

FLAG RAISING opened festivities at the recent Commissioning Day at the Klamath Yacht Club. The affair was one of the most successful held with 31 boats of all kinds passing in revue. Approximately 80 members and guests attended the dinner which followed the water activities.

Johnson-Breunsbach Rites Read In Methodist Church

The First Methodist Church was the setting for the evening ceremony on June 26 when Patricia Ann Breunsbach exchanged wedding vows with George G. Johnson.

The Rev. McNeil performed the ceremony before the altar decorated with baskets of pink and white flowers and lighted tapers in tall candelabra.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan W. Breunsbach of Vancouver, Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Johnson of Glendale, Oregon, are parents of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a champagne beige ensemble of silk sheath dress and jacket with matching accessories. An accent of pink was added by bracelet and earrings and the pink and white bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Kenneth Van Druff, sister-in-law of the bride, matron of honor, wore a white lace sheath dress over blue taffeta, white accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white flowers.

Frederick I. Egger was best man, Rex Lee Breunsbach, brother of the bride from Vancouver, was usher.

Wedding music was played at the organ by Suzie Williams.

Mrs. Breunsbach chose a toast colored silk sheath dress and a corsage of tea roses for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Johnson wore a blue slipper satin jacket dress to which a corsage of deep red roses was pinned.

Immediately following the ceremony the newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the Pelican party room. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. F. I. Egger. Mrs. A. D. Burress, grandmother of the bride, presided at the coffee table and Mrs. Ray Taylor, aunt of the bridegroom, poured punch. Mrs. Carl Runge assisted with the gifts. Judy Purser was in charge of the guest book.

Following a wedding trip to Union Creek Resort the couple is at home in this city. The new Mrs. Johnson was graduated from Pacific University where she was a member of Theta Nu Alpha sorority. She is employed as a continuity writer at KLAD radio station. Her husband, a graduate of Oregon State College, is a contractor.

Out-of-town guests, included Mrs. K. B. Van Druff, Los Angeles; Mrs. Roy Taylor, San Diego; Mrs. A. D. Burress, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan W. Breunsbach and Rex Lee, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Johnson, Glendale.

Engagement Is Announced

The engagement of Susan Ann Ravizza to Homer L. Winslow has been announced recently. She is the daughter of Mrs. Harry A. Ravizza and the late Harry Ravizza.

They are former residents of Chiloquin now residing in Portland.

The bride-elect, a senior nursing student at the University of Oregon Medical School, was a member of Alpha Chi Omega at the University of Oregon.

Her fiancé, son of Mrs. Guy Winslow and the late Guy Winslow of Portland, is a senior medical student at the University of Oregon Medical School and was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon on the Eugene campus.

A late December wedding is planned.

Susan is a granddaughter of Mrs. Leslie Rogers of Klamath Falls.

Betrothal Made Known

LAKEVIEW—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fitzgerald of Lakeview have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Lou, to Ade Verle N. McClure of McClure, Virginia.

He is the son of Mrs. Thelma McClure of that city.

The bride-to-be was graduated with the class of 1958 from Lakeview High School and is now majoring in secretarial technology at Oregon Technical Institute, Klamath Falls. Her fiancé is stationed at Kingsley Field and has completed two years in the Air Force.

A wedding date has not been set.

A CHART of the marina of the Yacht Club with berths of boats and their owners placed in scale, drawn by Dale Stites, left, was presented by him to Commodore Ray Byrnes, right, Harbor master for the day was Arthur Stites.

FRATERNITY LODGE

BONANZA — Fraternity Rebekah Lodge of Bonanza met in regular session on Monday night with Marcene Holt, noble grand, in the chair.

Convention chairman, Esther Fernlund, reported that plans are being completed for the district Rebekah convention which is to be held in Bonanza on Thursday, August 27. The convention will convene at 1 p.m. preceded by lunch at 11:45 a.m. The banquet will be at 6 p.m. and at 8 p.m. there will be a joint meeting of all Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges of the district. Odd Fellow grand master and Rebekah Assembly president will be present.

Marcene Holt, Ethel Crawford and Esther Fernlund form a committee to complete plans for the banquet. Gertrude Dick will see about the printing of the program. Isabelle Heseltine and Helen Derry will be in charge of registration. The following committee chairmen were appointed: community service and good of the order, Esther Fernlund; publicity and fraternal press, Gertrude Dick; historian, Helen Derry.

The white elephant was won by Eva Roberts. The money from this fund is used by the Rebekah Assembly president for the Odd Fellow-Rebekah Home in Portland. This year new laundry equipment will be purchased.

