

College President Hits Luxury Spending Which Cuts Into Education Idea

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—A woman president of a college today charged families with spending for the luxuries of a new car or television set and shorting the kids on the luxury of a good education.

Millicent Carey McIntosh, the outspoken president of Barnard College for Women, spoke out for an "educational revolution" which would change U.S. spending habits on schooling.

She said that indirectly it is the teacher, settling for a low salary, who is paying for the luxuries of the families she serves.

"Nearly every independent day school and many independent colleges are afraid to raise tuition to meet what education should cost for fear of pricing themselves out of the market," she said. "But the parents (whose children are) in these same schools and colleges are willing to pay more than twice what they did in 1939 for automobiles, electrical appliances and other 'requirements' to maintain their high standard of living."

"They will borrow money to buy a house or a car, but are horrified if it is suggested that they take out a loan for a college education."

Mrs. McIntosh's stand is spelled out in a signed article in Barnard's current alumnae magazine.

She said what is needed is "an educational revolution... not in the curriculum of our schools, although clearly much needs to be changed (and is being changed)... but in our attitudes toward education which at best are... unrealistic."

The president said that at a time when our younger generation is increasing by leaps and bounds, the nation is and will continue to be faced "with a major shortage" at all teaching levels.

"Most Americans will agree that the situation is deplorable," she wrote, "but they go on hoping that somehow the teachers will appear... and that their children will be delivered what is assumed to be their natural birthright: A first-rate education at low cost."

One solution is the increased tuition, she said. But she suggested that "long range financing" is up to the parents.

The "ideal" she said would be to take out college insurance at the birth of a child, to start a special savings account to cover education cost, or to make "long term loans" either for parents or students.

She cited this statistic to show the cost of education is small when considered in terms of return on investment. One recent study showed the "Current college graduate may look forward to a life-time income of about $750,000. A figure which makes a four-year loan of $4,000 seem small indeed."

Train Wreck Blocks Line

RIPON (UPI)—The main Southern Pacific valley line was blocked several hours Sunday after 14 refrigerator cars loaded with watermelons derailed and jack-knifed near here.

A burned-out axle caused the derailment of the 58-car train, en route from Fresno to Rosedale. The San Joaquin Daylight passenger train between Los Angeles and Oakland was rerouted and delayed four hours because of the accident.

The cars jumped the tracks alongside Highway 99 and debris had to be removed from the highway. Some fruit spilled from the cars and was taken by motorists, officials said.

ALAMEDA (UPI)—The super-carrier U.S.S. Ranger, mightiest warship in the Pacific Fleet, was scheduled to arrive at Alameda Naval Air Station this afternoon, following a seven-month tour in the Western Pacific.

The 76,000-ton carrier, skippered by three-time Navy Cross winner Capt. Noel Gayler, will enter the San Francisco Naval Shipyard in early August for post-cruise repairs.

Tot Object Of Search

VISALIA (UPI)—A lightly clad Fresno tot was the object of a ground and air search today in the Big Meadow area of Sequoia National Forest northeast of here.

Lyle Morse, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Morse, was reported missing at 3 p.m. Sunday while on a camping trip with his parents. The child's young brother and sister said he disappeared while they were playing with him.

The tot was wearing only a T-shirt, shorts and sandals. Joining in the search were campers in the area, sheriff's and Division of Forestry personnel, a four-man posse from Goshen, and bloodhounds under the supervision of Ross Cone of Los Gatos. Civil Air Patrol aircraft were to fly search missions over the area starting at daybreak.

Three Saved In Boat Accident

GOLD BEACH, Ore. (AP)—The Coast Guard Sunday rescued three persons from a stalled 30-foot cabin cruiser that drifted dangerously 5-10 miles through rocks before its anchor caught 100 yards off shore.

The three aboard, all residents of the Gold Beach area, were identified as Mr. and Mrs. Orville Ramkin and Howard St. Clair, who were bringing the craft from Brookings to Port Orford.

A search plane spotted the craft about dark, a search light was set up ashore to mark the spot and the Coast Guard took the three persons off unharmed and towed the boat to Brookings.

Indian Woman Marks 110th Birthday With Big Party

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A twice-widowed Indian began her 111th year today allowing as how she didn't think she'd like to try marriage again at this stage in her life.

"No," said spry Mrs. Tatzumbie Du Pea, as she cut a three-tiered birthday cake Sunday. "I had two husbands—that's what we call husbands in Indian—and I don't want another. Besides, who'd want an old woman like me."

Mrs. Du Pea was guest of honor at a birthday party hosted by the Vagabond House. Surrounded by more than 50 friends and relatives, she revealed that she is writing her life story.

"I'm 110 years young today," she proudly told United Press International. "I was born in Lone Pine, Inyo County, and raised in Death Valley. I never saw white people until I was 36 years old. I was afraid of them."

