Tulelake Folk Return Home

TULELAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Newton have returned from LaVerne, near Los Angeles, where they visited Mrs. Newton's two sisters, Mrs. Boyd Love and Mrs. Grace Siegenthaler and their families, including Mr. and Mrs. Jack Love and daughter of San Jose, Costa Rica.

The Jack Loves, in this country on vacation, had some interesting sidelights to tell about their trip from their South American home. The family car was driven to Guatemala from their home, there loaded on a railway flatcar to be taken to a point where good roads made it possible to continue their journey.

Jack Love, who with Mrs. Love and daughter has visited in Tulelake, is associated with the Meade-Johnson Pharmaceutical Company and flies to the five countries in his territory, Costa Rica, Guatemala, Panama, Colombia and Nicaragua.

In 1939 President Roosevelt gave a "hot dog" picnic for the King and Queen of Great Britain at Hyde Park.

Kingsley Field Chapel Scene Of July Ceremony

Arlene Foltz became the bride of George Allen Freeman on July 23 at 8:30 o'clock in the chapel at Kingsley Field. The Rev. Jefferson F. Davis performed the ceremony before the altar which was decorated with baskets of white gladioli tied with blue bows.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Foltz Sr. are parents of the bride. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Freeman of Allquippa, Pennsylvania.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her sister's wedding gown styled with a fitted bodice of lace over satin with long pointed sleeves and a Peter Pan collar. The full satin skirt featured a back panel of lace which extended into a full court train. Her fingertip veil was held by a band of lace and seed pearls and she carried a cascade of white roses, gardenias and stephanotis with white ribbon streamers.

The bride's attendants were two of her sisters. Her twin, Mrs. Darlene Blackwell, matron of honor, was dressed in yellow, and Donna Foltz, bridesmaid, wore blue. Their frocks were made alike of rayon brocade and matched the cascade bouquets of carnations which each carried.

William Foltz, brother of the bride, was best man and Donald Franklin of Kansas City was the usher.

A Nile green dress was chosen for Patricia Gehring and one of lavender for Debra Foltz who were flower girls. They wore
