

Babe Ruth Tournament Enters Semi-Final Action In Stadium

lected the only other Cleveland safety.

An auto accident Wednesday while en route to Klamath Falls was credited as a partial cause for the Cleveland's shaky glove work.

Starting first baseman, Jim Leabey, fractured his wrist in the crash. Peterson, Schnitzer and Schmidt were also involved in the accident, although all three were able to play Thursday.

Wilson 3, Grant 1

Wilson was inspired to its upset victory over Grant in the opener, by the bat of first baseman Gene Curtiss.

Curtiss notched three of the six Wilson hits, one an over-the-right-field-wall homer, one a double and the other a single. His homer traveled an estimated 290 feet on a smash that cleared the wall two feet inside the first base foul line. The victory was earned by Wilson's Gary Anderson while the defeat was handed Fernhill's Fred Nadeau. Nadeau walked only one man and whiffed five but the five Grant errors took their toll.

Wilson rated only two mistakes during the game.

Bob Arnst, Craig Ramey, and Dave Phalen got the only Grant hits.

Fernhill Wilson Yoder and Bell; Anderson and Cowles.

'Title' Defense Set

Sugar To Work Without Guarantee

By JACK CUDDY
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — After a lapse of 21 months, Sugar Ray Robinson will defend his "big portion" of the middleweight crown against Paul Pender at the Boston Garden, Dec. 3, "without a guarantee of any kind."

"I've still got a big portion of the championship," said 39-year-old Ray today, "and I'm defending it without a guarantee because I've got a good percentage deal and because it'll help independent promoters."

The promoters are Sam Silverman and Johnny Buckley of Boston.

Sleek, slender Robinson — who signed Thursday night to defend against the Brookline, Mass. contender—said, "I'm still recognized as champion in New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Cuba, and continental Europe."

He added, "and next year I hope to regain recognition everywhere."

Robinson's defense against 29-year-old Pender will be his first since he recaptured the 160-pound title from Carmen Basilio at the Chicago Stadium, March 23, 1958.

Because of his inactivity, the National Boxing Assn. vacated his title on May 4. Ex-champion Basilio of Chittenango, N.Y., and Gene Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, are scheduled to fight for the NBA version of the title at San Francisco, Aug. 28.

Silverman announced in New York that Sugar Ray will receive 47 1/2 per cent of the gate and 75 per cent of all television, radio and movie rights.

Silverman said they already had an offer of $100,000 for TV, permitting a 100-mile blackout in the Boston area.

Moreover, should Sugar Ray be upset and lose his title to the challenger, Pender has agreed to give him a return title shot within 90 days—with Robinson getting 30 per cent of the return net rights. Challenger Paul, who looks like a fresh-faced collegian and who did spend one year at Staley College, has had 40 fights during his off-interrupted 10-year professional career. He won 33, including 19 by knockouts.

In his last bout on March 17, he earned a title shot—according to Sugar Ray — by beating Ralph (Tiger) Jones, who once outpointed Robinson.

HAPPY HOME RUN HITTER — Receiving the congratulations of his teammates is Gene Curtiss, Wilson first baseman, after he smashed the first four base blow of the Babe Ruth Tournament. Curtiss added a double and single in helping Wilson to a 3-1 victory over Grant (Fernhill) in the opening game of the tourney.
