Masons Convene At Crater Lake

Masonic lodges from 22 states were represented Saturday, August 1, in the biggest outdoor Masonic meeting ever held at Crater Lake. The annual convocation is considered one of the nation's largest of its type.

Crater Lake Lodge 211, AF & AM, under direction of Worshipful Master Dale Howell, hosted the meeting. Hundreds of Master Masons from 99 lodges all over the nation were present for rituals. A delegation of 44 members from Hunters Point Naval Lodge 706, San Francisco, flew north for the meeting.

David A. Pearson, MW Grand Master of Masons in Oregon, took part in the all-day events. A. T. Williams, superintendent of Crater Lake National Park welcomed delegates.

Luncheon was served at noon by Crater Lake Lodge. It followed conference of the first section of work. Klamath Falls Lodge 77, headed by Worshipful Master Sanford C. Selby, staged a pantomime before conference of the second section of the degree. Members of Portland Lodge 5 directed by Herbert M. Briggs, worshipful master, dressed in costume to confer the degree.

The meeting ended following a baked chicken dinner at 5 p.m. The Crater Lake meetings began in 1949 and have continued annually since.
