LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—Dr. Bernard R. Finch, arrested in the $150 a month Las Vegas apartment of his former nurse, will be returned to the Los Angeles area today to face questioning in the slaying of his attractive wife.

Finch, 43, part owner of a West Covina, Calif., medical center, signed a waiver of extradition Sunday night but refused to make a statement to sheriff's deputies about the gunshot killing of his wife, Barbara, 33.

She was shot outside their $80,000 home in West Covina, a Los Angeles suburb, about midnight Saturday.

The family maid said she saw Finch chase his wife out of the garage with a gun and then heard a shot.

Finch's nurse friend said she was there shortly before but left when Mrs. Finch pulled a gun.

Finch was arrested Sunday in the plush apartment of Carol Pappas, 22, his former nurse who for the past month has been working here as a cocktail waitress. She said he had been helping her pay for the apartment.

The doctor told deputies at first that he had been here since Friday, but when Mrs. Pappas, a divorcee, revealed she drove him to West Covina Saturday he refused to answer further questions without advice from his attorney.

He was booked on suspicion of murder. Mrs. Pappas was not booked but she was expected to return voluntarily as a material witness with West Covina detectives here to take Finch in custody.

Mrs. Pappas said Finch arrived here by plane Friday but that they returned to West Covina Saturday to ask Mrs. Finch for a divorce. They waited outside the house until Mrs. Finch returned from the Los Angeles Tennis Club, where she and Finch were members.

Finch and his wife, who previously was married to the man who now is the husband of Finch's first wife, began arguing and she pulled a gun, said Mrs. Pappas. The waitress said she became frightened and fled.

She said she heard "what could have been" two shots as she ran. She hid near the house for six hours while police investigated and then returned by herself to her apartment here.

She found Finch lying on the sofa when she arrived, she said. But attempts to make him tell what happened or how he returned met with silence.

Marie Anne Lidholm, 19, an exchange student from Göteborg, Sweden, who worked as a maid at the Finch home, told this story: "Patty Daugherty (11, Mrs. Finch's daughter by a previous marriage) was going to bed, Raymond Finch (6, the doctor's and Mrs. Finch's son) already was in bed.

"I heard Mrs. Finch scream after I heard the car. I threw a robe on and called for Patty to come, but then I told her to go back as I ran out to the garage.

"It was dark in the garage so I turned on the light. I saw Mrs. Finch lying on the floor on the right side of the car. Dr. Finch came rushing toward me. He brushed me aside and turned off the light.

"Then he took my head and knocked me against the wall, two or three times. A dent in the plaster wall was caused by her head. I fell down. I must have passed out for a few seconds.

"When I came to he was still on the floor and he was standing beside me. He took a shot at me and then told me to get into the car. I begged him not to kill me.

"I got into the back seat like he said, and then he told her to get into the car. He then came to the driver's side and told his wife, 'get the keys or I'll kill you, and I mean it.'

"Somehow, I don't know how, she ran out and he took after her. I came back into the house and then I heard a shot. That's when I called police."

School Rites Set For Fall

WEED—Dedication of the "College of the Siskiyou" will climax the grand parade and highlight the second day of the Weed Carnival celebration slated for September 5-6.

The annual celebration sponsored by the Weed Chamber of Commerce will begin with a Kiddie Parade Saturday, September 5, at 2 p.m. on Main Street.

Coronation of the carnival queen will highlight the ball set for Saturday night, with music by the Cascadians of Yreka. Three Weed girls, Bonnie Ganim, Lois Williams and Julie Baraglia are vying for queen honors.

The grand parade will begin at 1 p.m. Sunday, September 6, at the Weed Hotel and will terminate at the junior college site in the south highway section. Following the dedication, a genuine outdoor barbecue will be served to the public.

Mrs. Rena Santini is general chairman of the celebration. She named committee chairmen at the Weed Chamber of Commerce meeting Tuesday noon at the Y-Cafe.

Committeemen to coordinate the plans are Joe Belcastro and David L. Dawson, kiddie parade; Irvin Anderson and Warren Middleton, coronation ball; queen contest, Mrs. Santini; queen float and coronation decoration, Mrs. Cec Strothers and Willie Adams; Mrs. Zoe Rossetto and Mrs. Mary Marshall, ad solicitation for programs; Cy Rippon and Mrs. Lucile Gaynor, publicity.

Harold Campbell and James Mallory, barbecue; Chet Marshall, Aaron Thomas and Lou Sbarbaro, barbecue chefs; Mrs. Mary Mazzei, advance sale of barbecue tickets; Rita Renning, program entertainment at dedication; pictures, Shasta View Studio, Dysart Scribner; and celebration decorations, David Sbarbaro, Chet Marshall, James Mallory, Tony Deas, Henry Dorrell, Aldo Pillon, Sam Ganim, Fielding Russ, Frank Groppi and James Fruzza.

At least five deaths were attributed to traffic accidents in San Joaquin Valley this weekend.

Robert Sanchez, 17, Visalia, was killed early Sunday when he apparently fell asleep and his car rolled over, hitting a tree on Mineral King Highway four miles west of Visalia.

John Elmer King, 41, Long Beach, was killed Saturday when his car was struck in the rear by a vehicle driven by Odell Nelson, 29, Los Angeles.

Don Hardy, 53, Dos Palos, motorist was killed Saturday when his car collided with another at an intersection near Dos Palos.

A man tentatively identified as Juan Ramirez was killed one mile south of Huron Saturday in a collision.

Esteban Valdez Rivera, 35, of the Delano area, was killed Saturday when struck by two cars as he was walking across the U.S. 99 Freeway in Delano. He was sideswiped by a vehicle driven by Robert Coleman, 21, Oakland, and knocked into one driven by Ellis-worth James Hurley, 50, Los Angeles.
