Mount Shasta Couple Wed In Methodist Rites

MOUNT SHASTA — In an impressive candlelight ceremony, before an altar banked with white stock, Nancy Laurene Howarth became the bride of Harold Leroy Smith in the Community Methodist Church July 18. The Rev. Harold Engdahl read the ceremony.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Howarth of Mount Shasta. She was given in marriage by her father, and was attired in a ballerina-length lace gown over taffeta. The fitted bodice was styled with a scalloped bateau neckline and short sleeves. She wore a fingertip veil of illusion net which was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls. A white orchid was atop her Job's Daughters Bible from which hung streamers of white ribbons and Stephanotis.

Yvonne Brown, classmate and roommate of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a ballerina-length mint-green taffeta dress and carried white carnations.

Kathryn Louise Howarth, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Ring bearer was James Howarth, nephew of the bride.

Best man was Harry E. Bishop, Sacramento.

Mrs. Betty Engdahl was organist.

Mrs. Howarth chose for her daughter's wedding a print sheath style dress and white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. The mother of the bridegroom was unable to attend.

A reception at the North Mount Shasta home of the bride's parents followed the wedding. Here the newlyweds cut a three-tiered cake topped by a miniature couple that had adorned the golden wedding anniversary cake of the

Nurse Fulfills Girlhood Dream

HAPPY VALLEY, Labrador (AP) — Kathleen Mary Lutely, affectionately known as "Jo" along Labrador's east coast, is fulfilling a girlhood dream of adventure and helping others.

Miss Lutely, 41, native of Devonshire in England, came to Canada in September of 1957 as a nurse with the International Grenfell Association. She is in charge of the six-bed station in this community near the Hamilton River.

The devoted and energetic nurse is proud of the fact she has delivered some 150 babies without the help of a doctor during her work here and at four other Labrador and Newfoundland Grenfell stations.

"We delivered 77 here last year," she said.

The nursing station is a branch of the main Grenfell Mission Hospital at Northwest River, 40 miles away. Emergency cases brought here are normally transferred to the main hospital or, if necessary, to the RCAF's hospital at Goose Bay, seven miles distant.

"I would have many more grey hairs if it wasn't for the Air Force's assistance," she says.

The Labrador settlements, she admits, are not what Sir Wilfred Grenfell envisioned when he began his work as a medical missionary in this area in 1892.

"Now, it's a mixture . . . Eskimos, Indians, and more and more Canadians."

The talk was interrupted while she went to an adjoining room to stitch and patch the cut forehead of a six-year-old boy, who had bumped into the side of a car just outside.

Back in her bright living room, she surveyed a collection of healthy houseplants and said:

"I love gardening. These are my pets."

Her garden is a bright spot in this village. She had a bumper crop of vegetables last summer, including a 10-pound cabbage.

In her nursing duties she has the use of snowmobiles and aircraft ambulances, and she trades information, news and weather reports with other Grenfell stations on her radio-telephone.

Two doctors from the hospital at Northwest River alternate on twice-weekly visits to the Happy Valley station, which developed from a first aid post in 1948.

For hobbies, besides gardening and reading, Miss Lutely has an increasing stack of records with an emphasis on Newfoundland folk songs. In the summer she goes boating on the river. She also has a hula hoop.

Eulalona DAR Slates Potluck

Eulalona Chapter of DAR is planning a summer picnic for Wednesday noon, August 19, at the home of Dr. Hugh Curran, 2029 Leroy Street. Mrs. Will Wood, hostess for the planned potluck will be assisted by Mrs. E. M. Chilcote. Members are requested to bring their own table service and will be contacted later for food donations.

Programs for the new year are now in the planning stage and members are again reminded that September will feature a dinner meeting honoring the state regent, Mrs. Claude G. Stotts.

ANNOUNCED recently in Cave Junction by Mr. and Mrs. Phayo Pfefferle is the engagement of their daughter, Marian May to Stuart Mephram.

The bride-elect and her parents are former residents of Klamath Falls. She was graduated from Klamath Union High School and The Salvation Army School for officers in San Francisco. An officer in the Salvation Army since 1954, she is now in the bay city at Territorial Headquarters of the Western Territory.

The future bridegroom is the son of missionary parents and lived a number of years in Java. He was graduated from the University of San Francisco and is a member of the teaching staff of Huntington Beach High School.

They will be married on August 7 at the Salvation Army Citadel in San Francisco after which they will be at home in Huntington Beach.

Farewells Mark Kingsley Affairs

Many farewell parties have been given recently for Kingsley Field personnel who are leaving for new assignments or retiring.

Officers of the 827th AC and W Squadron honored their commanding officer, Maj. John F. Thompson and his wife at a reception on July 25 at the Officer's Club. A silver tray was presented to Mrs. Thompson as a farewell gift. Major Thompson is retiring as a lieutenant colonel after 26 years service with the Air Force. The Thompsons will make their home in San Jose.

Goodbys were said to Col. and Mrs. Leland Raphun at a reception on July 29 at the Officer's Club when officers of the 408th fighter group were hosts in their honor. Colonel Raphun and his family left this weekend for his new station in Iceland.

Nigeria, in British West Africa, with 23 million persons, has the largest population in the British, French, Belgian and Portuguese colonies.

THE BETROTHAL of Beverly Jean McDermott to Isaac H. Thomas Jr. was announced this week by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Othie McDermott. The bride-elect will complete her senior year at Klamath Union High School this fall. Her fiancé, a graduate of Henley High School and Portland Barber College, is now employed in this city. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Thomas Sr. of Henley.

Ballet Students Return Home

An exciting eight days have ended for a group of ballet students who have returned to their homes after attending a summer session at the San Francisco Ballet School. The girls were accompanied by their teacher, Edna Howell of Normadean Studio. Included in the group were Jerry Ruth Wickersham, Stephanie Olivera, Carol and Susan Drew, Susan Merryman, Kaycee Martz, Gail and Jeannie Carnini, Kathy Ellingson and Shirley Parr.

In addition to classes they attended rehearsals of the San Francisco Ballet Company which will leave soon for a foreign tour. The girls viewed the city from "The Top of the Mark" and attended two shows, Oklahoma and The Ice Follies.

A highlight of their stay in the city was a birthday party at the Fairmont Hotel in honor of Susan Merryman.

Chapel Vows Unite Couple

ALTURAS—The season's newlyweds include Mr. and Mrs. John Earl Spearman (Myrna Mair Miles) who recited vows on July 11 in Park Wedding Chapel in Reno.

Dressed in a princess style tulle gown of lace, trimmed with organza, the bride carried white carnations on a white Bible.

Her attendant, Mary Pacheco of Sacramento, was gowned in pink lace.

Kenneth King of Mather AFB performed best man duties.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Miles of Elk Grove, California. The bridegroom, son of Mrs. John Mayfield, is an airman second class, stationed at Mather AFB where the couple will reside.

CLOSE CALL

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — Even dirty clothes are going to the dogs these days. An employee of a laundry heard strange noises in a bundle of dirty clothes. Inside was a Chihuahua dog, which didn't want a washing.
