

Gold Cup Trials Run Smoothly

SEATTLE (AP) — One of the most trouble-free qualifying weeks in Gold Cup history was in its last day Friday with only two unlimited hydroplanes yet to qualify for this Sunday's 52nd annual running of speedboat racing's greatest classic.

Thirteen boats had churned around the Gold Cup course on Lake Washington at better than the minimum needed speed by Thursday. Seven qualified Tuesday—the first day of qualifying trials—four on Wednesday and two Thursday.

That left only the Miss Seattle and the Coral Reef of Tacoma yet to swing the three laps around the 3-mile course at better than the 95 mile an hour minimum.

The Miss Bardahl, a question-mark entry up to Friday, is definitely not going to enter the Gold Cup. Her owner, Ole Bardahl, telephoned his Seattle headquarters from Norway and told an assistant: "I stand on my previous statement. Miss Bardahl will not run."

Race officials had said they believed Bardahl would change his mind and allow last year's unlimited hydro point champion to make the chase for the cup.

The KOL-roy and the Miss United States I qualified Thursday. Bob Larsen, a Seattle airline pilot, steered KOL-roy to an average of 95.462 m.p.h., just barely over the minimum.

The Miss U.S. I turned in the fastest time of any of the 13 that had qualified through Thursday. Don Wilson of Detroit whipped George Simon's boat around the three laps at an average of 113.056 miles an hour, nearly two miles faster than the previous best time this week.

Miss Spokane, driven by Norm Evans, had held the top speed in a run Wednesday of 113.128 until the powerful U.S. I made her try.

The opinion is that this field may be the fastest in the history of the Gold Cup and may break the 90-mile overall race record of 103.481 miles an hour set last year when Jack Regas won the cup in the Hawaii Kai III.

The Kai, which qualified at a speed of 109.533, is back to defend her title with a new driver, Brian Wyle.

The other boats that had qualified through Thursday were Miss Pay 'n Save, Seattle; Gale V and Gale VI, both Detroit; Miss Wahoo, Seattle; Breathless II, Piedmont, Calif.; Maverick, Lake Mead, Nev.; Thriftway Two and Miss Thriftway, both Seattle, and Nitrogen, Washington, D. C.

BATTING BATTERY MATES — Looking a little shocked, Klamath Falls winning pitcher Sherm Allen, right, and his catcher Rod Sparlin, left, walk off the field after the KF 15-6 bombardment of Tualatin in the nightcap of the opening round of the Babe Ruth state tourney. Both Allen and Sparlin smashed inside-the-park home runs to assist the Klamath Falls nine to the big victory.

Clock Runs Out

ChiSox, Orioles Can't Score; Pirates Won't Quit

Feast or famine — take your pick.

Sometimes a team can't beg, borrow or steal a run as was the case with the White Sox and Orioles, who battled to an 18-inning 1-1 tie in the longest game of the year Thursday night.

And there are other times when the poor guy running the scoreboard could use an adding machine as was the case when the Pirates came up with 10 runs in the ninth inning to swamp the Cardinals, 18-2.

Southpaw Billy Pierce and knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm were the standouts in the four-hour-and-eight-minute Chicago-Baltimore marathon.

Pierce, once thought to be "too frail" during the early part of his career, pitched the first 16 innings for the White Sox before giving way to Turk Lown.

The 35-year-old Wilhelm took over for starter Billy O'Dell in the ninth and pitched no-hit ball for 8 2-3 innings before Billy Goodman singled with two out in the 17th.

Chicago, Orioles Tie

Chicago scored the first run in the third inning on a walk and John Romano's triple off the left field barrier which just missed being a homer by inches. Baltimore scored its runs in the eighth on Chico Carrasquel's single, a sacrifice and another single by Willie Tasby.

The two teams, finally halted by the midnight curfew, had played 17-inning games on June 4th and July 25th of this season with Chicago winning both games.

(18 innings, called, curfew)
Chicago 001 000 000 000 000 000—1 7 0
Baltimore 000 000 010 000 000 000—1 12 1
Pierce, Lown (17) and Romano, O'Dell, Wilhelm (9) and Ginsberg.

Bucs 18, Cards 2

In Pittsburgh's slaughter of St. Louis, the Pirates sent 15 men to bat in the ninth. Smokey Burgess paced a 25-hit assault on five Cardinal pitchers, driving in six runs with five hits, including a homer and two doubles. Bill Virdon drove in five runs.

The winner was left-hander Harvey Haddix, who hurled a seven-hitter and breezed to his eighth victory. The same Haddix would have done anything for a couple of those runs when he lost a 13-inning one-hit 1-0 decision to the Braves last May 26th.

San Francisco stretched its National League lead to a full game with a 7-1 decision over Milwaukee and Chicago beat Philadelphia 4-2. Los Angeles and Cincinnati were not scheduled.

In the American League, Cleveland climbed to within 1 1/2 games of the top with a 5-2 victory over Washington; Detroit blanked New York, 4-0, and Boston nipped Kansas City, 4-3.

Pitchers Baffling Enemy

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—With all the fuss about the batting heroic of young Willie McCovey, you're apt to forget how well the San Francisco Giants pitching staff is baffling the opposition.

Big Sam Jones, for instance, won his 13th victory of the season Thursday in hurling the National League leaders to a 7-1 triumph over the defending champion Milwaukee Braves.

Never before in his major league career that goes back to 1951 has the 6-foot-4 right-hander won that many contests in a season.

It looked for a few minutes Thursday as if he might have to call it quits after the fifth inning when Hank Aaron slid into him during a play at third base. Jones was knocked dizzy and suffered a slit on his left leg. But he declares:

"You couldn't have pulled me out with 10 teams of horses."

MAKING IT HERMAN
RENSSELAER, Ind. (UPI) — Willie Herman Lee, the Chicago Bears' veteran offensive tackle, told teammates at their training camp Thursday he would prefer being called Herman from now on. Lee's wife likes Herman better than Willie.

Giants 7, Braves 1

Sam Jones of the Giants scored his 13th victory of the season with an eight-hitter over the Braves.

Milwaukee 000 001 000—1 8 1
San Fran. 200 400 10x—7 10 0
Burdette, Pizarro (7) and Crandall, Jones (15-10) and Landrith, Loser — Burdette (15-11). HRS—Bressoud, Mays.

Cubs 4, Phillies 2

The Cubs snapped a seven-game losing streak when Ernie Banks double touched off a two-run rally in the eighth against the Phillies.

Philadelphia 000 000 020—2 8 2
Chicago 100 001 02x—4 10 0
Owens, Robinson (8), Farrell (8) and Lonnett, Ceccarelli, Elston (8) and S. Taylor. Winner—Elston (6-4). Loser — Robinson (2-2).

Indians 5, Nats 2

Rocky Colavito's 32nd homer with one on highlighted a three-run rally that carried the Indians to their victory over the Senators.

Cleveland 020 000 030—5 11 0
Washington 200 000 000—2 6 0
Bell (12-9) and Nixon, Kemmerer.
