

SPANGLELAND ARISTOCRATS, the George Hanneford bareback riders, known in the circus world as "the royal family of the circus ring," will perform when the Polack Brothers Circus comes to Klamath Falls by courtesy of the local Shrine Club. Performances are scheduled for 2:15 and 8:15 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, August 11 and 12. Trained lions, elephants, chimps, dogs and ponies also will perform.

Klamath County 4-H, FFA Set Dates For Junior Fair

Dates of the 24th annual Klamath County 4-H Club and Future Farmers of America Junior Fair which will include the livestock show and sale have been set for August 23, 24 and 25.

Director in charge of the livestock division, Rotary member Al Geiss, member of the sponsoring group of this part of the fair, is being assisted by Ned Hamaker, bull of the woods; Ned Putnam, big push; Dorman Turner, little push; Wilbur Haskins, wee push; and their numerous committees. Mike Balsiger is Rotary president.

In addition to the livestock entries, exhibits of garden produce and flowers, food preparation and preservation, entomology, forestry, outdoor cooking, demonstration contests, a new photography contest have been added this year.

Beef cattle, dairy stock, sheep and swine are being readied for showing and sale.

Francis Skinner, Klamath County 4-H Club agent, said Friday that prospects are "excellent" for fine exhibits this year in all departments.

Klamath Falls Rotarians have viewed livestock, vegetable and flower gardens have been visited and barns and sales ring are being readied.

Final day of the show will conclude as in past years with the invitational barbecue to be served by Rotarians and the sale that draws livestock buyers from all parts of the Klamath Basin and elsewhere.

Premium lists have been mailed to all 4-H and FFA Club members.

Those planning to exhibit should have entry blanks in the office of the 4-H Club agent by August 10.

Who's On First?

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (UPI)—Charles Hufnagle, of (Evansville, Ind.), ordered bumper stickers to advertise his candidacy for a city council seat. When they arrived, Hufnagle's name was misspelled "Hufnagel."

It wouldn't matter too much, perhaps, except that a man named J. M. Hufnagel is running for another council seat.

Obey All Rules

BONN, Germany (UPI)—The owners of a new office building here today handed tenants cards saying: "It is forbidden to jump from the windows unless the fire department is present."

The owners said the cards referred only to the possibility of a fire.

During 1958 the sale of religious books in this country went up 18 per cent. To promote sales, book advertisers during this period invested over nine and one-half million dollars in daily newspaper advertising.

Three Seek Vacant Post

County Judge Bob Walker said three persons have inquired about the position of Odell District justice of peace, a post vacated by the death of Justice Earle Winford Dunn last week.

Inquiries to the county court are of no avail, however, because the court has no authority to fill the position. District Attorney Arthur Beedoe informed the court that Governor Hatfield must name a replacement.

Those who inquired about the position were Mrs. Marguerite F. Harris, Mrs. Marjorie Stumbaugh and a Mr. Walker, all of Crescent.

The original settlement at St. Paul, Minnesota, was called Innijska. It became St. Paul in 1841.
