

JUDY JENSEN has been a frequent visitor in Klamath Falls and this summer has been the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Shaw of 805 Pacific Terrace since June. During the past weeks she has helped part time in her uncle's lumber company office and has been a popular member of the younger set's summer fun activities. Several informal affairs have been planned for her before she leaves on July 28. She will visit relatives in Oregon and Washington en route to Glasgow, Montana, where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Harold Jensen, reside. — Photo by Ellis

MRS. E. W. SCHWEITER of the Tulalake Garden Club, left, and Mrs. Will Blackman of the Mt. Laki Garden Club, discuss plans for the Centennial Flower Show. They are pictured in the garden at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Seely on Bryant Avenue. Mrs. Schweiter is chairman of the staging committee and Mrs. Blackman heads the schedule committee. Keen interest is being shown by individuals and groups who are planning displays to make the show an outstanding event. — Photo by Ellis

LARGE TREES offered welcome cool shade to the party guests in the well groomed Hooper garden. Pictured is a part of the crowd which enjoyed good conversation and tasty tidbits from the buffet table set in the backyard. Incidental organ music was played during the afternoon by Mrs. Rudy Paygr of Malin. — Photo by Ellis

SOCIETY

By
HELEN BECHEN

RECENT VISITORS at the R. Frank Tucker home were Maj. Oscar D. Whitten and his family. In 1955 Maj. Whitten came as the first Air Force officer to Kingsley Field from Clark AFB, Philippines, where he was installation engineer for three years. He served in the same capacity at Kingsley Field until July 1957 when he left to attend command and staff school at Maxwell AFB in Alabama. He is presently chief of the program control division for the Air Force regional civil engineers, Southwest region, stationed at Dallas, Texas. The family is pictured at the patio table, in front from the left, Michael, 13, Cheryl, 8, and Patricia, 10. In back, Major and Mrs. Whitten and Dennis, 15. — Photo by Ellis

MRS. SCOTT McKENDREE, a director of the Klamath District Garden Clubs, is in charge of the special events for the Centennial Flower Show to be held August 1 and 2. Theme of the show is "The Heritage of a Century" and arrangements will be shown under such headings as "Along the Applegate Trail" and "The Family Album." In keeping with the Centennial theme there will also be displays of historical value and Indian artifacts. — Photo by Ellis

A NEW HOME in Hillsboro has just been established by the Wesley Guderian family who has resided in this city for many years. Mr. and Mrs. Guderian are pictured with their daughters, Stephanie, 12, at left, and 4-year-old Robin Lynn as they stopped in Klamath Falls this week on their way to Los Angeles. As portrait councilman for Oregon, he will attend the Professional Photographers of America annual convention in the California city this week. — Photo by Ellis

Herald & News
Klamath Falls,
Oregon
July 26, 1959

HOSTS AND HOSTESSES for a large garden cocktail party on July 19 were, left to right, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stonecypher Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hooper. The delightful affair was held at the Hooper home just south of Tulalake.