

Bradley-Sees No Cutback

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Omar Bradley says he doesn't expect the Eisenhower-Khrushchev talks to produce a cutback in U.S. spending for defense.

"There will have to be a great deal of action for peace, to add to the talks, before the U.S. can think of lowering its guard," the retired Army general said Tuesday in an interview.

"If such cutbacks occur," he said, "the American economy is capable of taking up the slack by producing for a higher standard of living."

SCOUT NEWS

Klamath Falls Boy Scout Troop 4 returned Saturday from a week's stay at Camp Makualla, the scouts' summer stamping grounds.

Scouts received recognition at a Court of Awards Friday. Clayton Davis, Billy Mills, and Richard Eastburn were promoted to first class rank; Douglas Leech, Mike Shufelt and Ronnie Patsch received second class rank.

Scouts and merit badges they received were Don Aschenbach, marksmanship, canoeing, forestry and rowing; Dean Guyer, scholarship, canoeing, nature and pioneering; Billy Mills, canoeing; Jerry Gospodnetich, canoeing, rowing and pioneering; Don Plowman, canoe-ing and nature and Lester Plowman, rowing, soil and water conservation, and wildlife management.

The following boys received badges for proficiency in shooting: Richard Eastburn, marksman and Billy Mills, sharpshooter and marksman first class.

Also attending were John Haldiman and Scoutmaster Bill Green. Troop 4 is planning a trip on the Skyline Trail sometime before school opens.

Since 1937 Nebraska has had only one house in its legislature, instead of the usual two of other states.

Dick Nixon Convinced Rockefeller To Be Foe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon is convinced that, come what may, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller intends to battle him for the 1960 Republican presidential nomination.

The New York governor has indicated he will make a decision by November. If private polls then show Nixon trailing leading Democrats in popularity and Rockefeller feels his reputed appeal to independent voters would make him a stronger GOP nominee, he will take the plunge.

Nixon's reaction to all this, it can be said on the best authority, is that anyone can get any kind of result he desires from private polls. He thinks Rockefeller wants to run and will find that the polls support such a course.

But Nixon never really believed he could get the nomination without a fight, and since Rockefeller's election as governor he has regarded a battle between them as almost inevitable.

For this reason, Rockefeller's recent demonstration of near-eagerness for the contest has come as no surprise to the Nixon camp. Nor does it alter plans for the vice president to attend almost exclusively to his governmental duties until November.

If Rockefeller comes out in the open then—or makes an earlier announcement after huddles with strategists impatient to get him into national circulation—the Nixon plans could change accordingly.

At this point the vice president has no thought that President Eisenhower might designate him to accompany Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev on the latter's scheduled tour of the country.

While such a tour assignment might enhance Nixon's political

Lake Youth Visit Camp

LAKEVIEW—Four Lake County boys went to the Youth Range Camp sponsored by the Pacific Northwest section of the American Society of Range Management.

Local boys attending the camp from August 3 to 8 at Logan Valley in the Grant County Blue Mountains were Edward Sipp, 4-H; Thomas Goss, FFA; Francis Estep, FFA; and Arpad Kovacs, who was chosen as outstanding student of Lakeview High School.

Cliff Winkle, chairman of the Lake County Committee, reports that camp scholarships were furnished by the Fremont Sheepmen's Association, First National Bank of Oregon, Lakeview Rotary Club and Lakeview Elks Lodge.

On the committee with Winkle to choose the boys were Herb Pollard, assistant chairman; Duane Crane, scholarship; Al Haslebach, Wallace J. Sweeney and Oris Rudd, selection and transportation.
