Farewell Tea Honors Mrs. Gene Hammond

MERRILL — A farewell tea reception honoring Mrs. Gene (Mary) Hammond was held recently at St. Augustine's parish hall. Mrs. Hammond, who has resided at the family home in Merrill for the past 53 years, recently purchased a home in Yreka where she is now living. Her only son, William and family, reside in near-by Grenada.

Invitations were extended to approximately 50 longtime friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Hammond wore a white orchid corsage, a gift from Mrs. Mamie Giacomini, a lifelong friend and neighbor. The guest of honor was also presented a money tree. The refreshment table, covered by a gray lace tablecloth, was centered by an arrangement of pink and lavender carnations and spider chrysanthemums flanked on either side by crystal candleholders holding tall, white tapers.

It was Benjamin Franklin who said: "If you would know the value of money, go try to borrow some."

Etna Rebekahs

ETNA — Irene Weston, vice president, presided at the regular meeting of Aureola Rebekah Lodge No. 113 July 9 when Juanita Evans, district deputy president of District No. 29 and of Ora Rebekah Lodge No. 40 in Fort Jones made her official visit. The district deputy president was introduced by Aureola Rebekah Lodge conductor, Virginia Roberts.

Other visitors present were Atlanta Adams of Atlanta Rebekah Lodge No. 373, Weed, and Grace Mason, vice grand of Ora Rebekah Lodge No. 40, Fort Jones.

A letter was read regarding a barbecue dinner sponsored by Yreka Lodge No. 19 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows on July 25 at the Pythian Caves.

A monetary gift was presented the visitor by a committee comprised of Augusta Rotan, Doris Jackson, Mary Franklin, Virginia Roberts, May Aker, Leatha Palmer, Minnie Solari and Claire M.

Potter, Audrey Wolford was musician. The committee in charge of the next lodge meeting will be May Aker, Doris Young, Audrey Wolford and Laura Grossen. Refreshments were served in the banquet hall by Augusta Rotan, Irene Weston, Frances Smith and Ada Jordan.

ATTENDS WORKSHOP
Mrs. Kathryn Edwards, a Mallin teacher, was among those attending a workshop on the Bishop Method of clothing construction held July 13-17 at Texas Woman's University.

Mrs. Etna Bryte Bishop, originator of the nationally known method of rapid clothing construction, taught the workshop with assistance from faculty members of the TWU college of household arts and sciences. The 150 women assembled for the workshop made it one of the largest of its kind in the nation.