Sarah Ross, a member of the lodge now living in Hermiston, was welcomed by the regular members.

Hostesses for the social evening were Esther Fernlund and Gertrude Dick.

DESSERT BRIDGE

LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs. LeLand Harris gave a dessert bridge party at her home on July 8 with four tables in play. High prize for the afternoon went to Mrs. Harry Frazier, second high to Mrs. Cecil Haley, low to Mrs. Mae Gale, and Mrs. Merrill Stewart won the traveling prize. Others enjoying the party and refreshments were Mrs. Virgil Boomer, Mrs. Ted Alberts, Mrs. Lloyd Gift, Mrs. Owen Pepple, Mrs. Doug Smelcer, Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mrs. Mable Maxwell, Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mrs. Ted Rowcliffe, Mrs. Jesse McFall, Mrs. Harold Williams, Mrs. Lester Leavitt and Wilma Alberts.

COMMODORE RAY BYRNES is shown with the leather ship's log presented to him at Commissioning Day ceremonies of the Klamath Yacht Club. The log book will be passed on each year to the new commodore. Mrs. Byrnes received a bouquet of chrysanthemums from club members. — All Yacht Club photos by Dr. Hugh Currin

Shower Honors Tulake Bride

TULELAKE — Mrs. Kenneth Steyskal was honored with a bridal shower at the Tulake Community Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening, July 8. Approximately 50 friends were present.

A color scheme of pink and white was used in the decor and pink umbrellas of the Tulake Order of Rainbow were used on the gift table.

Sally Abney entertained with two vocals accompanying herself on the guitar.

Mrs. Charles Steyskal, mother of the bridegroom, was at the coffee service. Mrs. Melba Walker, mother of the bride, poured the punch. Mrs. Agnes Steyskal, aunt of the bridegroom served the white cake trimmed with gold and topped with two doves.

Hostesses were Margaret Alcorn, Margie Prince, Sally Abney and Barbara, Pearl Havlina and Betty, Sharon Carroll, Jackie Wakefield, Fern Young, Jackie Young, Verda Doshier, Dora Meyers, Sylvia Stevens, Ova Manning, Rose Bailey, Lee Nelson and Evelyn King.

COOL AND NOURISHING

Real cool, and real nourishing, for small fry (grownups, too): a midafternoon glass of milk, mixed with mashed banana and a dash of favorite flavor.

Bride-Elect Honor Guest

YREKA — Wedding bells and flowers decorated the home of Mrs. Nellie Windsor when she was hostess for a surprise bridal shower given in honor of Donna Desoza of Grenada, bride-elect of Daniel Lee Soares of Gridley. Assisting Mrs. Windsor with hostess duties were Myrna Cummins and Sandy Hanlon.

Appropriate games for the occasion provided the evening's entertainment with prizes being won by Ila Soares of Gridley, and Anita Gossner of Grenada.

After the honoree opened her many lovely gifts, refreshments were served, concluding the evening's activities.

Present, in addition to those mentioned, were Evelyn and Janice Desoza, Charlotte Houdeshell, Jean Plunkett and Freida Arnold, all of Grenada; Maxine Culp, Joan Caster, Sandy Wilburn and Vina Desoza, all of Yreka. Also present was Mrs. Okie Boswell and daughter, Trudy, from Penolosa, Kansas, and Mrs. Ruby Desoza, mother of the honoree.

Unable to be present, but sending gifts were Mrs. Helen Sherman, Mrs. Martha Ling, Mrs. Marion Hanlon and Hilda Johnson, all of Yreka; Ethel Kernohan of Montague and Mary Lee Rutledge of Hornbrook.

BRIDGE CLUB

BONANZA — Mrs. Owen Pepple entertained her bridge club at her home on July 1. Mrs. Harold Williams won high for the afternoon and Mrs. Mabel Maxwell won the traveling prize. Others enjoying the party were Mrs. Merrill Stewart, Mrs. Christine McCormick, Mrs. Jesse McFall, Mrs. Bill Bechold, Mrs. Cecil Haley and George Sealoff, a visitor from Seattle.

Michael's - Stern
SUITS FOR MEN

Year-round weights
69.50
Summer Weights

Shorts
Others
From 39.50

Regulars
RUDY'S
6th and Main

Longs

FALL 1959 . . . from LaPointe's collection of fashionable costumes to make you look well dressed and elegant wherever you go.

Black wool with Satin, $59.95; blue, brown or green wool blend with print, $69.95; grey, green or brown wool with a view of jersey, $59.95.

LaPointe's
IT'S A WONDERFUL STORY