

'Anti-trust Zealots' Third League Danger

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A "re-strictive" sports bill pushed by "anti-trust zealots" could kill hopes for a third major baseball league, according to Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.).

Keating said the same legislation could end chances for the establishment of one and perhaps two new clubs in the New York City area.

Keating made his statements almost simultaneously with an announcement by Commissioner Ford Frick that he has arranged an Aug. 18 meeting at which William Shea and backers of a proposed third major league will discuss their problems with a newly-formed big league committee on expansion.

The hearings will be conducted by an anti-trust subcommittee headed by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.). He and Keating have introduced rival sports bills.

Keating urged support for his measure, which, he said, represents a "middle-of-the-road approach." The measure, similar to one approved by the House at the last Congress, would exempt most aspects of professional team sports from anti-trust prosecution.

Keating said Kefauver's proposal would push "the long arm of Uncle Sam" into professional football, baseball, basketball and hockey. It would, he said, "completely upset the sound and reasonable free enterprise methods under which these sports have prospered."

The Kefauver bill would give professional team sports a limited exemption from anti-monopoly laws, but would restrict some of their activities.

It would, for example, provide that major league baseball clubs which now control as many as 400 athletes in their farm system could control no more than 80. It also would provide that no college player need be governed by the annual professional football draft unless he agree to do so in writing.

Keating urged lovers of football, baseball, basketball and hockey to "rally around the flag in their defense." Otherwise, he said, "the anti-trust zealots and those who would inject the federal government into the operations of free enterprise sports undertakings could rule the day."

K Kubs Divide Twinbill

The Klamath Kubs venture into the softball realm was only a semi-success Friday night as they romped to a convincing 8-2 victory over the Klamath Basinettes into to watch speed-baller Chuck Ruff pitch the Elbo-Benders to a 9-2 win in the second half of the twinbill at Gem.

The Kubs, KF's semi-pro baseball team, made the transition from hard to softball look easy as they pounded two Basinette hurlers, Joy Adreon and Karen Smith, for a total of 13 hits in the first game.

The win was credited to Kuba manager Irv Whitt who, aided by a pair of double plays and one triple execution, held the lady ballers to a miserly four hits.

Whitt contributed a grand slam homer and a double to his own cause and Bob Jones and Butch Kimpson each added three singles. Catcher Terry Wickline led the Basinettes with a pair of one base blows.

In the second game, brand new Kuba pitcher Dick Hoffer was charged with the loss as the powerful Benders walked him for 11 hits, including an inside-the-park homer and three singles by winning pitcher Ruff. Elbo shortstop Keith Senecal blasted a triple and three more singles in his turns at the plate.

The only two Kuba hits in the second test were garnered by Ed Vegley and newcomer Dick Jennings. Vegley beat out a bunt while Jennings rapped a sharp single.

Ruff powered the ball past 14 Kubs for strikeouts over the seven inning route.

A DISTAFF CHAMPION

ELMONT, N.Y. (AP)—Burglars entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis at Miami Springs, Florida, and stole the distaff handicap trophy won by their mare, Happy Princess, in 1958. Less than 24 hours later, the 7-year-old mare won another distaff cup, beating Mil. Dianne and Idun in a feature at Belmont Park.

DIAMOND CUP HOPEFUL — Dollar Bill, the big unlimited hydroplane photographed in Klamath Falls while on its route to Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, for the Diamond Cup races, proved somewhat of a problem for race officials Saturday. Her delay in qualifying posed difficulties in the scheduling of the Saturday portion of the two-day program.

'Hitless Wonders' Keep Lead; San Francisco Pads Margin

United Press International
Everyone calls them the "hitless wonders" and the first-place White Sox couldn't care less just so long as someone calls them in time for the World Series.

And the way they're going now it looks like they might get hit call even though they don't hit a hard enough to put a dent in a hub of butter.

White Sox 2, NY 0

Held hitless until the ninth inning by 23-year-old Ralph Terry Friday night, the White Sox put together two hits, a walk and a sacrifice for the only runs of the game in a 2-0 victory over the New York Yankees.

Veteran Early Wynn, who posted his 12th victory, matched Terry's no-hitter for five innings before the Yankee pitcher beat out an infield hit. Norm Siebern's ninth-inning single was the only other hit Wynn allowed.

The victory kept the White Sox one game in front of the second-place Indians, who outlasted the Red Sox, 8-7, Baltimore defeated Detroit, 3-2, and Kansas City whipped Washington, 7-4, in other American League games.

San Francisco stretched its National League lead to two games with a 4-1 victory over Pittsburgh while Philadelphia beat second-place Los Angeles, 3-2. St. Louis topped Milwaukee, 4-3, and Chicago blanked Cincinnati, 4-0.

Calhoun claimed that his first go with Tiger had made the Nigerian cautious and unwilling to try to press the fight. But Tiger was courageous enough to get in close repeatedly during the fight to score well with short jabs to both the head and body.

Calhoun picked up his points on defensive type body blows which he threw while backing away from Tiger's jabs.

Both fighters weighed 152 pounds, Tiger had entered the ring an 8-5 favorite.

In what they say is an unprecedented move since it involves a player's behavior, members of the Clay Court Championships Committee of U.S. Lawn Tennis, will meet at the suburban River Forest club Sunday morning.

They could recommend a reprimand or even go so far as to recommend suspension. The latter is unlikely, even though some officials of the club staging the National Clay Court meet would like to see such a severe disciplinary measure.

The recommendation in all likelihood will come before the USLTA at its meeting during the nationals at Forest Hills Sept. 4-13.

Olmedo's slipshod, listless performance when he lost to Abe Segal of South Africa in the quarter-finals 6-2, 6-2, 6-0 brought the tournament officials' ire down on him.

Olmedo spent most of Friday in his hotel room. He and several fellow players were to leave today by auto for Philadelphia to compete next week in the grass court tourney.

"I'm very sorry that everything happened," he said. "But I didn't feel too welcome there from the beginning because I was late in arriving from Europe. All this would not have been so big if it weren't me. I just don't think it would be nice to go back to the club to say anything. The officials were sore, too, because they lost the whole Davis Cup team." (all four competing Davis Cup players were defeated in singles play.)