The woman said she had five children, two of whom still are living. She also has six grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Asked the secret to her longevity she replied:

"I've never been in a hospital in my life. I live plainly and my food is plain. I don't smoke and I don't drink. I think it helps me to live long. I love to have my memory exact."

From her humble beginnings she rose to find a measure of fame in Hollywood movies.

Among her films was "Lost Horizon" which starred the late Ronald Colman. "I played a musician in that film. I don't know music but I had to act," she recalls. Other leading men she appeared with were the late actors Wallace Berry and Richard Dix.

"I'm so old now I'm not called for movie work so often," she said.

Castro Back In Office With Mandate

HAVANA (UPI)—Premier Fidel Castro was officially back in power today with a "mandate" from a half-million shouting, shooting peasants ready to turn their razor-sharp machetes against his foes.

Castro told a wildly cheering mass meeting here Sunday night that he will "bow to the people's will" and resume the post he vacated 10 days ago to launch the squeeze play that overthrew President Manuel Urrutia.

The peasants jamming Havana's new Civic Center yelled themselves hoarse, firing revolvers in the air and flashing the machetes (jungle knives) which were acclaimed by Castro as the new symbol of his revolution.

Two baseball players were injured in a similar burst of exuberance just after midnight Sunday, when gun-firing soldiers swarmed onto the field during a night game.

The Rochester Red Wings, after infielder Frank Verdi's head was grazed by a stray bullet, hastily cancelled a doubleheader scheduled Sunday.

The Cubans were scornful. They pointed out that their shortstop, Leonardo Cardenas, was hit in the arm by a bullet "and didn't complain."

Castro's brother, Raul, pontificated commander of Cuba's armed forces, set the stage for his appearance with a speech saying that "the only thing we ask is that Fidel return."

Osvaldo Dorticos Torrado, who was installed as president in place of Urrutia, then stepped forward to announce that Castro had decided to resume his duties as premier "as a result of your mandate."

Castro confirmed his decision in a 2½-hour speech, declaring also that anyone who opposed his land reform plans would face a "United front" of machete-wielding peasants like those who heard him speak.

PORTLAND (AP)—More than 400 Kiwanians members from Canada, Washington, Idaho and Oregon attended the Centennial Exposition here Sunday with the Portland Kiwanis Club as host.

They heard a speech by Portland Mayor Terry Schruck, then attended Art Linkletter's House Party show.

Linkletter became an honorary chief of the Grants Pass Cavemen, and gave Sweet Home newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Burnett a door, for whenever they get a house of their own.

They were part of the stunts on his show which was taped for release today on 250 radio and 150 television stations. The show will originate from the Centennial Exposition the rest of the week.

Powder Puff Flier Killed

BOISE, Idaho (UPI)—A woman flier from California was killed Sunday when a plane piloted by her husband crashed on takeoff from an airstrip in a rugged Idaho area.

Mrs. Betty Haynes, last year's California Flying Farmer queen and a Powder Puff Derby contestant this year, was the victim.

Mrs. Haynes, Arbutle, Calif., died from excessive bleeding from injuries suffered in the crash. Her husband, Joseph, and two other passengers, Mr. and Mrs. Leo R. Howe, also of Arbutle, escaped with minor injuries.

The crash occurred early Sunday when the craft plunged to earth just as it was getting airborne at the Flying B Dude Ranch on the Middle Fork of the Salmon River.

Only access to the area is by plane or horseback. A Flying Farmer group from California, including those from Arbutle, flew into the ranch last Friday for a weekend fishing holiday.

Mrs. Haynes finished 25th in this year's Powder Puff Derby.

Crop Dusting Fatal To Fish

PRINEVILLE (AP)—Crop dusting two weeks ago accidentally poisoned several thousand fish in the privately-owned Big Houston Lake at Powell Butte, 11 miles southwest of Prineville.

Lloyd Smith, a State Game Commission fishery employe at Bend, said the fish in the lake owned by Bill Raschor of Prineville apparently were poisoned by aerial insecticide spray when crops were dusted about a quarter of a mile south of the lake.

Range Fire Whips Over 30,000 Acres

BOISE, Idaho (UPI)—A devastating range fire scorched 30,000 acres of sagebrush and blazed to within three miles of Boise before it was brought under control late Sunday.

While tired fire fighters were controlling the blaze, two smaller fires, one in the Silver City area and another near Mayfield between Boise and Mountain Home, taxed the efforts of other fire fighters.

Mopping-up operations were in progress in the Gowen Field area south of there where the range fire burned for approximately 24 hours and at one time threatened Boise.

Flames ate to the edge of Gowen Field, an Air National Guard base south of the city, and six C124 Globemasters of the 101st Airborne Division were flown out as a precautionary measure.

Two paratroopers were overcome with heat prostration while fighting the blaze Saturday. No other casualties were reported and no buildings were burned.

The fire was believed to have been man caused.
