk Alone" accompanied by Mrs. Glenn Chamberlin. William Steiner was then installed as worthy patron after which his two sons and daughter played the "Holy City." Other officers are Lorene McCollum, associate matron; Dale Howell, secretary; Esther Hodge, treasurer; Lois Murphy, conductress; Helen Rightmire, associate conductress; Aletha Howell, chaplain; Rowena Steiner, marshal; Arlene Chapman, organist; Edith Barleen, Adah; Gwynne Nelson, Ruth; Margaret Brooks, Esther; Dorothy Wicks, Martha; Mary Jane Sabo, Electa; Emogene McCarty, warder; and Elmer Vincent, sentinel. Courtesy Stars introduced were Lorene Grant, Letitia Dunn, Jane Barnes, Lucille Crawley, Annie Vinson, Lela Canine, Etta Saunders, Mary Anderson, Joyce Langphar and Geneva Black.

Kay Detroit, Mona Chenoweth and Beverly Clawson sang "My Best to You" to Nina Hall after which Lorene McCollum presented the new worthy matron with a new gavel from her officers. Dale up and use a dash of cologne.

MIDDAY REFRESHER

Try this as a midday refresher. On a hot day, dash tepid water in your face, put on new make-up and use a dash of cologne.
