

Medic Lost In Rockies

TWIN LAKES, Colo. (AP)—Dr. Mary McGehee, 65, was lost today on a rugged hike across Colorado's Continental Divide—almost exactly two years after she was lost on a similar jaunt.

That time, while climbing 14,000-foot Mt. Shavano in south-central Colorado, the grey-haired woman scholar found her way to a ranch house two days after a search was started.

She and a college student, Georgia Steiner, 18, Lake Forest, Ill., set out on a hiking trip last weekend to a friend's cabin some 50 miles away. Miss Steiner reported they became lost Saturday.

A search party of 10 today left Aspen, where Dr. McGehee lives, for the Taylor reservoir area about halfway between Aspen and the pair's destination of Vicksburg, Colo.

The missing woman, who once joined an archaeological expedition to Greece, taught history and archaeology at Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Since moving to Colorado five years ago, she has climbed nearly a dozen of the state's highest peaks.

LA POSTMASTER

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Postmaster Otto K. Olsen has come up with a novel idea: Mail boxes on buses.

He made the proposal Tuesday to the Metropolitan Transit Authority. The MTA referred it to its executive director, C. M. Gilliss.

Now Many Wear FALSE TEETH With More Comfort

FASTEETH, a pleasant alkaline (non-acid) powder, holds false teeth more firmly to eat and talk in more comfort. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. No gummy, soapy, pasty taste or feeling. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

HEAT AND HUMIDITY

PETERSBURG, Va. (AP)—Police Chief E. W. Taylor says there is a definite relationship between heat and humidity and overtime parking fines. Motorists in hot weather go into air conditioned shops and forget about the time limit, he says.

Civil War Vet Said Critical

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Walter Williams, 116-year-old sole survivor of the Civil War army, remained in critical condition today from effects of pneumonia.

The nation's oldest veteran, who served as a forage master with Hood's Texas Brigade in the Confederate Army, was fed through an eye-dropper Tuesday night. Earlier, his daughter, Willie Mae Bowles, said the old soldier "refuses to eat, refuses to speak, refuses to do anything."

Williams was fed a mixture of milk, egg and water.

It's up to the Lord now," Mrs. Bowles said. "I just don't see how he's going to make it now." She has cared for her father since he moved here from his Franklin, Tex., farm three years ago.
