

MR. AND MRS. LARRY BRISBON were married in Hollister, California, on June 27 by Judge Lorena Johnson at her home.

The bride is the former Margaret Aguirre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Aguirre of Hollister. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brisbon of Klamath Falls are parents of the bridegroom.

The couple is making their home in Monterey where he is stationed with the Air Force as an airman second class and is attending Army language school. He was graduated from Klamath Union High School in 1958.

Portland Church Is Scene Of Rhodes-Weed Nuptials

YREKA—Nancy Claire Weed of Yreka recently became the bride of Richardson Lloyd Rhodes of Portland in the chapel of the First Methodist Church in Portland.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Weed of Yreka, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Revard Rhodes, Portland.

Standing before an altar decorated with arrangements of white gladioli, the couple repeated nuptial vows on July 4. The 8 o'clock double ring ceremony was read by Dr. E. C. Harold in the presence of relatives and close friends.

Abner Weed gave his daughter in marriage. The bride wore a blue linen suit, complemented with white accessories and a yellow rosebud corsage. She carried a white Bible.

Maid of honor was Patti Bartlett of Yreka, cousin of the bride, who wore a two piece beige suit, with green accessories, and a corsage of gardenias.

Brother of the bride, Abner Weed Jr., served as best man. Mrs. Weed selected for her daughter's wedding a sheath of navy blue, trimmed in white, complemented with matching accessories.

Mrs. Rhodes chose a sheath of pink, with matching accessories. Both mothers wore gardenia corsages.

The home of the bridegroom's parents, in the West Lynn suburb of Portland, was the setting for the reception held immediately following the ceremony, which was attended by approximately 25 persons. Focal point of the bride's table was a beautifully decorated wedding cake, topped with the traditional bridal couple. Following the initial slice cut by the newlyweds, the cake was served by Patti Bartlett. Presiding over the punch bowl was Mrs. Marjorie Tucker, a cousin of the bridegroom.

Following the reception, the new Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes left for a brief honeymoon on the Oregon coast. Before they return to Oregon they are visiting at the home of the bride's parents, and at the home of the bridegroom's aunt and uncle and grandmother, respectively. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Richardson and Mrs. Sarah Jones, all of Montague.

The couple plans to reside in Portland where they will complete their education. The bride completed her third year of high school at Yreka High this last spring.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Lake Oswego High School, and has served four years with the Air Force. He plans to enter Northwestern College of Law in Oregon this fall.

Attending the wedding in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Weed and son Abner Jr., and Patti Bartlett, was the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Jones, Montague.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT JAMES LUSE
— Photo by Richards Studio, Tacoma

McChord Chapel Wedding Scene

A ceremony in the chapel at McChord Air Force Base on July 10 united Dixie Darlene Collins of Eugene and A-2-C Robert James Luse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Luse of Klamath Falls. Chaplain John F. Richards officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Collins of Eugene and was given in marriage by her father.

With her street length dress of white lace over taffeta, the bride wore a shoulder length veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with pink and white rosebuds.

Janice Meakins of Springfield was bridesmaid. She wore a street length frock of pink dotted nylon organza and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and rosebuds and blue daisies.

Bill Wyatt of McChord AFB served as best man.

Gwen Seals of Tacoma was organist.

A reception followed the ceremony at the couple's new apartment. Mrs. Collins greeted her daughter's wedding guests wearing a dress of turquoise blue. Mrs. Luse chose a beige street dress for the occasion. Both mothers wore pink carnation corsages. Assisting at the reception were Kathy and Patty Luse, sisters of the bridegroom.

The bride is a graduate of South Eugene High School and her husband of Klamath Union High School. Following a honeymoon trip to Victoria, B.C., they will reside in Tacoma while he is stationed with the Air Force at McChord Air Base.

Present for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Collins and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Luse, grandparents of the bridegroom, all of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Luse and daughters, Kathy and Patty, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. John Arkell, the bride's grandparents of Pendleton.

Veterans Park Picnic Setting

A picnic and social afternoon was held by Klamath Salon 355, 8 et 40 members and their husbands, at the Veterans Memorial Park Sunday afternoon, July 26.

Other guests were grandchildren of Elizabeth Petersteiner and a niece of Leah Glubrecht, Laura Bingham, San Francisco, and Mrs. Huitt, Klamath Falls.

Arrangements for the picnic were made by Lillian Otterbein, chairman, assisted by Arlene Schubert, Barbara Fensler, Lina Molschbacher, and Kay Phillips.

