Litter-ally Speaking

One of our cat's too-frequent pet tricks Is self-administered obstetrics.

—Herbert Warfel

If money doesn't grow on trees, how come so many people go out on a limb for it?

—Frank G. McInnis

Two bachelors were discussing how to live alone and like it.
"Take cooking," said one. "A long time ago I bought a cookbook but never used it. Too much of that fancy woman's stuff in it."

"What do you mean?" the other asked.

"Why, every one of the recipes began, 'Take a clean dish,' and that stopped me every time."

Battered Baseball

Walk.....What you would have done, if you'd known how far away you'd have to park your car.

Foul Tip.....Information you got that led you to bet on the losing team.

Hot Corner.....Your seat on the warmest day of the season.

Pop Up.....What the guy in front of you does every time the ball is pitched.

Team Work.....Passing hot dogs, payment, and change back and forth between vendor and guy at the end of the row.

Sacrifice.....Going to work during World Series.

Short Stop.....Pause for refreshment taken by you and the boys between park and home.

Armchair Cruise

It's a certain sign
You're growing older
When you'll settle for The travel folder!

—Stephen Schlitzer

A bird in the pet shop astonished a shopper with his beautiful singing.
"How much is that warbler?" the customer asked.

"Five hundred dollars," said the shop owner.

The customer was aghast at the price, but the wonderful singing won him over. He signed a check, and the owner handed him two cages—the second occupied by a scrawny bird with wild feathers. "What's this second bird for?" the customer wanted to know.

"You'll need him," the owner explained. "He's the arranger."

Campers Courageous

Brave were the kids who gathered
For a week end in the wild; Brave were the mothers who saw them off And, despite misgivings, smiled.
Brave were the brothers and sisters Who stayed behind in the hive;
But bravest of all were the neighborhood dads Who glumly consented to drive.

—Bob Besch

"How'll I get you home?"

Announce Way To Help Drain All 8 Sinus Cavities Without Discomfort

Now decongestant tablet for sinus congestion sufferers acts both to drain clogged sinus cavities and relieve distressing head pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) Announcement has been made of a new tablet development which has the remarkable ability to help drain clogged sinus cavities and thus relieve congestion and pressure. The headaches, pressure pains, stuffed-up head, nasal drip, clogged breathing—all the unrelenting symptoms the sinus sufferer knows so well—are attacked directly by improving drainage of the sinus areas.

Most remarkable of all is the fact that this is accomplished with extraordinary speed and without discomfort of any kind.
This new tablet does its remarkable work internally, through the blood stream. It deposits into every drop of blood plasma a new medication which is carried to the sinus area, where it shrinks the swollen doors to the sinus cavities and helps drain away the pain-causing pressure and congestion.

The shrinking substance in this new tablet has been so successful typically in promoting drainage of the sinus cavities that it is now prescribed more widely by doctors than any material for this purpose. This new medication is now available at drug counters without the need for a prescription under the name, Dristan® Decongestant Tablets. Dristan Tablets cost only 98¢ for a bottle of 24 tablets. Buy and use Dristan Tablets with the absolute guarantee that they will drain away pain-causing pressure and congestion of the sinus cavities, relieve the pain and distress, or purchase price will be refunded.
