Local Pastor Attends Meet

A Klamath Falls minister, the Rev. M. A. McKinnin of the Congregational Church, is attending, by scholarship, the session of the Western Pastors' School of the United Church of Christ on the former Taylor Estate at La Forest, Colorado.

He joins 52 other pastors from 20 states, including Hawaii, for one month, during which time they will study in the fields of theology, Bible, worship, religious education, homiletics and pastoral theology.

The 26 members of the faculty represent three seminaries: Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley; Eden Seminary, Webster Groves, Missouri; and the Andover Newton Theological School, Newton Center, Massachusetts.

Besides the lectures, reading, worship, recreation and fellowship periods, time is taken once a week to visit off-campus sites of interest, including Colorado Springs, the Garden of the Gods, the Air Force Academy, Will Rogers Memorial and Pikes Peak. The school concludes with a votive candle service on August 2, a banquet August 3 and final communion August 4.

At this time a similar school is in session at Deering Community Center, Hillsboro, New Hampshire. Over the years more than 1,500 men have taken part in these two organizations.

Garbage Men Back On Job

NORWICK, Conn. (AP) — The city's garbage men and street cleaners are back at work after a three-week strike.

While they were gone, the streets filled with debris—a lot of it left over from the city's 300th birthday celebration. And residents had to haul their own garbage to the city dump.

Because the residents didn't plow the garbage under, the dump was classified a public health menace last week. Supervisory employees cleaned it up.

The workers are members of the United Mine Workers union. Seventy-eight municipal employees were involved.

They ended the strike Thursday when they voted to accept a 7-cent hourly pay rise offered by the city. They had asked a 15-cent across-the-board increase.
