

Weather Bureau Not Convinced Of Rainstorm

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Did it rain or did it not in Charles Coval's backyard?

If it did, the missile engineer can lay claim to witnessing one of the finest rainstorms on record Sunday. At 6 a.m., and continuing through most of the day, rain—or reasonable facsimile—came down in a 20-foot square area on Coval's property.

"I know it sounds screwy," said Coval. "but I can't find the source anywhere else. It's got to be rain."

The San Diego Union sent a reporter out. He came back convinced it was rain although there wasn't a cloud in the sky.

Impossible, said the Weather Bureau.

TOO MUCH PRAISE

WATERLOO, Ont. (AP)—Church members praise their pastors abundantly, but seldom give them the kind of constructive criticism they need, the Rev. Dr. Gerard E. Lenski, a Washington, D. C., theologian, told a meeting of clergymen here.

"The old ladies in the congregation," he said, "are the worst offenders."

The only Gaelic college in the Western Hemisphere is in St. Ann's, Nova Scotia.

Civil Rights Proponents Look To Group For Tipoff

WASHINGTON (AP)—Proponents of civil rights legislation looked to a Senate Judiciary Committee meeting today for a tip-off on the strategy of Southern opponents.

The closed meeting is the first scheduled since a subcommittee approved an abbreviated two-point bill by a 4-3 vote last Wednesday.

The move to take the measure up for consideration will test how much resistance Chairman James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) and other Southern Democrats on the committee are going to offer to any kind of civil rights measure.

Two years ago the committee proved to be a graveyard for all such legislation. Congress succeeded in passing a bill only after the Senate voted to bypass the committee and act directly on a House-passed measure. Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) has said he expects the committee to approve a bill this year.

The track was cleared for today's committee meeting when Johnson obtained agreement last week not to have a session of the committee until after the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois also has urged action, but he said recently that any civil rights bill probably can be talked to death in the Judiciary Committee by Southern opponents. He offered to join any move initiated by Johnson to short-circuit the committee, as was done in 1957, and take up for Senate hearing any civil rights bill the House passes.

The House Judiciary Committee

hasn't approved a bill so far this year itself, but Chairman Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.) has predicted action this week. He said that, if necessary, meetings will be held every day beginning Tuesday.

SPIRIT FOR AIR FORCE

WASHINGTON (AP)—A series of "Spiritual Life Conferences" are being held this summer for Protestant personnel of the Air Force and their families at various major air bases. Maj. Gen. Terence P. Finnegan, chief of Air Force chaplains, has said the theme of the sessions is: "Spiritual Adequacy in a Scientific Age."
