

REVLON

"Pinkissimo" is Revlon's dazzling new way to say pink, pink, pink. Wear this new, new, new, newest color on lips and fingertips to start collecting bravisimos on your own.

A sun-filled vacation in Venice — a pink road to romance — that's Revlon's new pink with an Italian accent. Pinkissimo. The color was inspired by the prettiest pink palazzos along the Grand Canal; a color ripened by the Mediterranean sun. In a word, Pinkissimo.

It is a hot summer pink designed to bring out the international beauty in everyone. Bellissimo on brunettes; bravisimo on blondes, and radinate on redheads. It's the Pinkissimo of perfection.

that only the Revlon color chemists could create.

Let the singing strength of pure Pinkissimo reach a crescendo on your lips and fingertips, or choose the sotto voce softness of Pinkissimo in new opalescent Frosted Lipstick and matching Nail Enamel.

Make Pinkissimo your personal passport to summer fashion. It's the pink that is "heady, double strength of pink" — a pink you'll say is so becoming.

Try Pinkissimo as the final flourish to a wardrobe based on pink or orange. Use it as an accent summer tans and summer-tan dresses of white or beige. It makes good fashion sense to color-mate Pinkissimo with a chiffon scarf or same tone sandals or a wide wide belt of the same shade.

Peach Ice Cream

Ice cream is one dessert that pleases everyone. We abandoned long ago the idea that ice cream is only for hot summery weather, but there's no denying that it has special appeal when the thermometer soars. Here's a home-made "Branded Peach Ice Cream" that's elegant to eat. Canned cling peaches with a little lemon juice give delicious flavor, and a bit of brandy makes the luscious ice cream a special treat. If you like flecks of fruit through ice cream, crush the peaches rather coarsely. If you prefer a very smooth ice cream, force the peaches through a sieve or blend in your electric blender.

1 cup canned cling peach halves or slices

Tea Sandwiches

Mix butter and currant jelly together, with a little chopped fresh mint and lemon juice, and a hint of onion for zest, and you have the makings of a delicious, festive party sandwich. Use instant minced onion, to insure mild, true onion flavor with no sharp bite. Make rolled sandwiches with this filling, and tuck a tiny mint sprig in the end of each at serving time. Festive as a bridal party, easy, and no rare and costly ingredients required for "Mint Sandwich Rolls."

2 eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1 cup top milk
2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
Dash cloves
Few grains salt
2 teaspoons brandy
1/2 cup whipping cream

Drain peaches thoroughly and crush. Mix in lightly beaten eggs, sugar, milk, lemon juice, cloves, salt and brandy. Pour into refrigerator tray. Place in freezing compartment with control set at lowest temperature and freeze until firm. Remove to chilled bowl, and beat with rotary beater until smooth. Fold in stiffly beaten cream. Return to freezing compartment and freeze until firm. Reset temperature control to normal.

Mint Sandwich Rolls

1/2 cup soft butter
1 tablespoon instant minced onion
1/4 cup currant jelly
2 tablespoons finely chopped

SALAD TOUCH

fresh mint
1/4 teaspoon seasoned salt
2 teaspoons fresh lemon juice
12 slices fresh bread
Tiny mint sprigs

Combine all ingredients, except bread and mint sprigs, blending well. Trim crusts from bread; roll gently with rolling pin to flatten slightly. Spread bread with filling. Roll up like a jelly roll, hold in place with toothpick. Cover and chill. Tuck a tiny mint sprig in one end of each roll, before serving, if desired.

Pack a jar or foil packet of instant minced onion in the picnic hamper. It's handy to use to sprinkle over salads, tomatoes or picnic-grilled meats.
