Refuge Sought In Clothes Dryer

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—It was hot out in the sun but 6-year-old Philip Flannigan found a hotter place.

While his parents worked in their garden, he climbed into an automatic clothes dryer, the type which starts when the door is closed.

Philip closed the door. A short time later, an older brother heard him bumping around in the machine and pulled him out.

Except for being pretty hot and shaken up a bit, Philip wasn't hurt.
