Prosperity Lodge Seats Officers

MALIN—Prosperity Chapter No. 150, Order of the Eastern Star, held its 28th public installation on Saturday evening, June 21, at the Malin Masonic Hall with Betty Halousek and Richard Halousek being installed as worthy matron and patron.

Installing officers were Gladys Halousek, worthy matron; Joe Halousek, worthy patron; Edna Hunnicutt, marshal; Agnes Schreiner, chaplain; and Estrid Geraghty, organist. The theme for the installation ceremonies was "Garden of Friendship - Gateway to the East."

Honored guests introduced were Letha Murphy, member of the Jurisprudence Committee of the Grand Chapter; Martha Powell, grand representative to West Virginia from Oregon; Edna Hunnicutt, grand representative to Washington from Oregon; Cordelia and Layton Hoback, worthy matron and patron of Cascade Crest Chapter; Gwen Pierson, worthy matron of Aloha Chapter; Arny Anderson, worthy patron of Manzanita Chapter; Dale Howell, master of the Crater Lake Masonic lodge; and Francis Kalina, mother adviser of the Malin Assembly of Rainbow Girls.

On the evening's program were Mrs. Wayne Rick and Mrs. Ed McAuliffe who sang two vocal duets accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Art Evans. Karen Rajnus played a piano solo. An addenda was presented by all officers honoring the new worthy matron and patron.

Host and hostesses for the evening were Vac Kalina, Hazel Kalina and Marian Wilson. At the guest book was Kristi Ottoman.

Congratulations were given to the outgoing worthy matron and patron, Madeline Dupuy and Homer Dupuy Jr., by the new Worthy Matron Betty Halousek and Worthy Patron Dick Halousek. Refreshments were served following the ceremonies and pouring coffee was Mrs. Jerry Rajnus and at the punch bowl was Mrs. Byron Johnson.

Other officers installed for 1959-60 were Frances Kalina, associate worthy matron; Louis Kalina, associate worthy patron; Anne Fruits, secretary; Leah Street, treasurer; Barbara Victorin, conductress; Helen Ottoman, associate conductress; Patricia Ottoman, chaplain; Madeline Dupuy, marshal; Gladys Halousek, organist; Marie Hale, Adah; Ruth Unruh, Ruth; Helen Derry, Esther; Mildred Dobry, Martha; Kathleen Brickner, Electa; Althea Zelders, warder; and Cecil Jackson, sentinel.

HALF SLIPS ARE COOL

You'll feel cooler and therefore look cooler if you replace your full-length slips with half slips in summer weather. Have them in dark colors as well as white.

Officials Visit OES District 2

WEED—The 98th official visit throughout the state this year was made June 27 by Mrs. Annie Picknell Mills, worthy grand matron and Henry Lee Wintz, worthy grand patron of the Grand Chapter, State of California, Order of the Eastern Star, to District No. 2 of the order.

The visit with the seven chapters in Siskiyou County participating was held at McCloud with approximately 400 members attending. Eight area associations of the order were represented by visiting deputy grand matrons, worthy patrons and worthy patrons.

Visiting grand officers escorted, and introduced by the worthy grand matron, included the associate grand matron, Mrs. Mary E. Balden; associate grand patron, James L. Millard; grand conductress, Mrs. Everina Rhein; associate grand conductress, Mrs. Helen O. Isberg; grand marshal, Mrs. Carol M. Jensen; grand organist, Mrs. Marguerite Johnson; grand sentinel, Ernest Walters; grand Adah, Mrs. Alice M. Lutz; grand Ruth, Mrs. Juanita I. Hawkins; grand Esther, Mrs. Vivian Dalton; grand Marjha, Mrs. Alice Runyan; deputy grand matrons, Mrs. Elsie A. Semas, district 16, Georgetown; Mrs. Margaret Maker, district 1, Ferndale; Mrs. Eugenia Kennedy, district 6, Redding; Mrs. Laeta Fortney, district 11, Biggs.

The seven chapters of district No. 2 were invited into the chapter room by Deputy Grand Matron Mrs. Lucille L. Gaynor, Weed.

A special guest of honor escorted and introduced was Phil N. Myers, the most worshipful grand master of Masons in California and a member of McCloud Chapter OES. This was the first time in the history of the order that the three ranking officers were in attendance at an official OES visit of grand officers.

"As You Look in the Heart of a Rose" was sung by Mrs. Hazel Hickey, soloist for the presentation to the worthy grand matron from the district. A presentation by the seven worthy matrons of the district was also made to the worthy grand matron. The seven worthy patrons made the presentation to the worthy grand patron.

Wilma Parker, Yreka, was soloist for the program selections, "I Love You California," "This is My Country," and "Peace." Mrs. Willie Adams, Weed, was organist for the entire evening ceremonies.

Appointed buffet tables were arranged in the banquet room for light luncheon refreshments following the ceremonies. Additional Masonic guests were invited to attend the refreshment and social hour.

A breakfast for the contingent of grand officers and visiting and local members was held Sunday morning, June 28, at the ski bowl lodge with approximately 170 attending.

The worthy matrons and worthy patrons of the district were hosts and hostesses for a picnic for the grand family and visiting presiding officers and their families, held at the Mount Shasta City Park Sunday afternoon.