Reminiscing and singing of old songs was enjoyed during the afternoon.

There will be no meeting of Salon 355 until September 30 at which time the newly elected officers will be installed.

PATIO SUPPER

DUNSMUIR — Mr. and Mrs. James Oxford were hosts at a recent patio party at their home on Branstetter Street. Those gathering for supper and an evening of square dancing were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Richard McCoy.

Kaye Kidwell Is Bride Of William D. Steiner

Kaye Duana Kidwell became the bride of William Duane Steiner on July 17 at the Bible Baptist Church. A lovely shade of tangerine used in gladioli arrangements flanked by candelabra set the color decor for the 8 o'clock ceremony. The Rev. Freeman Schmitt read the double ring rites in the presence of over 500 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kidwell and Mr. and Mrs. William A. Steiner are the parents of the bridegroom.

Preceding the ceremony the candles were lighted by Sandra Adams and Carla Tomlin who wore tangerine sheath dresses with full net overskirts.

Leading the bridal procession were flower girl, Derinda Mauch and her brother, Harry Mauch, who served as ring bearer.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of lace and tulle. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped neckline, long tapered sleeves, and dropped waistline from which tiers of tulle embroidered with lace roses fell gracefully to floor length. A cap of lace edged with pearls held a cascade length veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis accented with tangerine color seed pearls.

Gail Mollison was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Kathleen Boivin, Mrs. Tim O'Hara and Pat Carroll. They wore identical princess style frocks of tangerine shantung with a back detail of four bows. Matching bow headbands and satin shoes completed their ensembles. Their pearl drop necklaces were gifts of the bride. The maid of honor carried tangerine carnations with stephanotis trimmed with tangerine pearls, and the bridesmaids' bouquets were cascades of tangerine carnations and yellow roses.

Ted Steiner was best man for his brother. Ushers were Don Waler, brother-in-law of the bridegroom from Eugene, Jim Hines, Klamath Falls, and Elmo Scheive of Eugene.

Mrs. Howard Commons was the organist and accompanied Gladys Kafoury of Portland, soloist. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kidwell chose a champagne beige lace sheath dress with which she wore beige accessories, tangerine feather hat and a talisman rose corsage. Mrs. Steiner wore pink lace with a matching feather hat and pink and yellow rose corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Fields Hall. Centering the bride's table was a Don Mix, now living in Bristol, Connecticut, made the first contact by radio from the Arctic to the United States when he was aboard the Arctic-exploring schooner "Bowdoin" in 1923-24.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM DUANE STEINER
— Photo by Claude Hurst, Redmond

It was Oscar Wilde who said: "Nowadays people know the price of everything and the value of nothing." Burma, in southeast Asia, became an independent republic in 1948. It joined the United Nations the same year.

There's something exciting going on at Dick B. Miller's!

See page 2-A of this Sunday's Herald-News!

"the best place to shop... after all"

Use Your Charge Account

Miller's

Free Customer Parking

Pretty Cocktail Dresses...

designed for you by Jack Stern

For fashion's sake, JACK STERN designed this striking two piece cocktail dress. A short port bolero jacket tops an enchanting satin midriff trimmed with charming little satin bows...in wonderful new acetate and rayon crepe, styled to give those smooth flattering lines...it's sure to be your season's favorite. In Black and the season's most wanted colors. Sizes 10 to 20.

Just a Reminder... complete selection
Sacred Heart Academy Uniforms
Now in Stock! Make your Selections Now

USE MILLER'S LAY-AWAY PLAN

LOWREY Holiday ORGAN

First spinet with big-organ features... priced at $995

Derby's Music Co.
126 No. 7th Ph. TU 4-5121

FREE HOME TRIAL - EASY TERMS!

The Quality of Distinction

Courtesy Rolis-Royce, Inc.

In most fields of manufacture, one name has earned a reputation for pre-eminence. In watch manufacture, that reputation is enjoyed by Movado.

*Witness Movado's record breaking performance at the most recent TIMING COMPETITION at the Official Swiss Neuchatel Observatory. Movado placed FIRST, SECOND, THIRD and FIFTH in the wrist chronometer category. MOVADO broke all previous records in winning the Prix de Serie.

KINOMATIC, self-winding, water resistant
17 jewels, stainless steel	From $95
14 K. Gold	From $155
28 jewels, stainless steel	From $130
14 K. Gold	From $195

for those whose moments are precious.

MOVADO

Prickys

700 Main St. Ph. TU 4-3141